REAGAN IS THIRD ON POLL LIST

Top Team Choice Is Revealed As Rockefeller-Reagan

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon has topped a nationwide Associated Press poll of Republican leaders who were asked to name their favorite for the GOP presidential nomination next year

However, the strongest potential ticket would be composed of Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Ronald Reagan of California, those participating in the survey replied. A Nixon-Reagan combination ran second.

Associated Press bureaus submitted a three-part questionnaire to the state chairmen and members of the GOP National Committee in all 50 states. About half replied.

The questions and results were:

1. Whom do you favor for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination?

Nixon—46 per cent
Gov. George Romney—26
Rockefeller—14
Reagan—7
Others—7

2. Which Republican has the best chance of defeating President Johnson?

Nixon—41 per cent
Rockefeller—25
Romney—23
Reagan—11

3. What combination of candidates for president and vice president would offer the strongest ticket?

Nicasio Meeting: What They Said As Teacher Fired

By DON BRANNING

It sometimes seemed during the evening that great truths were ricocheting off the blackboards of Mrs. Garnet Brennan's classroom at Nicasio elementary school. Everyone who stood up beside the children's crayon drawings of Hawaii said what the philosophical kernel was.

In the end—perspiring beneath TV lights, including those of Huntley-Brinkley agents, bracketed by microphones, besieged by reporters brandishing ball point pens—the three members of the Nicasio school board fired their school principal, Mrs. Brennan, 58, for the quiet marijuana cigarette she'd had most evenings 18 years, and for telling the world about it the past few days.

"We will appeal," breathed Mrs. Brennan, giddy from fatigue and the publicity's bright glare. "Yes, a friend happened to have a marijuana cigarette years ago. I didn't say no. I loved it and I've loved it ever since. And now finally people are standing up for themselves."

A second Nicasio teacher, Jeffrey Pflugrath, who teaches fifth through eighth grades, had also signed an affidavit, but no charges were brought against him after he informed the school board that he did not smoke marijuana and was merely calling for modification of the law.

A shy woman, with carelessly chopped off gray hair and darting, brown rabbity eyes, Mrs. Brennan has been a teacher for 30 outwardly conforming years. She has quickly become the most famous of 46 persons, many of them Marin marijuana smokers, who signed court affidavits in support of Melkon Melkonian, 33-year-old Mill Valley mechanic twice convicted of violating the marijuana laws.

Nothing — not even the occasion when it failed by two votes to become the Marin County seat — has so disturbed the splendidly scenic village of Nicasio, population 350, as Mrs. Brennan's now repeated admission that she calmed her nerves with marijuana in her woodsy hillside home in Forest Knolls while at the same time superintending the education of 48 children of Nicasio residents, grades first through eighth, at the village school.

Nicasio's citizens were there last night, at the hearing held by school trustees Mrs. Marie S. Rogers, Wilfred LaFranchi and Nick Kobseff, in Mrs. Brennan's packed former classroom. And they were grim, even when they spoke well of Mrs. Brennan as a person and a teacher.

"These outsiders can say what they want," said Paul Farley, whose son, Daniel, is one of Mrs.

LBJ PROCLAIMS OUTER SPACE MILESTONE

WASHINGTON (AP) President Johnson made a new appeal to the Soviet Union today to abandon "competitive spacemanship" and join with the United States in a cooperative effort to explore the heavens.

It prohibits any nation from claiming sovereignty in space or using celestial bodies such as the moon and planets for military bases.

How To Make Flood Control Beautiful

By WAT TAKESHITA

A uniformed colonel from the Army Corps of Engineers sounded more like a landscape designer than Army brass this morning as he outlined esthetics that will go into the Corte Madera Creek flood control project from Bon Air Bridge to the northern boundary of Ross.

Lt. Col. Frank C. Boerger announced that current corps policy allows up to 3 per cent of project funds to be spent for "beautification." He spoke at a joint meeting of the Marin County Board of Supervisors and the Ross Valley Flood Control Zone Advisory Board.

He presented rough sketches of landscaped banks and walkways along the levees, which he described as "Esplanade de Corte Madera."

The first phase of construction from the bay to Bon Air Bridge is now underway. This will be a dirt lined channel with little landscaping because the project is mainly dredging, said Boerger.

At the insistence of Ann McCorry, of Greenbrae, member of the flood control zone advisory board ,the colonel agreed to study possible planting of the banks with marsh grass.

From Bon Air Bridge unstream, where a concrete lined ditch will extend through Ross, Colonel Boerger said that a vinyl covered fence and posts are planned to blend in with the green landscape.

"Above Lagunitas bridge we have aligned the channel to miss the larger trees and homes as much as possible," said the colonel. "I think we can save a great number of larger trees."

He added that colored textured concrete is also under study to eliminate the stark lines of white concrete.

"We are trying to avoid visual pollution," he pointed out. The colonel said every effort will be made to allow "man to cogitate and commune with nature."

Supervisor, Ernest N. Kettenhofen wondered if the channel can remain at least partially filled during the dry season. The corps is planning a barrier in the vicinity of College of Marin to do just that, the colonel replied.

Councilman Vaughn Marker of Larkspur, a member of the advisory board, asked that cost of maintenance be kept to a minimum, because local funds will have to be used for maintenance after the project is completed.

Planning director Director Paul C. Zucker warned that the esthetic picture painted by the colonel may be "misleading." He pointed out that public walkways along the levees will not be possible unless private lands abutting the levees are acquired by the county, and this will cost money.

"We need to be careful we don't mislead ourselves on this," said Zucker. "Just like a woman who comes out of a beauty parlor. She looks the best the day she comes out and looks progressively worse as time goes by. The idea that this will look better as time passes is not true."

Zucker said he believes there may be an alternative to the concrete-lined ditch planned in the area above Bon Air Bridge.

Kettenhofen added that he too is looking for some alternative. Colonel Boerger said the corps is open to suggestions at any time, but warned that the project cannot wait for too much delay.

Marker said he thought Zucker's ideas on esthetics is not necessarily shared by all people in the county.

CHE'S DEATH IS CONFIRMED

LA PAZ, Bolivia (UPI) — Bolivia today officially announced the death of Ernesto (Che) Guevara, revolutionary and former righthand man of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro, in a battle with U.S.-trained Bolivian rangers.

Melkonian Sentenced To One Year In Jail

Melkon Melkonian, the 32-year-old Mill Valley mechanic whose San Francisco narcotics conviction has drawn 46 protesting sworn affidavits, many from Marin marijuana users, was sentenced on another marijuana charge in Marin yesterday to a year in the county jail.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court sentenced Melkonian for possession of 20 kilograms of marijuana at his home, 424 West Blithedale Avenue, and placed him on three years probation.

Melkonian, whose San Francisco conviction was a charge of "aiding and abetting the sale of marijuana," pleaded no contest on Aug. 16 to the Marin charge.

His attorney, Molly Minudri, will ask the San Francisco superior court to make no legal finding in his case, on grounds that the marijuana laws are unconstitutional by reason of being "cruel and unusual punishment." She is continuing to collect affidavits in his behalf from marijuana users and sympathisers.

Hugh A. Hinchliffe of Green Street, Tamalpais Valley, who is collecting the affidavits for Mrs. Minudri, released the list of signers.

Affidavits were sworn in the following Marin County communities:

Larkspur —Peter Arbuthnot, Zekial Marko, Dickens Bascom, Jack Duvore, Barbara Ann Kerr, Diane Forrester, Velma Storm.

San Rafael — Karen Johnson, Addie M. Pinckney, Patricia Helberg.

Sausalito — Doyle Nance, Edward Kulbusauskas, Grover E. Boaz.

U.S. Bolsters Force Along DMZ With 3,000 More Marines

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. officials disclosed today 3,000 Marine reinforcements had been sent to the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) for what could be preparations for a decisive battle. In the air, U.S. planes dueled MIG21s and carried out night attacks against previously untouched targets.

Military sources made it clear they considered the threat to the northern provinces of South Vietnam to be one of the most serious of the war with five North Vietnamese divisions just north of the DMZ or hiding in nearby mountains below the border.

This brought the total of American forces in the area to more than 100,000 —enough to mount a major offensive against the Communist threat. The U.S. government has denied it is even considering any invasion of North Vietnam, but Lt. Gen. Robert Cushman, U.S. Marine commander in Vietnam, said the Marine reinforcements were made so "we can go on the offensive, and I hope soon."

The Marines have struck into the DMZ before.

Pilots who streaked over the major port of Haiphong in a night attack on a previously unhit military barracks reported the antiaircraft fire was so heavy they could almost read their charts by the light of the flashes. They left flames visible for 20 miles from the sprawling military complex three miles south of Haiphong.

One Air Force F105 Thunderchief was shot down by a missile-firing MIG 21. The pilot was listed as missing.

It was the 25th American plane lost in aerial combat and the 695th American air loss of the war over the North.

Buddhist Boss Ends Sit-In After Promise From Thieu

Thus, the last active opposition to Thieu and the new government apparently crumbled—for the moment at least.

The possibility of more trouble, however, was underlined by a U.S. military Headquarters bulletin warning American serivcemen to stay away from areas where anti-government demonstrations might take place.

The communique said "information has been received that demonstrations will be taking place in various locations throughout Saigon for the next few weeks."

Tri Quang and the three monks that had been sitting with him folded up their beach umbrellas, walked to the street and climbed into a waiting car

Senate Committee Hammers Out Compromise On Redwoods Park

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Interior Committee approved yesterday a compromise bill to authorize a 61,654-acre Redwood National Park on the north coast of California.

Chairman Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., reported the committee action, in closed-door session, was by voice vote and that there was some dissent.

Jackson said he and Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R - Calif., would introduce a new bill embodying the new proposal — a compromise between the 45,000-acre park recommended by the Interior Department and the 90,000-acre proposal of the Sierra Club and other conservation groups.

The compromise bill would establish a park boundary, including three California state parks.

Land acquisition cost for the park was estimated at $99.8 million. Jackson said this could be reduced by as much as $60 million by making 14,000 acres of Forest Service land in the northern redwood purchase unit in Del Norte County available for exchange for private timberland to be included in the park.

Jackson said the national forest land exchange will be the main bone of contention over the bill, being opposed strongly by the Forest Service and the secretary of agriculture.

Jackson and Kuchel predicted, that if the bill passes in its present form it will be signed into law by President Johnson.

School Voting Light, Steady

Voting was light but steady this morning throughout Tamalpais High School District as voters voted on three bond issues and a tax rate increase.

The high school district proposes a $12,315,000 bond issue and the Sausalito School District a $1.4 million bond issue. The San Anselmo School District proposes a $950,000 bond issue and a 75-cent tax rate increase. Polls will remain open until the unusual hour of 7:30 p.m. throughout the district.

The bond issues take a two-thirds yes vote to pass. The San Anselmo tax rate issue requires a simple majority.

Voting at 11 a.m., at selected precincts today was as follows:

Senate Committee Hammers Out Compromise On Redwoods Park

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Interior Committee approved yesterday a compromise bill to authorize a 61,654-acre Redwood National Park on the north coast of California.

Chairman Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., reported the committee action, in closed-door session, was by voice vote and that there was some dissent.

Jackson said he and Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R - Calif., would introduce a new bill embodying the new proposal — a compromise between the 45,000-acre park recommended by the Interior Department and the 90,000-acre proposal of the Sierra Club and other conservation groups.

The compromise bill would establish a park boundary, including three California state parks.

Land acquisition cost for the park was estimated at $99.8 million. Jackson said this could be reduced by as much as $60 million by making 14,000 acres of Forest Service land in the northern redwood purchase unit in Del Norte County available for exchange for private timberland to be included in the park.

Jackson said the national forest land exchange will be the main bone of contention over the bill, being opposed strongly by the Forest Service and the secretary of agriculture.

Jackson and Kuchel predicted, that if the bill passes in its present form it will be signed into law by President Johnson.

Cruise Ship

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — The Swedish American Line reportedly plans to build a $23 million luxury cruise ship with the aid of other European shipowners.

It was learned yesterday that the Brostroem Co., a major stockholder in the line, is negotiating with other owners about the projected liner to serve the American market.

Shoulder Belts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government, deciding that injuries from over-the-shoulder seatbelts are rare, will stand by its requirement that the chest belts be in all new cars built after Dec. 31.

Federal Highway Administrator Lowell K. Bridwel announced yesterday the agency's second thoughts about the standard have been resolved. He pronounced use of chest and lap belts together "the best single means of protection available" from injury in car accidents.

Clean Sweep

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — It was a clean sweep.

Burglars swept through a warehouse and purloined 12 to 16 vacuum cleaners, Atlanta police said yesterday.

Pearl In Mountain

CASTIGLION DELLA PESCAIA, Italy (UPI)—An ancient oyster shell with a pearl in it was discovered 2,300 feet up on a mountain and several miles inland from the Tyrrehenian Sea near here, two amateur paleontologists reported today.

Prof. Fortunato Doloverti and painter Evrio Cicalini said the oyster and half-inch pearl were among 200 shells and petrified fish skeletons found on the mountainside, apparently once part of the sea bottom.

Niger River Floods

BAMAKO, Mali (UPI)—Record flooding of the Niger River left more than 3,000 Malians homeless last night and the river was reported still rising in some areas.

Lost His Shoe

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — A shoeless escapee from the Kanawha County jail was recaptured in downtown Charleston last night.

Police said Gary Boggs, 37, of Akron, Ohio, had forgotten his footwear in a Sunday morning jailbreak. Officers said he protected himself against the cold pavement by stuffing cardboard in his socks.

Special Fire

VENTURA (AP) — For the chief of the Ventura Fire Department, fire prevention week had a special meaning. His house caught fire.

The blaze which broke out at A. J. Comstock's house Sunday afternoon was quickly extinguished. The damage was listed at about $1,000.

Fire officials said the fire was probably caused by children playing with matches.

Hearings Slated On Redistricting

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An Assembly Committee plans to launch hearings in Southern California Monday on proposals to redraw California congressional districts to meet one-man one-vote court rulings, its chairman announced today.

The first session will be in San Bernardino or Los Angeles, said Chairman Jack Fenton, D-Montebello, of the Assembly Elections and reapportionment Committee.

Gov. Reagan announced yesterday he is calling a special legislative session beginning Nov. 6 to reapportion at least nine of the state's 38 U.S. House districts by a Dec. 7 deadline set by the State Supreme Court.

The court announced last Friday it would take reapportionment into its own hands if the legislature failed to act by then to compensate for over-representation in some districts and under-representation in others.

Fenton predicted adoption of a plan that would satisfy most legislators, congressmen and the courts, but said it would be impossible to make every congressman happy.

FIRM PROPOSALS

Fenton said his committee plans hearings in Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Sacramento, Fresno, San Diego and San Francisco before the session opens. This will give the committee time to draft firm proposals by then and expedite the session itself.

Sen. James R. Mills, D- San Diego, chairman of the Senate said he would meet soon with the congressmen in Washington and hold committee meetings in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Mills predicted the legislature, with the Senate split between 20 Republicans and 20 Democrats, will not pass any bill that seriously would harm any incumbent congressman's chances for re-election next year.

Reagan Blasts Highway Cuts As 'Dishonest'

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan says a proposed reduction in federal highway-aid funds would cost California "great sums" of money.

Reagan yesterday called the proposed cutback "dishonest" in replying to a request from Transportation Secretary Alan S. Boyd. The federal official asked the nation's governors what the impact would be on their states from the cut.

Boyd said the fight between Congress and President Johnson over spending could force a cut of up to half of the $4.4 billion federal-aid highway program.

Reagan called on the government to seek economy in its own programs rather than reduce the highway program which is supported by a trust fund.

Seatbelts Unfastened —Two Die In Air Fall

SAN JOSE, Costa Rico (AP) — Passengers aboard an airliner that plunged 10,000 feet in a downdraft said Ricardo Castro Beeche, prominent Latin American newspaper publisher and former Costa Rican ambassador to the United States, was killed because his seat belt was not fastened.

Survivors said the safety belts saved their lives. Another passenger who did not buckle his belt, Claudio Loria Montenegro, was killed and a number of others, including Castro Beeche's daughter, Rosy Castro Canas, were injured.

The LASCA Airlines British twin-jet was approaching Grand Cayman Island, 190 miles northwest of Jamaica, yesterday when it hit a downdraft while 29,000 feet up, according to the airline.

"A storm broke out and the seat belts signs flashed on and five minutes later we went straight down and everything flew to the roof," said Julio Brenes of Costa Rica.

"Whisky bottles, magazines and luggage fell all over," said Dr. Manuel Ibanez, a 32-year-old biology professor at Louisiana State University. "I thought it was a hell of way to cash in my chips after spending the summer in the Amazon.

"There were four drops for a total of two and a half minutes."

But the two pilots were able to keep the plane flying and it landed in Grand Cayman.

Twelve of the uninjured survivors were flown to Miami, while the injured and the two bodies were flown to Costa Rica. Those arriving in Miami praised the two pilots, George Paris and Arturo Lutz.

Castro Beeche, 73, was editor and publisher of the San Jose newspaper La Nacion. He was en route to San Juan, Puerto Rico, for a meeting of the Inter-American Press Association. He was its president in 1960-61.

Danville Girl Named Grand National Queen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Beverly Jean Ver Steeg of Danville was named yesterday as queen of the Grand National Livestock Show and Rodeo at the Cow Palace Oct. 27 through Nov. 5.

Miss Ver Steeg reigned as Horse Show Queen at the Grand National two years ago.

S.P. To Improve Commute Service

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Southern Pacific announced today that it will invest more than $3 million in Peninsula commute service despite losses of some $500,000 a year on the 47-mile San Jose-San Francisco run.

Orders have been placed for 15 air - conditioned, double decked cars to go into service next August.

William Lamprecht, SP vice president, denied charges that the railroad is trying to end its commute service.

He said the company regards the operation as an important public service, not as a money-making venture.

Rescuers On The Way To Sunken Freighter

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Four ships converged today on an area about 870 miles southwest of Kodiak, Alaska, where 42 crewmen jumped overboard from a sinking freighter into the icy waters of the North Pacific, the Coast Guard reported.

The Coast Guard said one of the vessels which went to the rescue, the Igaharu Maru, radioed she had picked up "some bodies" and "two men were reported to be alive."

COULDN'T SURVIVE

There was fear that others who jumped from the sinking Pan-Oceanic Faith into the sea could not survive the cold for long.

All 42 men aboard the freighter were reported to have jumped when the 459-foot vessel suddenly sank shortly before dark.

In New York City, the owner of the ship, the Panoceanic Tankers Corp., identified the master as Capt. John F. Ogles, of Alexandraka, Va., a master for the company since 1961, and the chief engineer as Harry K. Bradley, of Glendale.

Navy, Coast Guard and other North Pacific seafarers estimated a person rarely survives more than an hour in the cold water without proper clothing. They said the cold saps the body temperature away within minutes.

SO SUDDEN

The Coast Guard said the sinking was so sudden the crewmen did not have time to launch the ship's two lifeboats or two life rafts.

A Navy search plane from Adak, Alaska, and a C140 Military Air Command jet Starlifter dropped seven small rubber life rafts to the crewmen bobbing around in life jackets, the Coast Guard said.

The pilot of the Navy plane radioed that he saw several men climb into the tiny craft.

Both planes remained in the area to direct rescue operations of at least a half dozen ships headed for the scene, including the Coast Guard cutters Dexter and Storis.

The Pan-Oceanic Faith first radioed a distress call at 2:55 PDT, saying 20-foot waves were sweeping over her decks and filling No. 1 and No. 2 holds with water.

Truant Officers Checking Hippies

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Police have started sweeping the Haight-Ashbury hippie district, looking for runaways and truants.

Thirty-two youngsters were picked up yesterday. Eleven were released after convincing officers they were over 18. The other 21 were taken to the Youth Guidance Center.

Police Chief Thomas Cahill said he ordered the action to pick up truants and runaways. "The kids ought to be back in school," he said.

San Francisco Hit By Water Main Break

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Eighty feet of Laguna Honda Boulevard pavement and 12 feet of sidewalk and curbing were washed out when a water main from Summit Reservoir on Twin Peaks burst Monday.

The basement of the Forest Knolls Christian Church was flooded.

Novato Planners Split On Mobile-Home Park

The Novato Planning Commission last night was evenly split on whether to recommend denial or approval of rezoning for a 280-mobile-home park site at 300 Olive Avenue.

The question of rezoning from agriculture to mobile home zone for 50 acres had been referred by the Marin County Planning Commission to the Novato Planning Commission in case the area were to annex to the city.

The vote of the Novato commission was 3-3 on denial of the rezoning. Commissioners John Castleman, Jack Miklos and Eugene McGillicuddy voted against denial commissioners Wayne Hathway, Ross Dugan and Pat Beyer voted for denial with Robert G. Johnson absent.

"We do not have a decent trailer court in this county," said Robert Cole of 511 Olive Avenue, Novato.

"This project would be an advantage to the area — I'm ashamed of what Marin County has to offer," said Earl C. Head of the El Novato Trailer Park at 7330 Redwood Highway, Novato.

"I am concerned about the older generation which is speedily being taxed out of their homes," said Douglas G. Hertz, owner of the Atherton Club of nearby Olive Avenue and Atherton Avenue. He said he was making his plea for the retired people who need to live in trailers.

"I oppose it because the area floods very badly and I do not think that it is consistant with the Novato Master Plan," said Robert E. Saunders Jr. of 296 Olive Avenue, Novato.

Alfred Rivasplata of 302 Olive Avenue, Novato, whose property is adjacent, opposed it because of the problems of sewage and drainage.

The Novato commission's decision, or lack of it, was only advisory and the final decision on the rezoning would be up to Marin County, said Castleman.

The Novato Planning Commission Also:

SERVICE STATION — By a 4-2 vote, with Miklos and Beyer against, approved a Mobile gasoline service station for the north side of Diablo Avenue between George Street and Court Road. The commission placed a restriction on the oil company that it maintain an odd shaped unused parcel of the land adjacent to the north. The method of maintaining it was left up to the plan review committee.

FAIRWAY ESTATES — Approved the tentative map of Fairway Estates of 18 lots on 21 acres south of Alameda De La Loma adjacent to the Marin Golf and Country Club Estates for the Marin Oaks Development Co.

HORSE — Granted Hugh E. Fleet a use permit to keep a horse on a large lot of 1654 Center Road, Novato. Fleet had the written consent of all adjacent property owners for him to keep the horse.

UPHOLSTERY — Denied the application for an adjustment to operate a furniture and auto upholstery shop at his residence at 1900 Novato Boulevard, Novato.

Hamilton Industrial Proposal To Be Aired

Proposed development of an airport and industrial park west of Hamilton Air Force Base will be presented by Benjamin R. Ostlind, member of the Marin County Airport Commission, to the state Aeronautics Board 9 a.m., Monday in room 1202 of the State Building, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco.

Also on the agenda is a joint meeting with the Association of Bay Area Governments on airport planning in the Bay Area.

Russ Defense Budget Soars

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government today announced an increase of 2.2 billion rubles — more than 15 per cent—in its published defense budget for next year.

The increase, $2.44 billion at the official rate, is one of the largest in Soviet history. It was announced at the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet Union's parliament, by Finance Minister Vasily F. Garbuzov.

Garbuzov announced a total defense budget for 1968 of 16.7 billion rubles, or $18.56 billion. Western analysts of Soviet budgetary practices believe considerable military spending is hidden under nonmilitary headings and that total military spending is perhaps double the budgeted amount.

The 1966-67 U.S. defense budget was $67 billion, and President Johnson has asked a $72.3 billion defense allotment for the 1967-68 fiscal year.

Garbuzov said the increase was needed because of "increased aid to other countries." He did not elaborate, but the Soviet Union is supplying a large volume of aid to North Vietnam and is re-equipping Arab armies that were wrecked in the June war with Israel.

Che Guevara Again Claimed Killed In Bolivian Fight

LA PAZ (AP) — The Bolivian army command withheld confirmation today of a local commander's report that Ernesto (Che) Guevara has been killed but planned to fly newsmen to the remote area where army dispatches said he died leading a guerrilla band.

The high command's invitation to the journalists suggested it would display a body reported to be that of Guevara, the leading theorist of Communist revolution in Latin America.

The former lieutenant of Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba was reported killed Sunday in a clash at Higueras, about 400 miles southeast of La Paz.

The army's chief of staff, Col. Marcos Vasquez Sempertegui, noted that official reports from Vallegrande, near Higueras, "affirm Guevara was killed and that his body is now with the Bolivian army." But he emphasized that he could not confirm the dispatches.

Guevara's legend has been sprinkled with reports of his death or capture since he mysteriously disappeared from Cuba in 1965. He was said to have died in the leftist revolt in the Dominican Republic, to have been captured in Peru, hiding out in his native Argentina, scouting the Congo and a visitor in Red China. Two weeks ago the Bolivian army denied a report that its forces had killed him.

At a meeting of the Organization of American States in Washington last month, Bolivian diplomats produced photographs of a man who looked like Guevara talking with Bolivian and Cuban guerrillas. They claimed the photos showed he was heading the rebels in Bolivia's isolated mountain regions.

Welfare Recipients' Farm Work System Is Defended

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Reagan administration, at least for the moment, is satisfied with its system for referring welfare recipients to farm work.

Spencer Williams, Health and Welfare Agency administrator, said yesterday the system "generally appears to be working" but added that the situation would be studied further.

Williams made public results of a survey launched last week while organized labor was criticizing Gov. Ronald Reagan for authorizing the use of 400 convicts to offset farm labor shortages in three counties.

County figures showed that 21,000 unemployed fathers qualified at the end of August for aid under the federal-state program for helping families with dependent children. Only Contra Costa County did not file a report.

Of the total, 4,638 were available for farm work during September.

A total of 261 were eliminated from the welfare rolls for failure to take offered jobs, Williams said, and removal of others still are pending.

Williams attributed the comparatively low total of available harvest workers to a number of factors — physical unsuitability for farm work, enrollment in job training programs, residence in urban areas far from farms and lack of seasonal employment in some counties.

Three Year Sentence On Prison Knife Count

San Quentin inmate Archie Bruno Gallago, convicted by a Marin Superior Court jury Sept. 9 of possession of a knife, yesterday was sentenced to not less than three years in prison.

Judge Thomas F. Keating made the term run concurrently with one Gallago is already serving for auto theft. He had the knife March 27.

Insanity Plea In Lassen Murders

SUSANVILLE (AP) — Two brothers charged with the August slayings of a Lassen County ranch couple and a Shasta County logger have pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

Defense attorneys for William Tidwell, 21, and his brother Robert, 18, both of Redding, told a superior court judge Monday they will ask that the trials be held away from the Susanville area. The youths have already been granted separate trials.

William is to be tried Nov. 21 and his brother on Jan. 16.

The older Tidwell entered the courtroom barefooted yesterday and when handed a pair of shoes, he threw them to the floor, saying they were not his.

'68 Caprice Coupe; rear, Camaro Sport Coupe, "The Hugger"

Dramatically new! Astro Ventilation makes the ride as quiet as it is smooth.

Astro Ventilation: It wafts outside air freely through the car, even with all windows closed tight. So you get ample air without annoying drafts. And street noises stay where they belong—in the street. Astro Ventilation is standard on Camaro, Corvette and Caprice Coupe, also available on many other models.

New riding silence

We've gone all out to give you more peace and quiet. Computers showed exactly where to locate engine and body mounts to isolate vibrations. All models have improved shock absorbers and quieter exhaust systems, while many have wider wheel stance for greater smoothness.

The '68 Chevrolets are the best riding cars we've ever built.

Better performance

There are new and bigger standard engines, both V8 and Six. Also a new 250-hp V8 you can order that runs on regular fuel. There's a new rear axle ratio you can add if you're interested in extra economy. Most models with automatic transmission now come with a special heater that warms the carburetor air for more efficient performance in cold weather. Of course, every 1968 Chevrolet has the new GM exhaust emission control.

Many new safety features

Along with such safety features as the proved GM-developed energy absorbing steering column, folding front seat back latches and dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, you get many new ones for 1968. Among them: energy absorbing front seat backs, side marker lights, safety armrests that shield the door handles and more—even a buzzer to tell you if you've forgotten the ignition key when you leave the car.

Caprice offers new luxury, Camaro even sportier

Caprice for '68 is more than ever "The Grand Chevrolet." There's an elegant new formal roof line on the coupe above, a sweeping new hood line that conceals windshield wipers, new styling everywhere. There are stunning new interiors that combine luxury fabrics, soft vinyls, wood-grained trim and gleaming accents for a truly sumptuous look. Camaro interiors, too, have received special attention for '68. Instruments are professionally clustered for convenience. Supple vinyl trim climbs right up from deep-twist carpeting to window glass. "The Hugger" looks, rides and accelerates even smoother this year.

West Marin Trustees Approve Annexation

West Marin School District trustees last night unanimously approved annexation to the district of Point Reyes School District.

However, approval was on condition that Point Reyes District voters also agree to joint payment of the bonded indebtedness of the West Marin district, reported Supt. Howard F. Brose. He did not know what the present indebtedness was, nor how much it would add to taxpayers' bills in Point Reyes district, which has no bonded indebtededness.

Point Reyes district trustees will set a date for the election before Jan. 1 Brose said, so transfer of 21 pupils in the Point Reyes district can be made the following September.

The request for annexation was presented by Point Reyes trustees J. H. Mendoza and George Nunes.

West Marin School District Trustees Also:

VICE PRINCPAL — Appointed Mrs. Edie Robinson as vice principal of Inverness School to replace Mrs. Millie McCray, who transferred to West Marin School. The post pays $200 ea year, in addition to her regular salary.

TESTING — Received report from Brose that district primary pupils "did very well" in statewide reading tests last spring, with 72 per cent of first graders in the district in the top-scoring group, 43 per cent of the second graders, and 29 per cent of third graders.

MUSEUM — Signed annual contract with Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum for use of facilities at 10 cents a pupil.

SCHOOL BOARDS — Voted to join California School Boards Assn. for $80 a year, trustee Robert W. Giacomini abstaining on ground that there was too little benefit from the cost.

Two-Car Wreck Hurts Driver

A Mill Valley man escaped with a cut lip in a two-car collision last night on Shoreline Highway at the entrance to the heliport near Marin City.

The California Highway Patrol reported that a northbound car driven by Ruth Turner Costello, 37, of 214 West Street, Sausalito, turned left into the heliport driveway at 10:20 p.m. and collided with a westbound car on Shoreline Highway driven by Tad Tadashi Nakamura, 26, of 514 Pineo Avenue, Mill Valley.

Nakamura was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Ruth Costello was cited by the patrol for failure to yield to through traffic.

San Anselmo Husband Reported As Missing

Mrs. Terry Ellerman of 124 Tunstead Avenue, San Anselmo, told San Anselmo police yesterday that her husband, Wayne Ellerman, 35, has been missing since Saturday night.

Ellerman was last seen wearing dark slacks, a blue and white jacket, and red plaid shirt and a skippers cap. He is five feet, seven inches tall, weighs 165 pounds and has blue eyes and brown hair.

Mariner Green Rec Plan Voted

The Corte Madera Planning Commission last night approved plans of the Lytton Savings and Loan Association, Palo Alto, for a recreation center for the Mariner Green apartments off Paradise Drive.

The commission recommended to the council that Phillip B. Swigard's property between Paradise Drive and Highway 101 be rezoned form residential to professional-administratice. Swigard had requested commercial zoning.

The commission recommended denial of H. Alfred Hanken's request that property at 5108 and 5116 Paradise Drive be rezoned from single-family to multiple-dwelling residential.

Radio, Cash Gone

Heart Attack Victim Being Flown Out

A 55-year-old San Rafael man, who reportedly suffered a severe heart attack while on a visit to Monument Valley, Utah, was being flown to a San Francisco hospital today for treatment.

Alfred S. Newark, a manufacturers representative, of 116 Gloria Drive, was admitted to the Seventh Day Adventists Indian Hospital on the Arizona-Utah border five weeks ago, a hospital staff member, Herbert Ford, told the Independent-Journal by radio telephone today. He was on the critical list for about six days.

The attack occurred at Mexican Hat, about 25 miles from the hospital which is the only medical facility in a 200-mile area.

Ford said Newark was due to be put aboard a private plane at the hospital air strip at 9:30 a.m. local time and taken to Salt Lake City where he was to board a commercial airline. He was expected to arrive at the University of California Hospital in San Francisco about 3:30 p.m.

The San Rafael visitor was alone at the time of the heart attack, according to Ford, and his wife, Ann, has been by his hospital bedside for the past two weeks.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

2:39 p.m., Marin City — Grass fire burned one acre on Guy Circle; no damage; cause under investigation.

TODAY:

Demos Quietly Bury Idea Of Delegate Loyalty Oath

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Democratic leaders, with bitter memories of other loyalty oath battles, have quietly buried a proposal to require pledges from all 1968 national convention delegates to support the party's national ticket.

The action came as a postscript to yesterday's Democratic National Committee meeting.

But before the meeting, committee members from 13 Western states and the Territory of Guam had endorsed a proposal of California National Committeeman Eugene Wyman for a loyalty oath. Wyman wanted to be sure that any "peace delegation" that might be chosen from his state would be denied seats if its members refused to commit themselves to support a renominated President Johnson.

The matter did not come up at the regular meeting, at which National Chairman John M. Bailey declared: "The next nominee for President is going to be Lyndon Johnson. Mark that down as final."

Wyman later took his proposal to the committee's special Equal Rights Committee, set up after the 1964 convention to seek guarantees that Negroes would be admitted to party activities. He believed the committee could act on his proposal although it was created to guard against seating delegates from states discriminating against Negroes in party affairs.

When the committee recessed last night, however, Wyman told newsmen it was clear his proposal would not be approved because Democrats "abhor loyalty oaths." He said he was content with language used in convention calls since 1956 when it was adopted after a loyalty oath hassle in 1952.

Sausalito To Have Halloween Parade

A Halloween parade and party for children from pre-school age through sixth grade will be held Oct. 31 in Sausalito. Prizes will be awarded the best-costumed boy and girl in each grade.

The parade and party are sponsored by the Sausalito Lions Club. The parade will form at the main fire station, Johnson and Caledonia streets, at 7 p.m. and will start at 7:30 p.m. Paraders will march to Central School, where motion pictures will be shown, candy and apples handed out and prizes awarded.

Traffic Violation Brings Marijuana Suspicion Booking

Randy Scott Steg, 23, of Chatsworth, Los Angeles County, was arrested by Sausalito police last night on suspicion of possessing marijuana after being stopped on a minor traffic violation.

Police said Steg was driving very slowly and was stopped at 11:15 p.m. at Brdgeway and Napa Street, where the arresting officer said he appeared to be under the influence of marijuana.

Two cigarettes believed to be marijuana were found in Steg's car. He was booked at Marin County Jail. No bail had been set this morning. Steg was to appear this afternoon in Marin Municipal Court.

This is no run-of-the-mill Bourbon.
It's Bourbon with a richer, more robust taste. More of the taste that Bourbon was meant to have.
It's Bourbon aged till the years have rounded out the taste and worn away the edges.
It's Bourbon as smooth as a man could ask for. With all the taste of old-time whiskey, yet easy and mellow going down.

A Meeting In Nicasio —Teacher Dismissed

Brennan's former pupils. But I'll be damned if I want a teacher using marijuana teaching my kids. I back the school board."

The conspicuous outsiders to whom he referred were hippies and other, non-hippie though liberal citizens who arrived to support Mrs. Brennan in her trial.

WHO SMOKES

"You're saying that we live in a society where the doctors smoke pot, where lawyers smoke it, teachers, students in high school smoke it," said sweater wearing Paul Obluda.

"Yet this woman, a fine teacher for 30 years, must be sacrificed because she has had the great courage to admit she smokes it. There are so many people who smoke pot, that if they all spoke up, we would be deafened by the noise.

"I tell you that the children are going to think that the way we live is very hypocritical," Obluda said.

NOT THERE

The Nicasio children seemed to have a viewpoint of their own. They were not invited to the hearing, but spoke their viewpoints during the day at board member Kobseff's Rancho Nicasio, a bar and restaurant, post office and village gathering place where the school bus lets out.

"She was all right as a teacher," said the younger Farley, Dan. "But I think she was crazy to start smoking that stuff."

"She was the best teacher I ever had," said Sandra Hall, 17, a former pupil of Mrs. Brennan's. "I don't think it's fair. What she does in her home is her private business."

Mrs. Brennan, looking as if some mild, wild moments of inner triumph had entered in her life, arrived a few minutes late to the hearing, wearing a plain, paisley print jumper dress, embroidered slippers, no makeup. She announced somewhat proudly later that she had once been a teacher for two years in the girl's reformatory at Chillicothe, Ohio.

HER ATTORNEY

At her side, like a vest pocket, distaff Melvin Belli, was the much more colorful Molly Minudri, the feisty San Francisco attorney who has been collecting the affidavits of pot users on behalf of her client, Melkonian, who yesterday in Marin County Superior Court was sentenced to one year in the county jail for marijuana possession.

Mrs. Minudri, with snapping blue eyes and red, red hair, wore a sporty flaming orange suit and a white silk turban, and she carried a black cane for some infirmity that is not located in her mind.

When it came her turn to speak, Mrs. Minudri stood up like a pocket frigate flying all flags, and said that Mrs. Brennan had never been guilty of any of the precise definitions of immoral behavior, the charge on which she was fired; that Nicasio's middle-aged citizens well remembered the time of prohibition, when nearly everyone drank liquor illegally; and finally that marijuana smoking is no worse than a highball. To put people in the penitentiary for it is "cruel and unusual punishment."

MARIJUANA LAWS

This is the burden of Mrs. Minudri's constitutional challenge of the marijuana laws. "I used to think that, too, that there were a lot of sex-mad marijuana maniacs running around," she said. "That is the marijuana myth."

It is not addictive, it does not lead to greater excesses with hard narcotics. Marijuana is not even a narcotic, she said. It has a "mildly hallucinative effect, a feeling of well being," like a highball, she said. There are no withdrawal symptoms, the worst effect would be a mild letdown. "I am sure, even in Nicasio, you good people are familiar with the hangover, which comes from a far more dangerous drug, liquor, which is sold in a bar right here at the entrance to your village.

"Mrs. Brennan has not been guilty of indecent conduct. Or depraved or shameful behavior, or any of the other meanings of immoral conduct. She has used this product, mislabeled a narcotic by the State of California, because she felt it relaxed her and gave her insight into her teaching problems.

"She is the exact same person she was for 29 years, a fine school teacher. Do not let bigotry enter your hearts. Do not destroy a woman because she had the courage to speak up."

Mrs. Woodrow Quinn, who has children in the Nicasio school, stood up with the same half reluctant grimness as the other Nicasio mothers who spoke.

"Perhaps the law should be changed," said Mrs. Quinn. "So far as I am concerned, Mrs. Brennan is a mighty nice person.

A LITTLE BIT?

"But what she has told my children with this affidavit of her's is that it is all right to break the law. When my daughter says, 'She just did it a little bit', what am I to reply? That it is all right to break the law a little bit? No."

Mrs. Quinn's husband got up and said to Mrs. Brennan, who sat quiet as Zen in the front row, "Do you think you could get along with the parents after this?"

In one of her few statements of the long evening, Mrs. Brennan replied, "I'm not sure I could get along with the parents, but I'm sure I could get along with the children."

The children were much in evidence, although not corporeally, in the same classroom where Mrs. Brennan taught the third, fourth and fifth grades until her leap to social freedom last week.

Crayon drawings of Hawaiian volcanos and palms were lined above the blackboards. An old upright piano was at the side of the room, by the tall French windows which admit much light to the classroom during the study hours. Their desks had been removed to make room for the hearing. Mrs. Brennan sat in a child's chair which had been left behind. The sets of books in the bookcase included "Seeing Through Mathematics," "Ways Of Our Land" and, of no significance, "A Trip Around The World."

LOT OF THINGS

"I've done a lot of things that are a lot worse than smoking marijuana," said Miss Pat Pomerlo of Lagunitas. "I think everyone of us has."

"I love this woman," said Melkonian, the man for whom she testified.

"I like Mrs. Brennan," said Mrs. Janet Shepherd of Nicasio. "But I am a strong believer in law and a strong moral upbringing. If a teacher is breaking the law, no matter how fine a teacher, she should not be teaching our children."

Finally the trustees went into closed session with Mrs. Brennan and Mrs. Minudri. They emerged — after what Trustee Chairman LaFranchi said was a "friendly meeting" — with the not surprising announcement that Mrs. Brennan was being dismissed for immoral conduct. LaFranchi said the board regretted that the words "immoral conduct" in the school code are not more precise.

With that, and announcements by Mrs. Brennan and her attorney, that the dismissal will be appealed, the evening broke up.

POLL

leaders in the South and Southwest but he had votes in some Midwest and Far Western states as well.

Some of those who participated in the survey indicated that while they consider Nixon the GOP's best qualified candidate, they have misgivings as to whether he can win. He lost the presidential election in 1960 and the race for governor of California in 1962.

Said Idaho State Chairman John McMurray, "They (Idaho) working Republicans) still have reservations. If he shows well in the early primaries Nixon will be hard to stop."

Similarly, Mrs. J. C. Mann, Texas national committeewoman, said she considers Nixon the "best qualified" and that she has strongly supported him before. She added, "But I want somebody to win this time. I don't believe that the people who go to conventions and choose candidates are always representative of the way the people feel who will be voting."

A short time earlier, Buddhist officials said that the 44-year-old militant monk had agreed to end the protest because of Thieu's promise to "satisfactorily" settle the dispute in the near future.

Tri Quang had vowed to continue his sit-in until Thieu withdrew a charter recognizing a more moderate faction of the church headed by Thich Tam Chau as the nation's official church.

Tri Quang, who masterminded last year's rioting against the Thieu-Ky military regime and had a hand in toppling the regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem in 1963, appeared to have made no headway in what was considered his real aim—to spark widespread antigovernment protest and again establish himself as a political force.

$250,000 Blaze Hits Monterey

MONTEREY (UPI) — Fire swept through two buildings on famed Cannery Row last night in the third major blaze in the area in two months.

Damage was estimated at $250,000 to $300,000 by Fire Chief Cliff Hebrard.

Firemen battled the blaze in an old cannery and sculpture art shop for an hour before bringing it under control. A conveyor belt from the former Xavier Canning Company works fell from the building and blocked the street.

Airports Fog-Bound

Fog this morning closed the Marin County Airport at Novato and the flight line at Hamilton Air Force Base to visual flying. It burned off by mid-morning and both were open to visual flying.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Poland's second-ranking Politburo official, Zenon Klisko, has arrived in Rome, causing speculation that the Polish government is trying to settle some of its differences with the Vatican.

Dare Leads To Booking On Marijuana

Plea entry for Peter Lee Arbuthnot, 29, on a felony coplaint of marijuana possession, was scheduled in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Arbuthnot, a cab driver residing at 247 Corte Madera Avenue, Mill Valley, was arraigned on the charge yesterday. Mill Valley police said he walked into headquarters Saturday, blew smoke in an officer's face, and said he wanted to protest California laws against marijuana.

The smoke had "a peculiar odor," police said, and when Arbuthnot declared it was marijuana, he was arrested. Arbuthnot, a former draftsman with an engineering firm, was one of 46 persons who signed affidavits last week in defense of Melkon Melkonian of Mill Valley, convicted of having marijuana for sale.

Progress Averts Class Cutback For Sausalito

The Sausaltio School District board was told last night Sausalito will probably be one of the few districts in the state to get as much money this year as last for special mathematics program financed under Senate Bill 28.

The district's good standing was because of progress in the program and because of changes made at the direction of the state agency funding the program, Chairman David E. Freedheim said today.

The board made four committee appointments. James E. Muldoon was named to the interdistrict committee, Martha Freebairn-Smith to the educational objectives committee, and Bruce E. Woelfel and Nathaniel Johnson to the salary policy committee.

The saualito school district board also:

MOVING — Heard a report by Schneider, but took no action, on a plan to move the music program at Richardson Bay School from the annex into the main building.

LUNCHES — Heard a report by Schneider that the school lunch program is working well. The school no longer provides hot lunches, but bag lunches are available for all pupils needing them.

$740 In Cash Taken

The theft of $740 was reported by San Rafael police today from Frank's Kountry Kitchen at 276 Northgate Shopping Center. Owner Frank J. Castro said the thief used a duplicate key to get the cash from the locked drawer of a desk.

off the prohibited list of targets only two days ago. They carried out twin raids against the targets before dawn yesterday and again early today.

In South Vietnam military spokesmen said search planes had found the wreckage of a C130 military transport plane which crashed into a cloud-wreathed mountain near Da Nang Sunday, killing all 23 men aboard.

In other action:

Communists shelled the headquarters of the U.S. Special Forces (Green Berets) at Nha Trang with 12 mortar rounds during the night. Officials said there were no casualties.

B-52 bombers raided the Demilitarized Zone three times last night and early today. The bombing was north and west of the battered Con Thien Marine outpost which was hit by 62 rounds of mortar and artillery yesterday, wounding three Americans.

South of Da Nang, North Vietnamese regulars stepped up troops and the cavalrymen, apparently in an attempt to ease pressure on the frontier battleground.

Wind Gauge Is Stolen

Marin County Department of Public Works today found itself unable to tell which way the wind was blowing.

Warren W. Wright of the Marin County Garage reported to San Rafael police yesterday the theft of a $2,500 wind gauge the department had on loan from Hollister County Airport.

Police said the gauge, made of aluminum, was taken from the parking lot at the garage over the weekend.

Library Board Previews Exhibit

A preview showing of an exhibit of jewelry by Margaret De Patta was viewed by members of the San Rafael Public Library Board at their meeting last night.

Miss DePatta, who died in 1964, was an outstanding artist who experimented with new forms of jewelry, according to Mrs. Vivian R. Smith, head librarian. The jewelry, which will be on display to the public until Oct. 21 in the adult library, is on loan from private collections as well as from the Oakland Art Museum.

Library board members also made plans to meet with the San Rafael City Council on Monday to discuss the proposed library ordinance concerning powers and duties of the board.

Library Backers Set Annual Books Sale

The fourth annual book sale of the Mill Valley Library Association will be held in conjunction with the Mill Valley Fall Arts Festival from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday in Old Mill Park.

Mill Valley Rotary Club members will man the booth and transport books to the sale site. Proceeds will be used to help the public library.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Anita Ragghianti Dies At 75

Private funeral for Mrs. Anita T. Ragghianti, 75, who died yesterday in a local convalescent home, will be held at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

Mrs. Ragghianti, who lived in San Rafael with her son, Edward, had resided in Marin County seven years.

She was the wife of the late Emanuel Ragghianti and was also the mother of Virginia Sbrana and Robert Ragghianti. She is also survived by two sisters, Celia Jonak and Vera Becker and two brothers, Eugene and John Musso. Mrs. Ragghianti had eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Inurnment will take place at Chapel of Chimes, Santa Rosa.

RUTH JOHNSON

Mrs. Ruth B. Johnson, 64, who had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Janet Lane, of Marinwood, for the past 10 years, died yesterday at a local convalescent hospital after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Johnson, a native of Chicago, was the wife of the late Paul R. Johnson, who had been an executive with Butler Brothers stores. She was also the mother of Roy B. Benson and Mrs. Jane Chauvin. Other survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Alice Bell and Mrs. Lilliam Hutchinson and 10 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 1 o'clock at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Private inurnment at Mt. Tamalpais eCmetery will follow.

RICHARD HEXTER

Richard C. Hexter, 19, of San Rafael, died yesterday in his home at 812 Tamarack Drive after a life-long illness of muscular distrophy.

He was a senior at Terra Linda High School.

A native of San Francisco, he lived in Marin for 14 years.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hexter; and two sisters, Mrs. Lynn Gower of Daly City and Sister Mary Jeanna of the Holy Family, San Jose. His father owns a clothing company in San Francisco.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 9 a.m. Thursday at Saint Isabella's Church, San Rafael. The cortege will form at 8:40 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

Rosary will be recited 8 p.m. tomorrow at the mortuary.

His family asked that memorial contributions go to the Marin County Chapter of Muscular Distrophy Assn.

MRS. HAGAR

Funeral for Mrs. Maybelle Hagar of Fairfax will be 10 a.m. Thursday at Chapel of the Hills Mortuary, San Anselmo. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Mrs. Hagar, 81, died Saturday in a Napa hospital after a long illness.

A native of Texas, she lived in Marin County for eight years. She resided at 67 Rocca Drive.

Her husband, Gore Hagar, died 11 years ago. He was a retired farmer. She had no known survivors.

OLIVIA RUIZ

Funeral for Mrs. Olivia Ruiz, 52, of Tiburon, who died in a local hospital Sunday after a lingering illness, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Christion Church in San Rafael. Entombment will be at Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Mrs. Ruiz, who had lived at 138 Lyford Drive, Tiburon, was a beautician and owner a beauty shop before she retired. She was a native of Mexico and had lived in California 18 years, the last three in Marin County.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Marie M. Patrick of Tiburon; two sons, Paul C. Olivo of San Francisco, and Sammy Olivo of Los Angeles, and seven grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, until noon tomorrow.

Progress Cited On School Site

Grading operations for a new school in San Geronimo should be completed in a week, it was reported by Superintendent Marshall J. McCunniff at a meeting last night of the Lagunitas School District Board. The school, which will house kindergarten through sixth grade pupils, will be adjacent to the present one in the area.

Board members also heard plans for back-to-school night which is scheduled for Thursday evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

The board hired three new employees, Mrs. Janice Bloch, half-time teacher for educationally handicapped children at $6.50 an hour; Jess Janssen, grading inspector, $8 an hour, and Mrs. Joanne Weiss, part-time clerical worker, $2 an hour.

"I tell you that the children are going to think that the way we live is very hypocritical," Obluda said.

NOT THERE

The Nicasio children seemed to have a viewpoint of their own. They were not invited to the hearing, but spoke their viewpoints during the day at board member Kobseff's Rancho Nicasio, a bar and restaurant, post office and village gathering place where the school bus lets out.

"She was all right as a teacher," said the younger Farley, Dan. "But I think she was crazy to start smoking that stuff."

"She was the best teacher I ever had," said Sandra Hall, 17, a former pupil of Mrs. Brennan's. "I don't think it's fair. What she does in her home is her private business."

Mrs. Brennan, looking as if some mild, wild moments of inner triumph had entered in her life, arrived a few minutes late to the hearing, wearing a plain, paisley print jumper dress, embroidered slippers, no makeup. She announced somewhat proudly later that she had once been a teacher for two years in the girl's reformatory at Chillicothe, Ohio.

HER ATTORNEY

At her side, like a vest pocket, distaff Melvin Belli, was the much more colorful Molly Minudri, the feisty San Francisco attorney who has been collecting the affidavits of pot users on behalf of her client, Melkonian, who yesterday in Marin County Superior Court was sentenced to one year in the county jail for marijuana possession.

Mrs. Minudri, with snapping blue eyes and red, red hair, wore a sporty flaming orange suit and a white silk turban, and she carried a black cane for some infirmity that is not located in her mind.

When it came her turn to speak, Mrs. Minudri stood up like a pocket frigate flying all flags, and said that Mrs. Brennan had never been guilty of any of the precise definitions of immoral behavior, the charge on which she was fired; that Nicasio's middle-aged citizens well remembered the time of prohibition, when nearly everyone drank liquor illegally; and finally that marijuana smoking is no worse than a highball. To put people in the penitentiary for it is "cruel and unusual punishment."

MARIJUANA LAWS

This is the burden of Mrs. Minudri's constitutional challenge of the marijuana laws. "I used to think that, too, that there were a lot of sex-mad marijuana maniacs running around," she said. "That is the marijuana myth."

It is not addictive, it does not lead to greater excesses with hard narcotics. Marijuana is not even a narcotic, she said. It has a "mildly hallucinative effect, a feeling of well being," like a highball, she said. There are no withdrawal symptoms, the worst effect would be a mild letdown. "I am sure, even in Nicasio, you good people are familiar with the hangover, which comes from a far more dangerous drug, liquor, which is sold in a bar right here at the entrance to your village.

"Mrs. Brennan has not been guilty of indecent conduct. Or depraved or shameful behavior, or any of the other meanings of immoral conduct. She has used this product, mislabeled a narcotic by the State of California, because she felt it relaxed her and gave her insight into her teaching problems.

"She is the exact same person she was for 29 years, a fine school teacher. Do not let bigotry enter your hearts. Do not destroy a woman because she had the courage to speak up."

Mrs. Woodrow Quinn, who has children in the Nicasio school, stood up with the same half reluctant grimness as the other Nicasio mothers who spoke.

"Perhaps the law should be changed," said Mrs. Quinn. "So far as I am concerned, Mrs. Brennan is a mighty nice person.

A LITTLE BIT?

"But what she has told my children with this affidavit of her's is that it is all right to break the law. When my daughter says, 'She just did it a little bit', what am I to reply? That it is all right to break the law a little bit? No."

Mrs. Quinn's husband got up and said to Mrs. Brennan, who sat quiet as Zen in the front row, "Do you think you could get along with the parents after this?"

In one of her few statements of the long evening, Mrs. Brennan replied, "I'm not sure I could get along with the parents, but I'm sure I could get along with the children."

The children were much in evidence, although not corporeally, in the same classroom where Mrs. Brennan taught the third, fourth and fifth grades until her leap to social freedom last week.

Crayon drawings of Hawaiian volcanos and palms were lined above the blackboards. An old upright piano was at the side of the room, by the tall French windows which admit much light to the classroom during the study hours. Their desks had been removed to make room for the hearing. Mrs. Brennan sat in a child's chair which had been left behind. The sets of books in the bookcase included "Seeing Through Mathematics," "Ways Of Our Land" and, of no significance, "A Trip Around The World."

LOT OF THINGS

"I've done a lot of things that are a lot worse than smoking marijuana," said Miss Pat Pomerlo of Lagunitas. "I think everyone of us has."

"I love this woman," said Melkonian, the man for whom she testified.

"I like Mrs. Brennan," said Mrs. Janet Shepherd of Nicasio. "But I am a strong believer in law and a strong moral upbringing. If a teacher is breaking the law, no matter how fine a teacher, she should not be teaching our children."

Finally the trustees went into closed session with Mrs. Brennan and Mrs. Minudri. They emerged — after what Trustee Chairman LaFranchi said was a "friendly meeting" — with the not surprising announcement that Mrs. Brennan was being dismissed for immoral conduct. LaFranchi said the board regretted that the words "immoral conduct" in the school code are not more precise.

With that, and announcements by Mrs. Brennan and her attorney, that the dismissal will be appealed, the evening broke up.

POLL

leaders in the South and Southwest but he had votes in some Midwest and Far Western states as well.

Some of those who participated in the survey indicated that while they consider Nixon the GOP's best qualified candidate, they have misgivings as to whether he can win. He lost the presidential election in 1960 and the race for governor of California in 1962.

Said Idaho State Chairman John McMurray, "They (Idaho) working Republicans) still have reservations. If he shows well in the early primaries Nixon will be hard to stop."

Similarly, Mrs. J. C. Mann, Texas national committeewoman, said she considers Nixon the "best qualified" and that she has strongly supported him before. She added, "But I want somebody to win this time. I don't believe that the people who go to conventions and choose candidates are always representative of the way the people feel who will be voting."

A short time earlier, Buddhist officials said that the 44-year-old militant monk had agreed to end the protest because of Thieu's promise to "satisfactorily" settle the dispute in the near future.

Tri Quang had vowed to continue his sit-in until Thieu withdrew a charter recognizing a more moderate faction of the church headed by Thich Tam Chau as the nation's official church.

Tri Quang, who masterminded last year's rioting against the Thieu-Ky military regime and had a hand in toppling the regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem in 1963, appeared to have made no headway in what was considered his real aim—to spark widespread antigovernment protest and again establish himself as a political force.

$250,000 Blaze Hits Monterey

MONTEREY (UPI) — Fire swept through two buildings on famed Cannery Row last night in the third major blaze in the area in two months.

Damage was estimated at $250,000 to $300,000 by Fire Chief Cliff Hebrard.

Firemen battled the blaze in an old cannery and sculpture art shop for an hour before bringing it under control. A conveyor belt from the former Xavier Canning Company works fell from the building and blocked the street.

Airports Fog-Bound

Fog this morning closed the Marin County Airport at Novato and the flight line at Hamilton Air Force Base to visual flying. It burned off by mid-morning and both were open to visual flying.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Poland's second-ranking Politburo official, Zenon Klisko, has arrived in Rome, causing speculation that the Polish government is trying to settle some of its differences with the Vatican.

Dare Leads To Booking On Marijuana

Plea entry for Peter Lee Arbuthnot, 29, on a felony coplaint of marijuana possession, was scheduled in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Arbuthnot, a cab driver residing at 247 Corte Madera Avenue, Mill Valley, was arraigned on the charge yesterday. Mill Valley police said he walked into headquarters Saturday, blew smoke in an officer's face, and said he wanted to protest California laws against marijuana.

The smoke had "a peculiar odor," police said, and when Arbuthnot declared it was marijuana, he was arrested. Arbuthnot, a former draftsman with an engineering firm, was one of 46 persons who signed affidavits last week in defense of Melkon Melkonian of Mill Valley, convicted of having marijuana for sale.

Progress Averts Class Cutback For Sausalito

The Sausaltio School District board was told last night Sausalito will probably be one of the few districts in the state to get as much money this year as last for special mathematics program financed under Senate Bill 28.

The district's good standing was because of progress in the program and because of changes made at the direction of the state agency funding the program, Chairman David E. Freedheim said today.

The board made four committee appointments. James E. Muldoon was named to the interdistrict committee, Martha Freebairn-Smith to the educational objectives committee, and Bruce E. Woelfel and Nathaniel Johnson to the salary policy committee.

The saualito school district board also:

MOVING — Heard a report by Schneider, but took no action, on a plan to move the music program at Richardson Bay School from the annex into the main building.

LUNCHES — Heard a report by Schneider that the school lunch program is working well. The school no longer provides hot lunches, but bag lunches are available for all pupils needing them.

$740 In Cash Taken

The theft of $740 was reported by San Rafael police today from Frank's Kountry Kitchen at 276 Northgate Shopping Center. Owner Frank J. Castro said the thief used a duplicate key to get the cash from the locked drawer of a desk.

off the prohibited list of targets only two days ago. They carried out twin raids against the targets before dawn yesterday and again early today.

In South Vietnam military spokesmen said search planes had found the wreckage of a C130 military transport plane which crashed into a cloud-wreathed mountain near Da Nang Sunday, killing all 23 men aboard.

In other action:

Communists shelled the headquarters of the U.S. Special Forces (Green Berets) at Nha Trang with 12 mortar rounds during the night. Officials said there were no casualties.

B-52 bombers raided the Demilitarized Zone three times last night and early today. The bombing was north and west of the battered Con Thien Marine outpost which was hit by 62 rounds of mortar and artillery yesterday, wounding three Americans.

South of Da Nang, North Vietnamese regulars stepped up troops and the cavalrymen, apparently in an attempt to ease pressure on the frontier battleground.

Wind Gauge Is Stolen

Marin County Department of Public Works today found itself unable to tell which way the wind was blowing.

Warren W. Wright of the Marin County Garage reported to San Rafael police yesterday the theft of a $2,500 wind gauge the department had on loan from Hollister County Airport.

Police said the gauge, made of aluminum, was taken from the parking lot at the garage over the weekend.

Library Board Previews Exhibit

Miss DePatta, who died in 1964, was an outstanding artist who experimented with new forms of jewelry, according to Mrs. Vivian R. Smith, head librarian. The jewelry, which will be on display to the public until Oct. 21 in the adult library, is on loan from private collections as well as from the Oakland Art Museum.

Library board members also made plans to meet with the San Rafael City Council on Monday to discuss the proposed library ordinance concerning powers and duties of the board.

Library Backers Set Annual Books Sale

The fourth annual book sale of the Mill Valley Library Association will be held in conjunction with the Mill Valley Fall Arts Festival from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday in Old Mill Park.

Mill Valley Rotary Club members will man the booth and transport books to the sale site. Proceeds will be used to help the public library.

Friends may call at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, until noon tomorrow.

Progress Cited On School Site

Grading operations for a new school in San Geronimo should be completed in a week, it was reported by Superintendent Marshall J. McCunniff at a meeting last night of the Lagunitas School District Board. The school, which will house kindergarten through sixth grade pupils, will be adjacent to the present one in the area.

Board members also heard plans for back-to-school night which is scheduled for Thursday evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

The board hired three new employees, Mrs. Janice Bloch, half-time teacher for educationally handicapped children at $6.50 an hour; Jess Janssen, grading inspector, $8 an hour, and Mrs. Joanne Weiss, part-time clerical worker, $2 an hour.

West Marin Trustees Approve Annexation

West Marin School District trustees last night unanimously approved annexation to the district of Point Reyes School District.

However, approval was on condition that Point Reyes District voters also agree to joint payment of the bonded indebtedness of the West Marin district, reported Supt. Howard F. Brose. He did not know what the present indebtedness was, nor how much it would add to taxpayers' bills in Point Reyes district, which has no bonded indebtededness.

Point Reyes district trustees will set a date for the election before Jan. 1 Brose said, so transfer of 21 pupils in the Point Reyes district can be made the following September.

The request for annexation was presented by Point Reyes trustees J. H. Mendoza and George Nunes.

Annexation would require a majority vote, but assumption of the debt payments would require a two-thirds vote by the Point Reyes electorate. No election is necessary in the West Marin district.

West Marin School District Trustees Also:

VICE PRINCPAL — Appointed Mrs. Edie Robinson as vice principal of Inverness School to replace Mrs. Millie McCray, who transferred to West Marin School. The post pays $200 ea year, in addition to her regular salary.

TESTING — Received report from Brose that district primary pupils "did very well" in statewide reading tests last spring, with 72 per cent of first graders in the district in the top-scoring group, 43 per cent of the second graders, and 29 per cent of third graders.

MUSEUM — Signed annual contract with Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum for use of facilities at 10 cents a pupil.

SCHOOL BOARDS — Voted to join California School Boards Assn. for $80 a year, trustee Robert W. Giacomini abstaining on ground that there was too little benefit from the cost.

Two-Car Wreck Hurts Driver

A Mill Valley man escaped with a cut lip in a two-car collision last night on Shoreline Highway at the entrance to the heliport near Marin City.

The California Highway Patrol reported that a northbound car driven by Ruth Turner Costello, 37, of 214 West Street, Sausalito, turned left into the heliport driveway at 10:20 p.m. and collided with a westbound car on Shoreline Highway driven by Tad Tadashi Nakamura, 26, of 514 Pineo Avenue, Mill Valley.

Nakamura was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Ruth Costello was cited by the patrol for failure to yield to through traffic.

San Anselmo Husband Reported As Missing

Mrs. Terry Ellerman of 124 Tunstead Avenue, San Anselmo, told San Anselmo police yesterday that her husband, Wayne Ellerman, 35, has been missing since Saturday night.

Ellerman was last seen wearing dark slacks, a blue and white jacket, and red plaid shirt and a skippers cap. He is five feet, seven inches tall, weighs 165 pounds and has blue eyes and brown hair.

Mariner Green Rec Plan Voted

The Corte Madera Planning Commission last night approved plans of the Lytton Savings and Loan Association, Palo Alto, for a recreation center for the Mariner Green apartments off Paradise Drive.

The commission recommended to the council that Phillip B. Swigard's property between Paradise Drive and Highway 101 be rezoned form residential to professional-administratice. Swigard had requested commercial zoning.

The commission recommended denial of H. Alfred Hanken's request that property at 5108 and 5116 Paradise Drive be rezoned from single-family to multiple-dwelling residential.

Radio, Cash Gone

Heart Attack Victim Being Flown Out

A 55-year-old San Rafael man, who reportedly suffered a severe heart attack while on a visit to Monument Valley, Utah, was being flown to a San Francisco hospital today for treatment.

Alfred S. Newark, a manufacturers representative, of 116 Gloria Drive, was admitted to the Seventh Day Adventists Indian Hospital on the Arizona-Utah border five weeks ago, a hospital staff member, Herbert Ford, told the Independent-Journal by radio telephone today. He was on the critical list for about six days.

The attack occurred at Mexican Hat, about 25 miles from the hospital which is the only medical facility in a 200-mile area.

Ford said Newark was due to be put aboard a private plane at the hospital air strip at 9:30 a.m. local time and taken to Salt Lake City where he was to board a commercial airline. He was expected to arrive at the University of California Hospital in San Francisco about 3:30 p.m.

The San Rafael visitor was alone at the time of the heart attack, according to Ford, and his wife, Ann, has been by his hospital bedside for the past two weeks.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YLSTERDAY:

5:24 p.m., Marin City —Spot grass fire near Drake Avenue; no damage; cause unknown.

TODAY:

Demos Quietly Bury Idea Of Delegate Loyalty Oath

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Democratic leaders, with bitter memories of other loyalty oath battles, have quietly buried a proposal to require pledges from all 1968 national convention delegates to support the party's national ticket.

The action came as a postscript to yesterday's Democratic National Committee meeting.

But before the meeting, committee members from 13 Western states and the Territory of Guam had endorsed a proposal of California National Committeeman Eugene Wyman for a loyalty oath. Wyman wanted to be sure that any "peace delegation" that might be chosen from his state would be denied seats if its members refused to commit themselves to support a renominated President Johnson.

The matter did not come up at the regular meeting, at which National Chairman John M. Bailey declared: "The next nominee for President is going to be Lyndon Johnson. Mark that down as final."

Wyman later took his proposal to the committee's special Equal Rights Committee, set up after the 1964 convention to seek guarantees that Negroes would be admitted to party activities. He believed the committee could act on his proposal although it was created to guard against seating delegates from states discriminating against Negroes in party affairs.

When the committee recessed last night, however, Wyman told newsmen it was clear his proposal would not be approved because Democrats "abhor loyalty oaths." He said he was content with language used in convention calls since 1956 when it was adopted after a loyalty oath hassle in 1952.

Sausalito To Have Halloween Parade

A Halloween parade and party for children from pre-school age through sixth grade will be held Oct. 31 in Sausalito. Prizes will be awarded the best-costumed boy and girl in each grade.

The parade and party are sponsored by the Sausalito Lions Club. The parade will form at the main fire station, Johnson and Caledonia streets, at 7 p.m. and will start at 7:30 p.m. Paraders will march to Central School, where motion pictures will be shown, candy and apples handed out and prizes awarded.

Traffic Violation Brings Marijuana Suspicion Booking

Randy Scott Steg, 23, of Chatsworth, Los Angeles County, was arrested by Sausalito police last night on suspicion of possessing marijuana after being stopped on a minor traffic violation.

Police said Steg was driving very slowly and was stopped at 11:15 p.m. at Brdgeway and Napa Street, where the arresting officer said he appeared to be under the influence of marijuana.

Two cigarettes believed to be marijuana were found in Steg's car. He was booked at Marin County Jail. No bail had been set this morning. Steg was to appear this afternoon in Marin Municipal Court.

This is no run-of-the-mill Bourbon.
It's Bourbon with a richer, more robust taste. More of the taste that Bourbon was meant to have.
It's Bourbon aged till the years have rounded out the taste and worn away the edges.
It's Bourbon as smooth as a man could ask for. With all the taste of old-time whiskey, yet easy and mellow going down.

Fairfax Citizens Air Complaints On Sewers

Forrest Avenue residents urged the Fairfax City Council last night to take steps to eliminate "serious unsanitary conditions" in their area.

The problem is that the city doesn't have jurisdiction over sewage systems and the best it can do is exert its influence on Sanitary District No. 1, which does.

There are no connections on "a considerable portion" of Forrest Avenue and septic systems are becoming difficult to maintain, reported Bruce E. Duncan, 139 Forrest Avenue. The conditions are a danger to health, he said.

City Administrator David J. Sumbardo said the city couldn't legally finance any sewer system in the area because it doesn't have jurisdiction.

Allen Pool of 204 Forrest Avenue said, "They (Sanitary District No. 1) tax us and we don't get services."

Councilman Adelaide Wilson suggested that the residents, about 12 in attendance, air their grievances at a meeting of the sanitary district board.

The council agreed to notify the sanitary district about the complaints and do what it can to get action toward having a sewer system constructed.

Duncan said the Marin County Health Department made a survey last spring, but the "findings so far have been unreported."

The Fairfax City Council Also:

FEE BOOST—Adopted amendments to the zoning ordinance raising the fee for variance and conditional use permits from $3 to $30, and designating the types of signs to be reviewed by the city's design review board.

OIL PAINTING — Received an oil painting of Mount Tamalpais by H. Gustavson, an early day Marin County painter, as a gift to the city from Mr. and Mrs. William F. Torrance, 393 Scenic Road.

BACKHOE-LOADER—Awarded John Deere Co., lowest bidders, a contract to furnish a backhoe and loader at a cost of $7,097.

RE-ZONING DENIED—Denied an application by S. Michael Fopp for re-zoning of a lot at 74 Porteous from single-family to duplex.

FIRE HORN —Postponed until its next meeting, Nov. 13, discussion of a request to turn off the 8 a.m. fire whistle, which was turned on last month, after being shut off for about a month.

PAVILION REPAIR—Approved the expenditure of $2,100 for construction of a new entrance to the Fairfax Pavilion, as recommended by the Park and Recreation Commission.

FLAG DISPLAY — Received a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Bill F. Pitts, 239 Tamalpais Road, asking display of the American flag on holidays, and asked City Administrator David J. Sumbardo to confer with the Fairfax Merchants Association on downtown flag display.

TAX SHARING — Passed a resolution urging enactment of a federal tax-sharing program whereby the federal government would make federal tax monies available to states.

GASOLINE TAX — Approved a gasoline tax budget for 1967-68 including an application to the state for $3,500 for a joint traffic study with San Anselmo on the main connecting arteries, Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Center Boulevard.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS — Postponed until Nov. 13 scheduled discussion on reports on economy in city government, policy regarding commercial development, and flat rate salaries for department heads.

CLERICAL HELP — Approve transfer of $500 from reserve funds to be used for part-time clerical help as needed.

Disney Project Delays Forecast

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — An official of Disney Productions says some parts of the $100 million Disney world complex will open near Orlando Jan. 1, 1971, two years later than expected.

Jack C. Sayers, a Disney vice president, said in a speech, "Walt's death did slow things up. Everything had to be readjusted. This is not a postponement, but a realistic look at how we stand now."

He said land drainage and clearing is under way on the 27,800 - acre tract where the amusement park and "Experimental City of Tomorrow" will go up. Construction is to begin next fall.

Back To School

Lagunitas School in San Geronimo will hold a "back to school night" 7:30 to 9 p.m. Thursday for parents and residents of the district.

Regional Government

A conference on the prospects of regional government in the Bay Area will be held by the Leagues of Women Voters of Southern and Central Marin Oct. 21 from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in Strawberry. The league chapters are handling registration.

'INFORMATION FAIRFAX' SET FOR OPENING

A center entitled "Information Fairfax," containing governmental publications and reports, will open at 1912 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

Mrs. Stefan J. Carniglia of 137 Hillside Drive, Fairfax, who will operate the center, said it will be open from 2 to 4 p.m. Wednesday and Saturdays or by appointment.

Reports on the proposed general plan for Fairfax will be available for reading, she said.

Marin City Booster Group's Debut Slated

First meeting of the partially constituted Marin City Foundation is scheduled for tomorrow at 8 p.m. in St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church in Marin City, it was announced today by Margaret Azevedo of Tiburon, who is directing the project.

The foundation is a project of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs. Purpose of the meeting will be to discuss remaining membership and to "go into the background of Marin City housing," said Mrs. Azevedo.

Fairfax Downtown Freeze Thaws For Medical Center

Reversing a prior decision and overruling the planning commission, the Fairfax City Council last night granted a use permit for a proposed medical center at 1732 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The vote was 3-2 with Mayor George A. Pagni and Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. dissenting.

Controversy over the proposal centered around the eventual need for widening Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and the city's moratorium on downtown development until a general plan is adopted.

Councilman Frank J. Egger said, "We're either going to have apartments or a medical center there. Apartments would be a cost to the city and a medical center would bring in revenue, and would be more advantageous to the city."

Pagni urged delay until the general plan is completed, "in just a few months" to determine if a medical center is the "right thing" for the hillside site as an entrance to the city. "It would be premature to make a decision now."

Arthur Lang, San Rafael engineer, working on the project, said that by granting the use permit to James Johnson, the city wouldn't relinquish any power regarding widening of the boulevard.

Arrigoni noted that the city is preparing to enter into a joint study with San Anselmo on the major connecting arteries, Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Center Boulevard.

Councilmen added a condition to the permit banning any "raise of grade" of city right-of-way property along the boulevard.

Pagni noted that earlier the council had denied Kenneth E. Niles a special use permit for neighborhood commercial building at 141-145 Bolinas Road across from city hall because of the moratorium.

Niles argued that there is commercial use in the block now, and he submitted a letter favoring his proposal carrying signatures of 40 persons in the area.

Oswald Jacoby Sets A Record

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Oswald Jacoby, rated by many as the world's top bridge player, is the first player in history to achieve 10,000 master points.

He reached this goal in a tournament which opened Thursday and closed Sunday night. Jacoby turned in the 10,000-point-mark playing on a team-of-four competition with his family.

The team of four consisted of Jacoby, his wife, Mary Zita, his son James Oswald Jacoby and young Jacoby's wife, Judy.

Jacoby, 65, became famous in 1931 when he teamed up with Sidney Lenz to defeat the Eli Culbertsons, rated tops in the bridge world.

College Official To Visit Schools

Thomas B. McKune, assistant director of admissions at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., will visit three high schools in Marin Oct. 23.

His schedule includes visits to Tamalpais High School at 9 a.m., Terra Linda High School at 10:30 a.m., and Redwood High School at 12:30 p.m.

Computer Held A Doctor's Tool

SANTA BARBARA (AP) — The president of the American Medical Association says the computer may make the doctor more efficient but it will never be more than a tool.

Dr. Milford Rouse, speaking yesterday at the Channel City Club, said, "A computer can't make you well by mechanics alone."

At a news conference, Dr. Rouse said the AMA's position on Medicare was "good humored, vigilant tolerance." He added that the AMA has never approved of the Medicare program.

Dr. Rouse said the elderly are becoming disillusioned with Medicare because "it just didn't provide the 100 per cent protection the elderly person thought it would."

Plea Date Set In Check Case

Plea entry was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Monday. Kantola, of Vallejo, allegedly had a check Feb. 16 with intent to defraud Drake Market in San Anselmo.

He also is accused of having a check with intent to defraud United Market in San Anselmo that day.

Chief Brown reads rocks

An El Paso Natural Gas Company geologist, Chief is in charge of the development of gas reserves in the Pictured Cliffs Formation which lies far below the surface of the San Juan Basin in northwestern New Mexico.

Chief keeps exact data on the location and performance of each well tapping this gas-bearing sandstone. He knows the depth and thickness of this sandstone throughout the San Juan Basin. Carefully analyzing information, Chief recommends where further drilling should be carried out and which wells should be reworked to keep natural gas in abundant supply.

Other employees apply detailed knowledge of every producing formation in fields ranging from Canada through the Rocky Mountain area to New Mexico and Texas.

Chief Brown's skills along with those of the other 5,400 employees of El Paso Natural Gas Company — whose backgrounds range from chemistry through electronics to geology — are among the reasons that California has natural gas rates that are among the lowest in the nation.*

EL PASO NATURAL GAS COMPANY
Through its pipelines El Paso Natural serves California and ten other western states.

*Federal Power Commission figures show that Los Angeles and San Francisco-Oakland enjoy the lowest wholesale gas prices of any of the 14 largest metropolitan areas in the nation. El Paso Natural's rates are the lowest of the three pipelines bringing gas to the state. All communities in California, regardless of size, enjoy the benefits of these low rates.

Stuffed Pork Chops—Gelee

6 pork chops one inch thick with pocket. (Our meat cutters will do this for you.)

1 cup sliced celery
½ cup chopped onion
½ cup butter
2 cups dry bread crumbs
½ cup seedless raisins
Small amount of chicken broth or stock
1 10-oz. jar of currant jelly
½ tsp. sage
½ tsp. salt pepper to taste

Cook celery and onion in butter until tender. Add bread crumbs, raisins, seasoning and enough stock to moisten. Mix well. Fill pork chop pockets with this dressing, press edges of opening together and secure with toothpicks. Brown slowly on both sides, cover and cook over low heat or bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour. Add small amount of stock if necessary. Spoon jelly over chops and continue cooking approximately 10 minutes longer. Serves 6.

Serve with a Paul Masson Dry Sauterne.

Fairfax Citizens Air Complaints On Sewers

Forrest Avenue residents urged the Fairfax City Council last night to take steps to eliminate "serious unsanitary conditions" in their area.

The problem is that the city doesn't have jurisdiction over sewage systems and the best it can do is exert its influence on Sanitary District No. 1, which does.

There are no connections on "a considerable portion" of Forrest Avenue and septic systems are becoming difficult to maintain, reported Bruce E. Duncan, 139 Forrest Avenue. The conditions are a danger to health, he said.

City Administrator David J. Sumbardo said the city couldn't legally finance any sewer system in the area because it doesn't have jurisdiction.

Allen Pool of 204 Forrest Avenue said, "They (Sanitary District No. 1) tax us and we don't get services."

Councilman Adelaide Wilson suggested that the residents, about 12 in attendance, air their grievances at a meeting of the sanitary district board.

The council agreed to notify the sanitary district about the complaints and do what it can to get action toward having a sewer system constructed.

Duncan said the Marin County Health Department made a survey last spring, but the "findings so far have been unreported."

The Fairfax City Council Also:

FEE BOOST—Adopted amendments to the zoning ordinance raising the fee for variance and conditional use permits from $3 to $30, and designating the types of signs to be reviewed by the city's design review board.

OIL PAINTING — Received an oil painting of Mount Tamalpais by H. Gustavson, an early day Marin County painter, as a gift to the city from Mr. and Mrs. William F. Torrance, 393 Scenic Road.

BACKHOE-LOADER—Awarded John Deere Co., lowest bidders, a contract to furnish a backhoe and loader at a cost of $7,097.

RE-ZONING DENIED—Denied an application by S. Michael Fopp for re-zoning of a lot at 74 Porteous from single-family to duplex.

FIRE HORN —Postponed until its next meeting, Nov. 13, discussion of a request to turn off the 8 a.m. fire whistle, which was turned on last month, after being shut off for about a month.

PAVILION REPAIR—Approved the expenditure of $2,100 for construction of a new entrance to the Fairfax Pavilion, as recommended by the Park and Recreation Commission.

FLAG DISPLAY — Received a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Bill F. Pitts, 239 Tamalpais Road, asking display of the American flag on holidays, and asked City Administrator David J. Sumbardo to confer with the Fairfax Merchants Association on downtown flag display.

TAX SHARING — Passed a resolution urging enactment of a federal tax-sharing program whereby the federal government would make federal tax monies available to states.

GASOLINE TAX — Approved a gasoline tax budget for 1967-68 including an application to the state for $3,500 for a joint traffic study with San Anselmo on the main connecting arteries, Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Center Boulevard.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS — Postponed until Nov. 13 scheduled discussion on reports on economy in city government, policy regarding commercial development, and flat rate salaries for department heads.

CLERICAL HELP — Approve transfer of $500 from reserve funds to be used for part-time clerical help as needed.

Disney Project Delays Forecast

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — An official of Disney Productions says some parts of the $100 million Disney world complex will open near Orlando Jan. 1, 1971, two years later than expected.

Jack C. Sayers, a Disney vice president, said in a speech, "Walt's death did slow things up. Everything had to be readjusted. This is not a postponement, but a realistic look at how we stand now."

He said land drainage and clearing is under way on the 27,800 - acre tract where the amusement park and "Experimental City of Tomorrow" will go up. Construction is to begin next fall.

Back To School

Lagunitas School in San Geronimo will hold a "back to school night" 7:30 to 9 p.m. Thursday for parents and residents of the district.

Regional Government

A conference on the prospects of regional government in the Bay Area will be held by the Leagues of Women Voters of Southern and Central Marin Oct. 21 from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in Strawberry. The league chapters are handling registration.

'INFORMATION FAIRFAX' SET FOR OPENING

A center entitled "Information Fairfax," containing governmental publications and reports, will open at 1912 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

Mrs. Stefan J. Carniglia of 137 Hillside Drive, Fairfax, who will operate the center, said it will be open from 2 to 4 p.m. Wednesday and Saturdays or by appointment.

Reports on the proposed general plan for Fairfax will be available for reading, she said.

Marin City Booster Group's Debut Slated

First meeting of the partially constituted Marin City Foundation is scheduled for tomorrow at 8 p.m. in St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church in Marin City, it was announced today by Margaret Azevedo of Tiburon, who is directing the project.

The foundation is a project of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs. Purpose of the meeting will be to discuss remaining membership and to "go into the background of Marin City housing," said Mrs. Azevedo.

Fairfax Downtown Freeze Thaws For Medical Center

Reversing a prior decision and overruling the planning commission, the Fairfax City Council last night granted a use permit for a proposed medical center at 1732 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The vote was 3-2 with Mayor George A. Pagni and Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. dissenting.

Controversy over the proposal centered around the eventual need for widening Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and the city's moratorium on downtown development until a general plan is adopted.

Councilman Frank J. Egger said, "We're either going to have apartments or a medical center there. Apartments would be a cost to the city and a medical center would bring in revenue, and would be more advantageous to the city."

Pagni urged delay until the general plan is completed, "in just a few months" to determine if a medical center is the "right thing" for the hillside site as an entrance to the city. "It would be premature to make a decision now."

Arthur Lang, San Rafael engineer, working on the project, said that by granting the use permit to James Johnson, the city wouldn't relinquish any power regarding widening of the boulevard.

Arrigoni noted that the city is preparing to enter into a joint study with San Anselmo on the major connecting arteries, Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Center Boulevard.

Councilmen added a condition to the permit banning any "raise of grade" of city right-of-way property along the boulevard.

Pagni noted that earlier the council had denied Kenneth E. Niles a special use permit for neighborhood commercial building at 141-145 Bolinas Road across from city hall because of the moratorium.

Niles argued that there is commercial use in the block now, and he submitted a letter favoring his proposal carrying signatures of 40 persons in the area.

Oswald Jacoby Sets A Record

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Oswald Jacoby, rated by many as the world's top bridge player, is the first player in history to achieve 10,000 master points.

He reached this goal in a tournament which opened Thursday and closed Sunday night. Jacoby turned in the 10,000-point-mark playing on a team-of-four competition with his family.

The team of four consisted of Jacoby, his wife, Mary Zita, his son James Oswald Jacoby and young Jacoby's wife, Judy.

Jacoby, 65, became famous in 1931 when he teamed up with Sidney Lenz to defeat the Eli Culbertsons, rated tops in the bridge world.

College Official To Visit Schools

Thomas B. McKune, assistant director of admissions at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., will visit three high schools in Marin Oct. 23.

His schedule includes visits to Tamalpais High School at 9 a.m., Terra Linda High School at 10:30 a.m., and Redwood High School at 12:30 p.m.

Computer Held A Doctor's Tool

SANTA BARBARA (AP) — The president of the American Medical Association says the computer may make the doctor more efficient but it will never be more than a tool.

Dr. Milford Rouse, speaking yesterday at the Channel City Club, said, "A computer can't make you well by mechanics alone."

At a news conference, Dr. Rouse said the AMA's position on Medicare was "good humored, vigilant tolerance." He added that the AMA has never approved of the Medicare program.

Dr. Rouse said the elderly are becoming disillusioned with Medicare because "it just didn't provide the 100 per cent protection the elderly person thought it would."

Plea Date Set In Check Case

Plea entry was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Monday. Kantola, of Vallejo, allegedly had a check Feb. 16 with intent to defraud Drake Market in San Anselmo.

He also is accused of having a check with intent to defraud United Market in San Anselmo that day.

Chief Brown reads rocks

An El Paso Natural Gas Company geologist, Chief is in charge of the development of gas reserves in the Pictured Cliffs Formation which lies far below the surface of the San Juan Basin in northwestern New Mexico.

Chief keeps exact data on the location and performance of each well tapping this gas-bearing sandstone. He knows the depth and thickness of this sandstone throughout the San Juan Basin. Carefully analyzing information, Chief recommends where further drilling should be carried out and which wells should be reworked to keep natural gas in abundant supply.

Other employees apply detailed knowledge of every producing formation in fields ranging from Canada through the Rocky Mountain area to New Mexico and Texas.

Chief Brown's skills along with those of the other 5,400 employees of El Paso Natural Gas Company — whose backgrounds range from chemistry through electronics to geology — are among the reasons that California has natural gas rates that are among the lowest in the nation.*

EL PASO NATURAL GAS COMPANY
Through its pipelines El Paso Natural serves California and ten other western states.

*Federal Power Commission figures show that Los Angeles and San Francisco-Oakland enjoy the lowest wholesale gas prices of any of the 14 largest metropolitan areas in the nation. El Paso Natural's rates are the lowest of the three pipelines bringing gas to the state. All communities in California, regardless of size, enjoy the benefits of these low rates.

Tiburon Council Ties Sidewalk To Drainage

Tiburon City Council wrapped a sidewalk into the downtown drainage problem and remanded the package to the planning commission last night.

Councilman William R. Bremer said he had been talking to the commission chairman, Erik Rettig, and felt the commission wanted to take a look at the drainage.

Councilman Thomas E. Drohan agreed, although he wanted to "bail out Tiburon" before the rains started and felt a solution should be "attacked immediately."

City Engineer Ray W. Foreaker reported that an old terra cotta drain near the bus stop had been cleaned out and was almost ready for use.

Councilman Branwell D. Fanning favored an interim solution to "get rid of the water we have now" rather than delay until an overall solution could be started.

Commisioner Alan Littman in the audience confirmed that the commission would like to "take a quick look" at drainage.

George S. Drejes, director of the Tiburon Fire District, said the district would be willing to work with the city on the cost of drainage and urged speed in getting the program going, as did chief Franklin J. Buscher and director Fred C. Hannahs.

Firemen have been concerned about constant flooding of the firehouse property in winter rains.

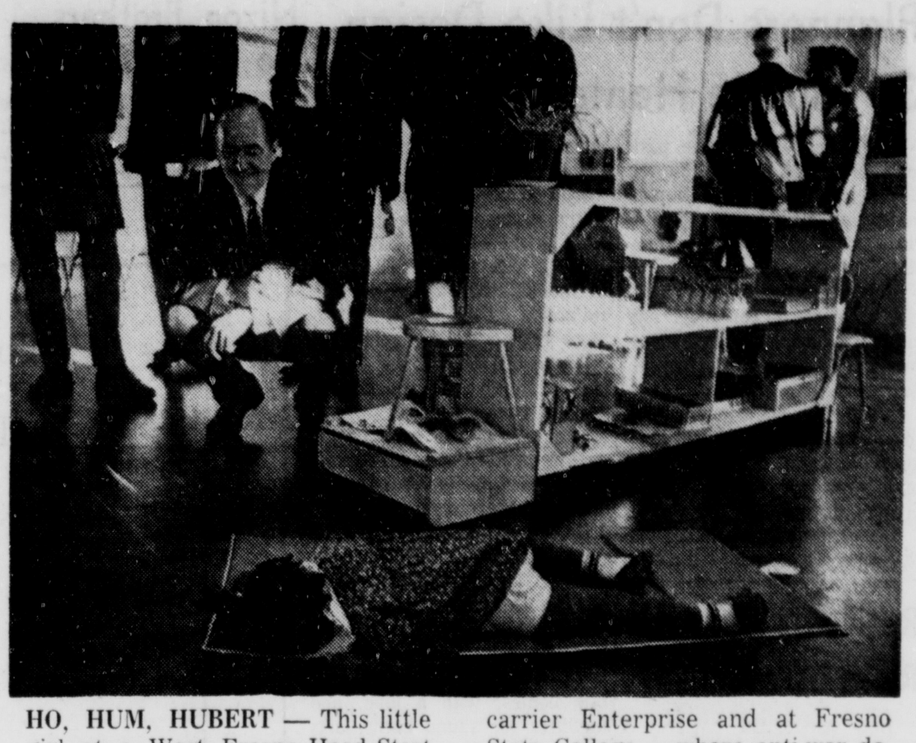
Mayor Hoffmire's motion was approved 4-0 to approve enginerring be done on a proposed sidewalk from Tibron Lodge down Tiburon Boulevard to Main Street, with the total construction cost of $7,560 to be expanded as needed for engineering, using gas tax money as much as possible — providing the planning commission approval is also forthcoming.

The motion included a request to the commission to give the council an answer to Foreaker's proposal for a temporary drainage solution from the fire house southeast along Tiburon Boulevard, to discharge near the Windjammer Restaurant, costing $10,000.

Foreaker explained the installation would not drain during high tide but would serve to relieve flooding after tides go down.

Councilman Gordon W. Strawbridge was absent.

The commission will review the combined project at its special meeting tonight at 8 p.m. at city hall with planning consultant George Gatter.



HO, HUM, HUBERT — This little girl at a West Fresno Head Start Center apparently couldn't be less excited over a chance to see Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. Humphrey visited the center yesterday, along with speech-making defending U.S. Asian policy in Alameda aboard the nuclear-powered carrier Enterprise and at Fresno State College — where anti-war demonstrators walked out and chanted outside the hall. The Vice President also briefly passed through Hamilton Air Force Base last night on his way to a meeting in San Francisco with Democratic leaders.

Governnent Students See Council Minutes Argument

Sir Francis Drake High School students, acting as Fairfax city officials, witnessed a wild and woolly demonstration of democracy in action last night.

Students participated in the regular council session, and it was no sooner underway than a heated verbal clash erupted over minutes of a previous meeting.

Mrs. Stefan J. Carniglia of 137 Hillside Drive wanted to make corrections to the minutes, and Mayor George A. Pagni said he couldn't accept them.

Mrs. Carniglia wanted inserted in the minutes two requests she had made at the Sept. 18 meeting for information on the rules governing public hearings and the schedule of meetings on the general plan.

Mrs. Carneglia said she had not intended last night to bring up the matter of a phone call she received Sept. 19 from City Administrator David J. Sumbardo, in which, she said, he told her, "I do not like your subversive questions." Mrs. Carniglia said she brought the matter up last night only because the answers she was receiving were "rude and inadequate."

GAVEL USED

"When does a person have a right to correct?" Mrs. Carniglia asked.

Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. said the code provides that the council may make corrections to the minutes, but doesn't "say anyone else has the right to make corrections."

'COUNCIL IN CHARGE'

Pagni said the council determines if the minutes accurately reflect the actions of the meeting, and City Atty. Wallace S. Myers commented, "the council is in charge of the minutes."

Students also discussed and voted upon several items on the agenda, to round out their day in office.

Equipment Taken

Humphrey Lauds Churches' Efforts To Help Society

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Vice President Hubert Humphrey said today that his nation is "seeing the development of a new American ecumenicism — an ecumenicism which recognizes that all of us suffer if the few are left behind, together."

Humphrey told the National Conference of Catholic Charities that "all our institutional resources — governmental, voluntary, business and labor—are beginning to mesh in a cooperative national effort to build the 'Cities of Hope' you have been discussing."

The vice president said cities today suffer more than a "lack of physical amenities. There is in them, and in many of the people who live in them, a sickness of the soul, an emptiness of the spirit. Men are deadened, frustrated, alienated and finally unhinged."

The church, he said, with its thought the federal government abiding concern for the whole man, can help find the answer.

The vice president said he had been responsive to the need to the extent its resources would permit.

Humphrey took note of achievements in the last three years — listing medicare, the elementary and secondary education act, model cities program, rent supplements, job corps, head start, upward bound, neighborhood youth centers and community action centers.

Mill Valley Trustees Name Volunteer Aide Coordinator

Mrs. Eleanor Buckley last night was named volunteer aide coordinator for the Mill Valley School system.

Mrs. Buckley, of 475 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, was selected from 59 applicants for the half-time job, which will pay $2,500 a year. She will help set up the volunteer program and will be liaison between volunteers and the school staff.

She will start, Supt. James Collins said, by visiting other districts which have volunteer aides to observe the programs in action. She will then meet with school administrators to plan the Mill Valley program.

Volunteer aides will do a variety of school jobs to free teachers from some non-teaching duties, such as clerical work, and will sometimes work with pupils in non-teaching roles. Volunteers with special talents may be called on as "enrichment personnel" in their fields.

The Mill Valley School District board briefly discussed plans for the proposed middle school, and Chairman Joseph E. Bodovitz and board member William L. Clark were appointed as a two-man committee to meet with city council committee on the proposed Project 17 site.

Bodovitz emphasized that the committee is to get information to speed a decision, not to negotiate "behind the scenes" for a city-schools agreement. All decisions will be made in public, he said.

The Mill Valley School District Board also:

INTERDISTRICT — Appointed John K. Robinson is interdistrict representative to meet with a member of the Sausalito School District Board occasionally on the pupil exchange program. The arrangement succeeds the formal interdistrict committee of the past two years which monitored the exchange program at its start.

TEACHER EXCHANGE—Appointed a policy statement encouraging a teacher exchange program with foreign teachers. Procedure for a program has not yet been worked out, Collins said.

TEACHER — Authorized the Mill Valley Teachers' Association to be represented on a negotiating council if one is formed.

Pair Arraigned On Theft Charge

Edward B. Outley, 34, and Elmer G. Walker, 39, were arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a joint complaint of attempted petty theft from the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. equipment yard in San Rafael.

Plea entries were scheduled for this afternoon. Outley, of 33 Burgess Court, Marin City, and Walker, of San Francisco, were originally booked in county jail for grand theft. San Rafael police said the pair was seen entering the yard at Lindaro Street Sunday where a large quantity of copper wire recently was stolen.

A weekend stakeout on the yard by police was made, officers added.

Jail Sentence Ruled In Car Theft

Gary Lee Evans, 20, of Oakland, was given 30 days in county jail and placed on two years probation yesterday in Marin Superior Court for auto theft.

He took the vehicle June 20 from Gerhard Klein in San Anselmo.

Only two things are needed:
First, a loan application.
And next, a day or two for us to put it through. Then, as soon as your credit is ok'd, we'll let you know money is waiting for you.
To make the whole thing easier, we've included a special tax loan application here. It will take only a few minutes to fill out. That done, you can then drop it off at the bank or mail it to our nearest office—there's probably one in your neighborhood. Or if you like, one of our loan officers will help you fill out an application.
If you've done loan business with us before, we can probably put through your application even faster. There's no need to fill out this form. Maybe we can handle the loan by phone. Just give us a call.
That's all there is to it. And in our book, that's all there should be to a tax loan.

The required payment on your estimated 1967 California State Income Tax is due by October 31. So maybe you'd better see us today. Our loans are guaranteed to relieve any painful symptoms of tax bite.

This time of year, the last thing you need is another problem.

Crocker-Citizens
the big bank where little things count

Dear Crocker-Citizens:
I understand you have money available for tax loans. Right now, I could use $_____ to meet the payment due on my estimated 1967 California State Income Tax. Could you get me a tax loan fast?

Bodovitz emphasized that the committee is to get information to speed a decision, not to negotiate "behind the scenes" for a city-schools agreement. All decisions will be made in public, he said.

The Mill Valley School District Board also:

INTERDISTRICT — Appointed John K. Robinson is interdistrict representative to meet with a member of the Sausalito School District Board occasionally on the pupil exchange program. The arrangement succeeds the formal interdistrict committee of the past two years which monitored the exchange program at its start.

TEACHER EXCHANGE—Appointed a policy statement encouraging a teacher exchange program with foreign teachers. Procedure for a program has not yet been worked out, Collins said.

TEACHER — Authorized the Mill Valley Teachers' Association to be represented on a negotiating council if one is formed.

Pair Arraigned On Theft Charge

Edward B. Outley, 34, and Elmer G. Walker, 39, were arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a joint complaint of attempted petty theft from the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. equipment yard in San Rafael.

Plea entries were scheduled for this afternoon. Outley, of 33 Burgess Court, Marin City, and Walker, of San Francisco, were originally booked in county jail for grand theft. San Rafael police said the pair was seen entering the yard at Lindaro Street Sunday where a large quantity of copper wire recently was stolen.

A weekend stakeout on the yard by police was made, officers added.

Jail Sentence Ruled In Car Theft

Gary Lee Evans, 20, of Oakland, was given 30 days in county jail and placed on two years probation yesterday in Marin Superior Court for auto theft.

Humphrey Lauds Churches' Efforts To Help Society

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Vice President Hubert Humphrey said today that his nation is "seeing the development of a new American ecumenicism — an ecumenicism which recognizes that all of us suffer if the few are left behind, together."

Humphrey told the National Conference of Catholic Charities that "all our institutional resources — governmental, voluntary, business and labor—are beginning to mesh in a cooperative national effort to build the 'Cities of Hope' you have been discussing."

The vice president said cities today suffer more than a "lack of physical amenities. There is in them, and in many of the people who live in them, a sickness of the soul, an emptiness of the spirit. Men are deadened, frustrated, alienated and finally unhinged."

The church, he said, with its thought the federal government abiding concern for the whole man, can help find the answer.

The vice president said he had been responsive to the need to the extent its resources would permit.

Humphrey took note of achievements in the last three years — listing medicare, the elementary and secondary education act, model cities program, rent supplements, job corps, head start, upward bound, neighborhood youth centers and community action centers.

Governnent Students See Council Minutes Argument

Sir Francis Drake High School students, acting as Fairfax city officials, witnessed a wild and woolly demonstration of democracy in action last night.

Students participated in the regular council session, and it was no sooner underway than a heated verbal clash erupted over minutes of a previous meeting.

Mrs. Stefan J. Carniglia of 137 Hillside Drive wanted to make corrections to the minutes, and Mayor George A. Pagni said he couldn't accept them.

Mrs. Carniglia wanted inserted in the minutes two requests she had made at the Sept. 18 meeting for information on the rules governing public hearings and the schedule of meetings on the general plan.

Mrs. Carneglia said she had not intended last night to bring up the matter of a phone call she received Sept. 19 from City Administrator David J. Sumbardo, in which, she said, he told her, "I do not like your subversive questions." Mrs. Carniglia said she brought the matter up last night only because the answers she was receiving were "rude and inadequate."

GAVEL USED

"When does a person have a right to correct?" Mrs. Carniglia asked.

Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. said the code provides that the council may make corrections to the minutes, but doesn't "say anyone else has the right to make corrections."

'COUNCIL IN CHARGE'

Pagni said the council determines if the minutes accurately reflect the actions of the meeting, and City Atty. Wallace S. Myers commented, "the council is in charge of the minutes."

Students also discussed and voted upon several items on the agenda, to round out their day in office.

Equipment Taken

Michael Pechner, of 1040 Los Gamos Road, Terra Linda, an amateur weather forecaster, reported to San Rafael police Sunday the theft of forecasting equipment from his home sometime during the past eight months.

Only two things are needed:

First, a loan application.

And next, a day or two for us to put it through. Then, as soon as your credit is ok'd, we'll let you know money is waiting for you.

To make the whole thing easier, we've included a special tax loan application here. It will take only a few minutes to fill out. That done, you can then drop it off at the bank or mail it to our nearest office—there's probably one in your neighborhood. Or if you like, one of our loan officers will help you fill out an application.

If you've done loan business with us before, we can probably put through your application even faster. There's no need to fill out this form. Maybe we can handle the loan by phone. Just give us a call.

That's all there is to it. And in our book, that's all there should be to a tax loan.

This time of year, the last thing you need is another problem.

The required payment on your estimated 1967 California State Income Tax is due by October 31. So maybe you'd better see us today. Our loans are guaranteed to relieve any painful symptoms of tax bite.

Crocker-Citizens
the big bank where little things count

Dear Crocker-Citizens:
I understand you have money available for tax loans. Right now, I could use $_____ to meet the payment due on my estimated 1967 California State Income Tax. Could you get me a tax loan fast?

New Design Review Procedure Adopted

The Marin County Planning Commissioners yesterday voted 3 to 2 to adopt a new design review procedure to replace the present "architectural supervision" chapter in the County Code.

The new design review section is aimed at clarifying and updating the old chapter on architectural supervision. As at present, subdivisions and single family homes are exempted from review, but duplexes and a few industrial and commerical type structures would be added to those subject to design review.

A CHOICE

The new system also gives the applicant a choice of processing his application through the planning staff or through the planning commission, plus the protection of appeal.

Commissioners Niels Schultz Jr., Eugene R. Trombley and Margaret Azevedo voted for the Design Review procedure, while Commissioners Hugh Dougherty and Walter F. Freitas voted "no." Dougherty objected to the design review procedure as too all-inclusive. "Under this, if we wanted to change a parking lot or a fence, we'd have to come in for a design review. You're imposing a whole new building permit system under the aegis of the planning department."

Commissioner Schultz succeeded in deleting a provision in the design review procedure which would have required that notices be sent to all abutting property owners for each matter coming up for design review.

Commissioner Schultz also objected to including duplexes for design review. "We're talking about censorship in taste," Schultz charged. "Just like censorship in literature, the less we have the better."

"YOUR LOGIC"

"If we go by your logic, we should abolish review and architectural supervision altogether," replied Dougherty.

"That may not be a bad idea," said Schultz.

But the duplexes are still included among buildings to be covered by the design review.

The design review procedures approved by the planning commission will go to the Marin County Board of Supervisors on Oct. 17 for setting of a date for public hearing.

Inmate Pleads Insanity In Court

Pleas of innocent and innocent by reason of insanity were entered in Marin Superior Court yesterday by Robert D. Harkings, San Quentin inmate accused of possession of a knife.

Two psychiatrists were appointed to examine Harkins and report Oct. 30 prior to scheduling of a trial. Harkins allegedly had the knife wrapped in a cloth beneath his cell mattress Aug. 19.

WOMEN WANT TO GUIDE GOV. REAGAN

CHARLOTTE AMALIE, St. Thomas, V.I. (UPI) — Want to know the most popular American governor among residents — or, at least, the female residents — of the Virgin Islands? It's Ronald Reagan of California.

Island Gov. Ralph Paiewonsky set up a committee to assign one lady to each governor as a guide during the forthcoming "floating governor's conference" which will be held here in late October.

So many of them wanted to be assigned to Governor Reagan, it was decied to draw lots as to who should have the honor. The draw date is yet to be determined.

Park Zone Restrictions Will Be Considered Later

The question of whether Point Reyes National Seashore area should come under the restrictions of the West Marin Interim Zoning Ordinance was put off for at least four months by the Marin County Planning Commission yesterday.

On the motion of Hugh Dougherty, the commission voted unanimously to postpone further discussion for about four months to give Planning Director Paul C. Zucker and his staff time to work on "a more appropriate zoning classification."

Among Zucker's recommendations is a proposal that the seashore area, now zoned agricultural, be rezoned to one-acre size lots, with the understanding that if the remainder of the 52,000-acre Seashore area is not bought by the federal government, a more detailed zoning proposal would be developed.

The Marin County Planning Commission Also:

OFFICE — Approved a real estate office for Driftwood Real Estate Co. in a portion of the Golden Hinde Boatel building on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard a mile north of Inverness.

LOT SPLIT — Approved by 3 to 2 vote a three-lot land division for Francis Blair and Lucian Phelps at 3175 Paradise Drive, Tiburon.

LAND DIVISION — Continued until Oct. 16 a request for a land division into four lots by Tony Brabo at the corner of Brabo Terrace and Reed Street, Homestead Valley.

GRADING — Set a hearing for Nov. 20 to discuss amendments to grading plan procedures and to appeal procedures in land division cases.

San Geronimo Poverty Survey Report Due

A report of the survey to determine the extent of poverty in San Geronimo Valley will be given today at a meeting of the San Geronimo-Nicasio Valleys Target Area Action Board at 8 p.m. in Lagunitas School (see editorial cartoon page

The survey is about 50 per cent completed, according to Mrs. Edwin F. Gardner, chairman of the board.

Planners Don't Like Design Of Mobile Home Proposal

A 61-acre mobile home park for 445 homes on the Burdell Ranch near the Marin-Sonoma border failed to impress the Marin County Planning Commissioners yesterday.

"I'd be opposed to this density (7.3 units per acre) under any circumstances," declared Commission Chairman Eugene R. Trombley.

"Do mobile home parks have to be so geometric?" asked Margaret Azevedo. She said rows and rows of mobile homes creates a sense of monotony.

The commissioners asked the developers to come back in November with a new design and different boundaries.

John Kenney of Oakland, one of the partners in the development, complained he had been meeting with the planning staff for months and wanted immediate action. "I can't wait for two more years," Kenney snapped.

He said the mobile home park would be located on the west side of Highway 101 just south of San Antonio Creek. Weitgraven outlined a plan that calls for greenbelts at least 30 feet wide between each row of mobile homes, with a lake, and facilities for sauna baths, arts and crafts and other recreational activity.

The planning commissioners agreed that the location is acceptable for a mobile home park, but the "rows on rows" of trailers should be revised to give more variety to the park.

"We are disappointed," said Weitgraven. "But we'll come back next week with a new design."

Retired Executive Risks Alcoholism

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A member of the Advisory Committee on Older Americans says sociologists have found a sharp increase in the rate of alcoholism among retired executives.

James Cuff O'Brien, presidential appointee to the committee, was in Los Angeles to attend a meeting today of the Affiliated Committees of Aging.

"The three and four martini lunch becomes an established pattern," he said in a news conference. "The days become so long in retirement that they find it easier to drink and then sleep away the afternoon than it is to face retirement."

Migrating Birds Close Area Of Bay

Flights of migratory waterfowl have arrived at the National Audubon Society's Richardson Bay sanctuary and, as a result, it will be closed to the public starting Sunday.

The water sanctuary off the Tiburon Peninsula will be reopened for public use next spring when most of the waterfowl have moved out.

Nixon Brothers To Share Estate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The $10,000 estate of Hannah M. Nixon, will be shared equally by her three remaining sons.

Mrs. Nixon died in Whittier Sept. 30 at the age of 82.

A three-page will, dated Sept. 6, was filed Monday for probate. In it Richard Nixon and his two brothers, Francis of Newport Beach, Calif., and Edward of Lynwood, Wash., were named as beneficiaries.

Two other Nixon brothers, Arthur and Harold, preceded Mrs. Nixon in death.

Weekend Jail Stays In Marijuana Case

Two Forest Knolls men were given three weekends in county jail and placed on a year's probation yesterday in Marin Superior Court for marijuana possession.

The pair, Stephen S. Kagin, 21, and John Lawrence Yenches, 23, both of 51 Ramona Avenue, had a one-kilogram brick of marijuana in the trunk of their car June 3. They pleaded guilty Sept. 18.

Since it's never in, it's never out.

Wow.

Ho hum.

But when the year goes by, new fads soon outdate the old fads. And the hottest-looking car last year is just that: the hottest-looking car last year.

But a VW is still just a VW. Not looking up-to-date, but not looking out-of-date either. (So you'll never have a Has-Been on your hands when you want to sell it.)

Instead of wasting time making the Volkswagen look better, we spend our time making it work better.

And this year there are dozens of ways it works better. (That makes over 2200 in all since it first started working period.)

Or a small price for a VW.

Varied Action Taken On Tiburon Streets

Tiburon City Council last night authorized preliminary engineering on one street improvement project, approved another conditionally and canceled a third.

The council, Gordon W. Strawbridge, absent, approved the windening of Esperanza Street, for $7,000, including engineering cost of $950.

Councilmen balked at a posposal to extend Esperanza Street to Mar West, at cost of $20,200, including engineering of $2,000. Councilman Branwell D. Fanning felt that "creating a new street" should be looked at by the planning commission.

Approval of the project was given with the condition that it also meet the commission's approval.

Construction of a sidewalk on Tiburon Boulevard was put off until a discussion on drainage could take place later in the meeting. Councilman William R. Bremer said he wouldn't vote on the sidewalk until the drainage problem was settled.

PROPOSED ROAD

A proposed connection from Linda Vista to Paradise Drive drew objections from citizens in the audience. Milton McDonogh said the proposed road would go through his Paradise Drive lot and he didn't want it condemned.

Next-door neighbor David L. Teather also objected to the road construction, as did Elmo De Martini representing property owners on Vista Del Mar Lane, north of the proposed road.

Kenneth Lamott, who lives on Linda Vista, said opening the street would make traffic "hazardous."

Councilmen Thomas E. Drohan and Bremer favored dropping the project because of the neighborhood objections and it was canceled, freeing the budget allocation "for other use, to be designated later."

NEXT MONDAY

The council made a date for next Monday to meet with representatives of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad and the Tiburon Peninsula Co. and discuss a use permit for a waterfront parking lot.

Mayor John S. Hoffmire said the time and place will be announced later after he has talked with representatives of the railroad.

Retail Sales Drop A Fraction

Marin was among the four-fifths of the counties in California which reported lower taxable retail sales during April, May and June, according to the State Board of Equalization. Sales dropped to $64,646,000 or .5 per cent less than during the second quarter of 1966.

San Rafael's total amounted to $26,789,000 with the largest slice being taken by auto dealers with $6,666,000 in sales.

Sales in other cities were: Corte Madera $6,108,000; Novato $5,589,000; Sausalito $4,817,000; Mill Valley $2,796,000; San Anselmo $2,583,000; Larkspur, $1,869,000; Fairfax $1,325,000; Tiburon $1,239,000; Belvedere $326,000; and Ross $150,000; plus unincorporated areas.

Cattle Are Entered In Holstein Show

Joyce and Tom A. Nunes of San Rafael have entered 16 Holstein dairy cottle in the Western National Holstein show scheduled for the California State Fairgrounds in Sacramento tomorrow and Thrusday.

More then 200 entries will compete for $10,720 in prize money at the two-day event, believed to be the largest single-breed dairy show in the West.

Venereal Disease Funds Approved

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Board of Supervisors approved a $71,735 emergency appropriation yesterday to fight a venereal disease epidemic termed "overwhelming" by Dr. Ellis Sox, city health director.

Cases at the VD clinic have more than doubled in three years—from 5,500 in 1963 to 11,500 last year—and present case loads indicate 6 per cent of the city's residents 15 to 45 years old are infected.

Sox said he will use the additional money to hire 13 more employes, including three full-time physicians.

Shoreline Ridge Proposal Held Attempt At Isolation

Any proposal to reroute Route 1 (Shoreline Highway) to the top of Bolinas Ridge is an attempt to "isolate Stinson Beach and Bolinas" and choke off development of these communities, Planning Commissioner Hugh Dougherty of Stinson Beach angrily charged yesterday.

He spoke during the commission's discussion of possible rerouting of Shoreline Highway, which now meanders along the coastline through the communities of Bolinas and Stinson Beach.

Planning Director Paul C. Zucker tacked a map on the wall to show alternate routings for Shoreline. One follows in general the present coastal route, and the other would be along the ridges.

"If the road is to be shifted to Ridgecrest, it would cut off Bolinas and Stinson Beach," Dougherty declared. He said he does not consider it proper planning to use a road location to control population.

"If you want to change the West Marin Master Plan and cut Bolinas and Stinson Beach population down, then say so. Lay the cards on the table."

The commission set Oct. 16 for a hearing on possible rerouting of Shoreline. Dougherty tried to get the commission to delete any discussion of the ridge route, which would bypass Stinson Beach and Bolinas, but was outvoted 3 to 2.

Mrs. Margaret Azevedo voted with him, but Commissioners Eugene R. Trombley, Niels Schultz Jr. and Walter F. Freitas voted to include the alternate ridge route for discussion on Oct. 16.

Varied Action Taken On Tiburon Streets

Tiburon City Council last night authorized preliminary engineering on one street improvement project, approved another conditionally and canceled a third.

The council, Gordon W. Strawbridge, absent, approved the windening of Esperanza Street, for $7,000, including engineering cost of $950.

Councilmen balked at a posposal to extend Esperanza Street to Mar West, at cost of $20,200, including engineering of $2,000. Councilman Branwell D. Fanning felt that "creating a new street" should be looked at by the planning commission.

Approval of the project was given with the condition that it also meet the commission's approval.

Construction of a sidewalk on Tiburon Boulevard was put off until a discussion on drainage could take place later in the meeting. Councilman William R. Bremer said he wouldn't vote on the sidewalk until the drainage problem was settled.

PROPOSED ROAD

A proposed connection from Linda Vista to Paradise Drive drew objections from citizens in the audience. Milton McDonogh said the proposed road would go through his Paradise Drive lot and he didn't want it condemned.

Next-door neighbor David L. Teather also objected to the road construction, as did Elmo De Martini representing property owners on Vista Del Mar Lane, north of the proposed road.

Kenneth Lamott, who lives on Linda Vista, said opening the street would make traffic "hazardous."

Councilmen Thomas E. Drohan and Bremer favored dropping the project because of the neighborhood objections and it was canceled, freeing the budget allocation "for other use, to be designated later."

NEXT MONDAY

The council made a date for next Monday to meet with representatives of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad and the Tiburon Peninsula Co. and discuss a use permit for a waterfront parking lot.

Mayor John S. Hoffmire said the time and place will be announced later after he has talked with representatives of the railroad.

Jail Term Set On Disturbance

Claude B. Burton, 22-year-old Marin City convicted Aug. 23 of felony assault on a police officer, yesterday pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court to misdemeanor disturbance of the peace Aug. 4.

Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. gave him 90 days in county jail, to run concurrently with a year he is serving for the assault on California Highway Patrolman Richard L. Myers.

Burton, also on five years probation for the assault, shouted obscenities at sheriff's officers in the Aug. 4 incident after they halted him for failing to stop at a stop sign.

A count of carrying a loaded pistol during the disturbance was dismissed yesterday by Judge Goldstein following the other plea.

Youth Is Arraigned On Contributing Case

Daniel Lee Temple, 20, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a misdemeanor complaint of contributing to the delinquency of a 15-year-old San Rafael High School girl.

Plea entry was scheduled for 10 a.m. Friday. Temple, of 33 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, was arrested by police after the girl, reported missing when she failed to appear at school Thursday, was found in his company.

King Ready For Jail After Appeal Fails

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) —Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., says he will go to jail "willingly and in clear conscience" following the U.S. Supreme Court's rejection of his appeal from a five-day sentence for a 1963 demonstration in Birmingham, Ala.

Informed of the court's refusal to reconsider its 5-4 decision of last June, King said in a statement yesterday the Supreme Court "turned its back on an appeal to reason and the most fundamental freedom that all Americans cherish."

Couple Come Home On Italian Freighter

By MOLLY MARIN

The Kenneth Logans of Sausalito came home Wednesday after almost five months in Europe. They flew to Copenhagen on May 15, where they picked up a car and drove 7,000 miles, mostly in France, Germany and Italy before going on to England, Scotland and Wales. They made the return trip from Genoa by Italian freighter through the Panama Canal, which was one of their most enjoyable experiences. The only big cities they visited for any length of time were London and Paris since they preferred to drive through the countryside. In Paris they were able to see many things they would not have found themselves through the help of the De La Ferriers, former Sausalito residents, who live there. Especially memorable experiences were the French Alps, the little walled cities in Germany and the castles and two weeks' on the Italian Riviera.

MR. AND MRS. Floyd Gallegos of Corte Madera are vacationing at the Emerald Beach Plantation in Nassau, the Bahamas.

SPENDING A few days at Del Monte Lodge in Pebble Beach were Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Cain of Greenbrae, Floyd R. Gilman of Ross and R. M. Lee of San Rafael.

MRS. C. I. Dennis of Mill Valley resumed entertaining and social activities after a long illness by inviting a group from Mill Valley and Sausalito to a champagne party Thursday before the Outdoor Art Club's fashion luncheon.

VISITING HER sister Mrs. I. N. Jessen of San Rafael is Yvonne Spurway of Harrow, England.

HOUSE GUEST OF Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boat of Tiburon is Mrs. Boat's sister, Mrs. Ralph Harrington of St. Louis, Mo. The visitor was entertained at a dinner party at the Bruce Keppels' home in Paradise Cove.

MRS. LEE V. HOLMAN of Sausalito entertained at an open house yesterday from 3 to 7 p.m. honoring her mother, Mrs. J. F. Somers, who is visiting her from Stoke-In-Teignhead, Devon, England. Also a guest of honor will be Mrs. Holman's sister, Jillian Somers, who is arriving tonight from London, where she is employed by BOAC. Among guests will be a group of friends Mrs. Somers met when she was in Tiburon ten years ago.

CELEBRATING THE third anniversary of the Women's Sailing Program at San Francisco Yacht Club, Belvedere, was the cocktail party Mrs. Paul Duggan gave aboard her power boat, "Shorne."

MRS. JOHN A. Lennon of Mill Valley was returned from a vacation at her former home in Greensboro, N.C., where she attended the wedding of a niece.

'All Seasons' Premiere Set

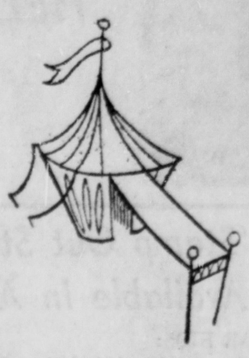
Proceeds from the benefit will go toward the establishment of a library in the new Newman Center, now situated at 850 College Avenue, Kentfield, in the former Guasco market. Tickets can be obtained from Mrs. Henry D. Eddy, ticket chairman, 37 Lagunitas Road, Ross. Checks are payable to the Interfaith Fellowship.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Frank H. Abbott III. Mrs. Edwin G. Weed is in charge of theater arrangements: Mrs. Martin O'Brien, publicity; Mrs. A. Crawford Greene, Jr., posters; Mrs. Edward T. Roddy, telephone committee.

Among others who are active in promoting this event are Mesdames Robert D. Bowen, John H. Campion, Robert Clarke, E. V. Cliff, Walter Del Tredici, Ernest M. Heckscher, Alex E. Jean, Russell D. Keil, Gerrit Nagtegaal, J. J. Nicholson, Merritt Robinson, E. M. Shanley, Henry E. Skinner, Babcock Smith, William Vizzard and Eugene A. Yates.

The Interfaith Fellowship is ecumenical in character, as is the Newman Center, which has a Protestant as well as a Catholic chaplain, and membership in the fellowship is open to people of all faiths.



Chairman of the fellowship is Mrs. William P. Muller. Other officers are Mrs. Eddy, vice chairman, Mrs. Harris C. Kirk, recording secretary; Mrs. Abbott, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Robert Bowen, treasurer.

Mrs. Walter Carter Scout Coordinator

Mrs. Walter Carter, well-known in Marin County for her 20 years service in Girl Scouting, is newly appointed Marin County Field Coordinator of the San Francisco Bay Girl Scout Council. She will serve as a liaison between the board of directors and the Marin County Association chairmen. She will officially represent the Girl Scouts in community affairs.

Four daughters keyed her interest in scouting. The youngest, Debbi, a freshman at Marin Catholic, is in Cadette Troop 1972. The other three are married and have completed all the scouting ranks. As a family they spent summers camping in the Sierra.

Many times a troop leader, twice director of Treasure Mountain High Sierra Girl Scout Camp at Truckee, camp director of Sky Oaks, round up trainer, leader trainer and out-of-doors trainer all qualify Mrs. Carter for her present volunteer assignment.

Other interests include the Marin Catholic Mothers' Club, participation in the newly organized Interfaith Association of Newman Center at the College of Marin, as well as tennis, swimming, bowling, bridge, sewing and reading.

MRS. WALTER CARTER

As a University of California graduate she majored in psychology and did graduate work in social welfare.

Theater Benefit

"An Afternoon at the Theater," the second phase of the Seminary Burse program, is launched by the Catholic Daughters of America. Mrs. Samuel Irving, grand regent of Court St. Agnes 1428 in Fairfax announces that tickets are now available for the matinee on Nov. 12, when ACT will present the "Thieves Carnival" at the Geary Theater in San Francisco. Mrs. Edmond Bruschini is ticket chairman.

Northgate Group To Sponsor Annual Table Decor And Tea

Northgate Group of the Marin Art and Garden Center will present its Table Decor and Tea on Oct. 18 in celebration of its 20th birthday.

Mrs. Robert H. Berry, president, and Mrs. Franklin T. Dettner, chairman of the Table Decor, said more than 40 tables will be on display from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Affiliated groups of the center will also participate.

In the Frances Young Gallery the settings will be coordinated with the Marin Society of Artists' 40th annual exhibition. Tables in the Antique Shop and patio will reflect its objets d'art.

ASSISTING THE chairman will be Mrs. Roger Sheridan and Mrs. Donald Smith. Mrs. Joseph J. Nicholson is ticket chairman and Mrs. Winthrop P. Watrous is program chairman. Mesdames John Dowling and Joseph Minutoli are in charge of properties, and chairmen of the tea are Mesdames William W. Cole and William Hoxie, with Mrs. Donald C. Perry arranging the tea table with a birthday theme. Other chairmen are Mrs. Harding McPhun, hostesses; and Mrs. H. Reed Volin, publicity. Mesdames Evan Goldenberg and Mat Palacio will make posters.

Among the tables in the gallery will be one set by Mrs. Emmet L. Rixford of Marin Music Chest. Mrs. William Haney will do "Breakfast at Tiffany's," and Mrs. Rafael G. Dufficy and Mrs. Frank A. Barsocchini have "Grandmother Comes to Tea." "Before-Theater Dinner" will be done by Mrs. Samuel Royal of the Ross Valley Players. Mesdames Russell G. Smith and Harold N. Hanson will display Damascene from Syria. Mrs. S. K. Herzog and Mrs. Edward W. Detrick are arranging a "Safari for Two," and Mrs. S. Robert Farley goes "Big Game Hunting." Mrs. Edgar J. Garbarini uses greens and purples in "Junior Partner," and rose and pink will be the "Spring Tea" of Mrs. Sebastian J. Cimino. Mrs. Calvin Ross will design a setting for the Garden Society of Marin.

Mrs. Melvin J. Duncan will highlight an old tea set in "Strawberry Christmas." Silver pale yellows and greens is the choice of Mrs. Robert M. Lee in "After Nine," and Mrs. Dan J. Sweeney uses black and white in an "After Theater Supper."

The Marin Society of Artists delegated Mrs. Fred Meyer to set a "Curry" table, and the Mesdames Winston J. Jones and Dion Ramsey-Raisin have "Harvest Moon" in mind. Mrs. Fred Herrington will be using Hawaiian objects for her "Love in Bloom," and a "Hearts and Flowers" will be carried out by Mrs. James E. Egger.

Tables will be set by Mrs. Frederick S. Allen and Mrs. Melville R. Baruh, and Mrs. Paul Scott Foster Jr. will compose a "Bird Watchers Lunch" for the Marin Garden Club.

"Mission Impossible" will be by Mrs. Gilbert Wheat, and dramatic settings by Mrs. Robert E. Moran of the Junior Theater.

THE MAGNOLIA Room will have table settings from "Around the World," by Mesdames Kenneth K. Bechtel, Roger Sheridan, Willard L. Frier, George V. Leftwich, Hugh Middleton and Lewis J. Kerlin. Others are Mesdames Curtis S. Knowles, Floyd G. Gilman, Norman J. Paterson, Glenn E. Parrott and

'BANKING ON YOU'

Symphony Foundation Begins Drive

The Wells Fargo Bank at Northgate was the setting yesterday for the kick-off in Marin County of the San Francisco Symphony Foundation's drive for new members.

"Banking On You" is the theme coined by workers throughout the Bay Area to keynote this year's effort to mint new members. Memberships not only insure the future of the San Francisco Symphony, but will pay musical dividends in the county.

The San Francisco Symphony will perform at the College of Marin on Jan. 27, and school children will attend two San Francisco Symphony young people's concerts on the morning and afternoon of Feb. 8.

Membership in the foundation entitles the investor to two tickets to the reception-dance for members of the orchestra, which begins the symphony season in January, admittance for the entire family to two rehearsals on Saturday afternoons, two tickets to the spring concert which features the young scholarship winners of the symphony's auditions program.

Marin County workers have been organized into area teams of 10 members by drive chairman Mrs. Allan Thompson of Tiburon and her assistant, Mrs. William Cavalier Jr. of Ross.

Volunteers Celebrate A Decade

Ross Hospital Volunteer Service today celebrated a decade of community service with a luncheon and installation at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant in San Rafael.

The volunteers were organized at the suggestion of Dr. Joseph J. Arons, who spoke at today's meeting. Mrs. Edwin Christie of San Rafael, was installed president for a second term, and a 5,000 hour pin was given to volunteer director, Mrs. F. O. Standring, who was elected executive vice president.

Because of her major contribution to the success of the volunteer's workshop, Mrs. Robert Cortopassi of San Rafael was honored as volunteer of the year.

Special guests were four original members of the volunteers who are still active, Mesdames George Sheppard, Ross; Howard Hetzer, Fairfax; John Gaylord, San Anselmo; and John Allen, Ross.

Other officers installed were Mesdames Coulter McKeever, vice president, orientation; Harold Collin, vice president, ways and means; Robert Cortopassi, recording secretary; Howard Hetzner, corresponding secretary; Carl Carlsen, treasurur; and K. L. Carmichael, publicity.

Dr. John C. Siemens, administrator Ross Hospital, presented volunteer awards including hour awards: 4,000 hours, Mrs. Edwin Christie; 2,000 hours, Mesdames Walter Carroll, James Bonner and George Sheppard; 1,000 hours, Mesdames Oscar Baan, Harold Collin, Robert Cortopassi, Miss Gertrude Kent and Mrs. Tyler Seeley; 500 hours, Miss Ruth Mason and Mrs. Robert Rodden; 100 hours Mesdames Raymond Dallara, Gene Hymanson, William Manuel, Alfred Perlin and Kermit Speeg.

'Stamp Out Steadying' Buttons Available In A Limited Supply

DEAR KIDS:

S. O. S. (STAMP OUT STEADYING) buttons are ready!

The first batch of big, colorful, eye-catching S.O.S. buttons just reached me and we will distribute them to early takers. Act fast! The supply is limited.

The cost? Rock-bottom. We ask only that you send 10 cents to cover handling charges.

For faster service, address your letters to:

HELEN'S S.O.S. CLUB,
Sacramento, California, 95822

Enclose with your money — your name, address and zip code number, printed plainly on a piece of paper.

Allow three weeks for delivery.

Again, let me say: S.O.S. is an idea originated by young people. I'll give you no rules for forming local clubs, but hope you button wearers will organize. You could have much fun, what with dances, parties, a fund-raising drive or two — and maybe a "so-long" party every six months, for the drop-outs who have turned their buttons upside down.

I'll be happy to print S.O.S. Club news from time to time, so please let me know how you're making out . . . no pun intended. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

When the kids first talked about "Stamp Out Steadying" I was dead set against it. But four months later I'm all for it!

I went steady with a boy for six months. At first it was wonderful — I had the boy all the other girls wanted, all for myself! Then he got possessive — I wasn't supposed to be interested in anything but him. And I got jealous every time he kidded with another girl. We both expected much too much of each other, but resented those feelings in the other too. After much pain, I finally woke up. I broke up with him about three weeks ago, and the first week was miserable. I'll be honest — I was afraid to be dateless on Saturday nights. But the second week I discovered all the fun I'd been missing, and the third week was a ball.

Just think: kidding around with the fellas; having a choice of who I go out with; not being tied down; being able to change my mind about liking a boy without the big renunciation scene.

I still date my ex-steady occasionally, but now he doesn't expect too much. He doesn't have a hundred hands any more, with the excuse, "Well, we're going steady, why not?"

Helen, I'm your number one fan for "Stamp Out Steadying." —FREE AND HAPPY

DEAR HELEN:

I met a very nice boy two years ago, but I can't get it across I don't like him that well. I would love to be just friends, but he's very touchy and also persistent. He is with me so much that the other boys don't even try.

During high school I want to shop around and not be tied down. How can I shake a leg without putting a bruise on it? STUCK

DEAR STUCK:

BEFORE THE BABY COMES

Don't Wait—See The Doctor

Second in a 10-part series on care during pregnancy for a healthy child and mother, written by Virginia Apgar, M.D. for the National Foundation, March of Dimes.

Go, Mother, Go!

Go to see a doctor. See your own doctor, if you have one. Or go to the maternity clinic of the hospital. Or go to a health department clinic. Go wherever there is a doctor and go — fast! This is the time when even a perfect stranger, if he's a doctor, is the most important man in your life.

Drop whatever you are doing. Skip the housework. Skip the usual talk with friends, family or the woman next door, even if she has two children or seven. If you're working, take time off; you'll never find a better reason.

What's the big rush? Because even before you suspect that you're expecting, the baby is forming with amazing speed. It may be only a quarter of an inch long, but its spine and brain and heart are shaping up. Legs and arms will soon develop. How well you take care of yourself in those early days has a lot to do with how that tiny body develops.

And there's another reason. You're very special. And the doctor must know exactly what is so special about you. Things he can find out only by examining you. If you are going to give the world a brand-new baby, he has to see if your "house" is in order.

FIRST OF ALL, he'll want to know when you had your last period.

LAST OF ALL, he'll tell you when to come back again — if your examination proves that you really are going to have a baby.

IN BETWEEN, here are some of the things you may expect:

You'll be weighed. The doctor (or a nurse) will take you blood pressure. You'll be asked for a specimen of your urine. A sample of blood will be taken. That blood will be examined in tests that tell many things about your health.

The doctor will examine your eyes, ears, nose, throat and teeth. He will listen to your heart-beat. He will examine your chest and your breasts.

He will examine your abdomen and your pelvis. This will not be painful, and the doctor must examine the "home" of the baby and the passage by which it will come out into the world.

YOU WILL THINK that nobody ever asked you so many questions about your life before. Chances are, nobody ever has. You will be asked to tell almost the whole history of your life—at least, the history of your body, from childhood.

The doctor, or the person who makes out his records, will want to know if you had "growing pains." If you had any contagious diseases. If you ever had measles, or scarlet fever, or diptheria, or polio, or pneumonia, or rheumatic fever. You'll be asked if you ever had your tonsils out, or any other operation — if you were ever in an accident.

Your baby is made out of you — and the baby's father. So the doctor will ask about his father's health. Even about your parents' health — and your husband's parents! Sometimes the doctor will want to know about brothers and sisters, uncles, aunts and cousins! Tell him all you know, or can find out.

He might ask other questions. Just answer them as well as you can. He is asking them for your sake.

Luncheon, Bazaar Oct. 17

The annual luncheon and bazaar of Tamalpais Temple 129, Pythian Sisters, will be held Oct. 17 at Odd Fellows Temple in San Rafael.

Mrs. Joe Whiteley, chairman, announced that luncheon hours will be 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

'Stamp Out Steadying' Buttons Available In A Limited Supply

DEAR KIDS:

S. O. S. (STAMP OUT STEADYING) buttons are ready!

The first batch of big, colorful, eye-catching S.O.S. buttons just reached me and we will distribute them to early takers. Act fast! The supply is limited.

The cost? Rock-bottom. We ask only that you send 10 cents to cover handling charges.

HELEN'S S.O.S. CLUB,
Sacramento, California, 95822

Enclose with your money — your name, address and zip code number, printed plainly on a piece of paper.

Allow three weeks for delivery.

Again, let me say: S.O.S. is an idea originated by young people. I'll give you no rules for forming local clubs, but hope you button wearers will organize. You could have much fun, what with dances, parties, a fund-raising drive or two — and maybe a "so-long" party every six months, for the drop-outs who have turned their buttons upside down.

I'll be happy to print S.O.S. Club news from time to time, so please let me know how you're making out . . . no pun intended. —H.

Mary Lynne Feerick Plans December Rite In Mission

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan A. Feerick of San Rafael have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lynne, to Jeffrey Alan Chapman formerly of San Rafael.

The bride-elect is the sister of John Feerick of Petaluma, Mrs. Joaquin Gallardo and Frances and Theresa Feerick, all of San Rafael. They are the grandchildren of Mrs. Frances Feerick of San Francisco and Mrs. Jane Krieger of San Rafael.

Mary is a Terra Linda High School graduate and attended University of California, College of Marin and Chico State College. She is employed with Syufy Enterprises in San Francisco.

Jeff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chapman of Napa, formerly of San Rafael, and the brother of JoAnn Chapman of Mill Valley and Jack Chapman Jr. of Berkeley. He was graduated from Terra Linda High School and attended College of Marin.

The future bridegroom is with Midwestern Welding at the Kaiser Steel plant in Napa. Following the Dec. 2 nuptials planned at Mission San Rafael Arcangel, the couple will make their home in Napa.

Special Program

Members of Mill Valley's Blythedale Rebekah Lodge 305 will be entertained at a special program by members of the Odd Fellow Lodge 399 Thursday following the 8 p.m. Blythedale Lodge meeting in the Odd Fellows hall. Chairman is Bernard Foster.

Newlyweds To Reside In Seattle

Saturday nuptials at St. Brendan's Catholic Church in San Francisco united in marriage Maureen Anne O'Connor of San Francisco and John Robert Grey III of Seattle.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Grey of Greenbrae.

Her sister, Kathleen O'Connor, was maid of honor and Marilyn McKee and Mrs. Jeffrey C. Ferguson were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were moss green satin.

A reception was held at the Olympic Club afterward.

The couple will live in Seattle, where the bridegroom is attending University of Washington graduate school of business and is employed with King Broadcasting Co. He is a Redwood High School and Stanford University graduate.

Maureen was educated at Mercy High School in San Francisco and was graduated this year from Stanford University. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barone of Fairfax are her grandparents.

Mrs. George Hayford is toastmistress and Mrs. Max English is assigned to table topics.

Mesdames Lawrence Coleman and William Harris will give five minute speeches and Mesdames John Machado, Harvey Simpkins and Carola Hutcherson will also participate.

DISCRIMINATION?

Tradition Bars Woman From Becoming Yeoman On Vessel

By JOY MILLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Women's work is never done—especially in their efforts to get jobs customarily held by men.

Pauline Dziob, a stewardess aboard the Moore-McCormack Lines passenger vessel Argentina, is fighting for the job of yeoman, which pays much better. The blonde Roselle, N.J., woman says a union official told her yeoman's work was men's work.

"They'll let us be waitresses, stewardesses and child attendants on passenger ships—and that's it," says Miss Dziob (pronounced Jobe). She is taking on the National Maritime Union and a steamship line in her battle to be certified a yeoman.

A stewardess and dues-paying union member for 19 years, Miss Dziob who is 40, says "Well, women on land do pretty well as clerk-typists, and that's what a yeoman is. I think any woman—or man, too—who is qualified should be able to take the position."

PAULINE DZIOB

Her charges of discrimination filed against the union and Moore-McCormack Lines are now being heard by the New York State Commission for Human Rights. She has also filed charges with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

She says that last December, while serving as a stewardess on a cruise aboard Moore-McCormack's S.S. Argentina, she was promoted to yeoman to take care of a vacancy they had been unable to fill with a man.

But, she charges, although she is an experienced typist and her work was found satisfactory, she was kicked back to stewardess rating nine days later while still at sea. A stewardess' pay is $159 a month less than a yeoman's, she says.

"They replaced me with an 18-year-old boy without experience who quit two weeks later to go back to school."

Unable to get a yeoman's certificate of discharge at the cruise's end, the 5-foot-9 stewardess says she was told by a union official that "women cannot work as yeomen because it is a male position."

Jean Faust, national president of Organization for Women's New York area chapter, which is backing her, says: "Pauline Dziob may make history as the woman who proved finally that blatant discrimination based upon sex is as illegal and intolerable as discrimination based upon race or religion."

'Brunch For Boyd'

"Brunch for Boyd" is the theme of the Terra Linda Guild of the Louise Boyd Museum's coffee and brunch on Oct. 19 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Leighton in Terra Linda.

Church Women Plan Luncheon

United Presbyterian Women of the Novato Presbyterian Church will have a luncheon meeting at 1:45 a.m. Oct. 18 at the church in Novato.

"Reconciliation, a word of depth and richness" will be the theme for the seventh study program for 1967.

Mrs. Al Suneson is chairman and will be assisted by Mesdames John Catlin and Mark Wills, as co-chairmen.

Mrs. Don Estler will lead the devotion, Mrs. E. C. Leigon is reservations chairman. The Martha Circle will serve lunch.

PLANNING TO WED Dec. 9 in Las Vegas are Barbara Jean Autrey of Roswell, N.M., and Frank A. Hinkley of Hobbs, N.M., formerly of Sausalito.

Frank Hinkley Will Claim Bride In December Ceremony

The engagement of Barbara Jean Autrey of Roswell, N.M., and Frank A. Hinkley of Hobbs, N.M., formerly of Sausalito, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin W. Autrey.

Barbara is the sister of James Glenn Autrey of Roswell and attends Texas Technical College in Lubbock.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hinkley of Kentfield and the brother of Jean Hinkley of Sausalito and Carol Hinkley of Kentfield. He attended Sir Francis Drake and Redwood High Schools and is a graduate of University of Oregon where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Frank is employed as sales representative with Levi Strauss and Co. in Hobbs.

The couple will wed on Dec. 9 at Las Vegas.

Mary Lynne Feerick Plans December Rite In Mission

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan A. Feerick of San Rafael have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lynne, to Jeffrey Alan Chapman formerly of San Rafael.

The bride-elect is the sister of John Feerick of Petaluma, Mrs. Joaquin Gallardo and Frances and Theresa Feerick, all of San Rafael. They are the grandchildren of Mrs. Frances Feerick of San Francisco and Mrs. Jane Krieger of San Rafael.

Mary is a Terra Linda High School graduate and attended University of California, College of Marin and Chico State College. She is employed with Syufy Enterprises in San Francisco.

Jeff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chapman of Napa, formerly of San Rafael, and the brother of JoAnn Chapman of Mill Valley and Jack Chapman Jr. of Berkeley. He was graduated from Terra Linda High School and attended College of Marin.

The future bridegroom is with Midwestern Welding at the Kaiser Steel plant in Napa. Following the Dec. 2 nuptials planned at Mission San Rafael Arcangel, the couple will make their home in Napa.

Special Program

Members of Mill Valley's Blythedale Rebekah Lodge 305 will be entertained at a special program by members of the Odd Fellow Lodge 399 Thursday following the 8 p.m. Blythedale Lodge meeting in the Odd Fellows hall. Chairman is Bernard Foster.

Newlyweds To Reside In Seattle

Saturday nuptials at St. Brendan's Catholic Church in San Francisco united in marriage Maureen Anne O'Connor of San Francisco and John Robert Grey III of Seattle.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Grey of Greenbrae.

Her sister, Kathleen O'Connor, was maid of honor and Marilyn McKee and Mrs. Jeffrey C. Ferguson were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were moss green satin.

A reception was held at the Olympic Club afterward.

The couple will live in Seattle, where the bridegroom is attending University of Washington graduate school of business and is employed with King Broadcasting Co. He is a Redwood High School and Stanford University graduate.

Maureen was educated at Mercy High School in San Francisco and was graduated this year from Stanford University. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barone of Fairfax are her grandparents.

Conservation To Be Topic For Outdoor Art Club Meet

Conservation will be the topic for Thursday's home day meeting of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley following a 12:30 p.m. luncheon.

John Zierold, legislative advocate for the Planning and Conservation League in Sacramento, will speak on the league's purposes and achievements. He will tell what has been accomplished in the past year in legislation and what the league hopes to do this year.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, Mr. Zierold has a background in government relations. For three years he was consultant for the Hughes Aircraft Co. in international and governmental relations and for two years was an administrative assistant to Sen. Fred Farr.

Prior to his present position he served with the California Roadside Council.

Luncheon co-chairmen are Mesdames Robert Cook and Harold Jolley. They will be assisted by Mesdames Robert C. Moore, Edmund J. Mahon, Lawrence D. Pritchard and Norman Ortman Jr. Decorations chairman Mrs. Erling Michaelson will be assisted by Mrs. William Bacon.

Chapter To Give Flags To Troops

"Showing how to use and care for the flag of the United States of America" is the first requirement of the Girl Scout active citizen badge and will set the stage for the fall meeting of the Richardson Bay Girl Scout Association held tomorrow in Old Mill Park Amphitheater, as leaders of 10 Girl Scout troops will receive American flags from the El Marinero Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Assisting in the program with a review of flag etiquette, Sgt. James Lloyd, also offered troop program help through visual aides.

Mrs. Hilton J. Simon, regent and Mrs. Edward J. Ehmann, flag chairman of the DAR will present the flags to Mesdames George deUrioste, Troop 63 and Charles P. Semple, Troop 83 of Our Lady of Mount Carmel School, A. Walter Olson, Troop 295 and William Clute, Troop 406 of Bel Aire School, John Fraser, Troop 846 Park School, Mary Scott, Troop 979 and Earl Parker, Troop 989 of Marin City, and Jean Lasnier, Troop 1934, Takeshi Velasco, Troop 1965, and Bob L. Lee, Troop 1975 of Tamalpais Valley School.

New Time Set For Novato Workshop

The Novato Toastmistress Club will meet at a new time and place this week. Club members will meet at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the banquet room of Cloud 5 for the first fall workshop.

Mrs. George Hayford is toastmistress and Mrs. Max English is assigned to table topics.

Mesdames Lawrence Coleman and William Harris will give five minute speeches and Mesdames John Machado, Harvey Simpkins and Carola Hutcherson will also participate.

DISCRIMINATION?

Tradition Bars Woman From Becoming Yeoman On Vessel

By JOY MILLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Women's work is never done—especially in their efforts to get jobs customarily held by men.

Pauline Dziob, a stewardess aboard the Moore-McCormack Lines passenger vessel Argentina, is fighting for the job of yeoman, which pays much better. The blonde Roselle, N.J., woman says a union official told her yeoman's work was men's work.

"They'll let us be waitresses, stewardesses and child attendants on passenger ships—and that's it," says Miss Dziob (pronounced Jobe). She is taking on the National Maritime Union and a steamship line in her battle to be certified a yeoman.

A stewardess and dues-paying union member for 19 years, Miss Dziob who is 40, says "Well, women on land do pretty well as clerk-typists, and that's what a yeoman is. I think any woman—or man, too—who is qualified should be able to take the position."

PAULINE DZIOB

Her charges of discrimination filed against the union and Moore-McCormack Lines are now being heard by the New York State Commission for Human Rights. She has also filed charges with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

She says that last December, while serving as a stewardess on a cruise aboard Moore-McCormack's S.S. Argentina, she was promoted to yeoman to take care of a vacancy they had been unable to fill with a man.

But, she charges, although she is an experienced typist and her work was found satisfactory, she was kicked back to stewardess rating nine days later while still at sea. A stewardess' pay is $159 a month less than a yeoman's, she says.

"They replaced me with an 18-year-old boy without experience who quit two weeks later to go back to school."

Unable to get a yeoman's certificate of discharge at the cruise's end, the 5-foot-9 stewardess says she was told by a union official that "women cannot work as yeomen because it is a male position."

Jean Faust, national president of Organization for Women's New York area chapter, which is backing her, says: "Pauline Dziob may make history as the woman who proved finally that blatant discrimination based upon sex is as illegal and intolerable as discrimination based upon race or religion."

'Brunch For Boyd'

Church Women Plan Luncheon

United Presbyterian Women of the Novato Presbyterian Church will have a luncheon meeting at 1:45 a.m. Oct. 18 at the church in Novato.

"Reconciliation, a word of depth and richness" will be the theme for the seventh study program for 1967.

Mrs. Al Suneson is chairman and will be assisted by Mesdames John Catlin and Mark Wills, as co-chairmen.

Mrs. Don Estler will lead the devotion, Mrs. E. C. Leigon is reservations chairman. The Martha Circle will serve lunch.

PLANNING TO WED Dec. 9 in Las Vegas are Barbara Jean Autrey of Roswell, N.M., and Frank A. Hinkley of Hobbs, N.M., formerly of Sausalito.

Frank Hinkley Will Claim Bride In December Ceremony

The engagement of Barbara Jean Autrey of Roswell, N.M., and Frank A. Hinkley of Hobbs, N.M., formerly of Sausalito, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin W. Autrey.

Barbara is the sister of James Glenn Autrey of Roswell and attends Texas Technical College in Lubbock.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hinkley of Kentfield and the brother of Jean Hinkley of Sausalito and Carol Hinkley of Kentfield. He attended Sir Francis Drake and Redwood High Schools and is a graduate of University of Oregon where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Frank is employed as sales representative with Levi Strauss and Co. in Hobbs.

The couple will wed on Dec. 9 at Las Vegas.

FAST TALK NEEDED

When the bad guys of "Rough Night in Jericho" get the drop on good-guy Dean Martin, he has to try verbally to tame the toughs. The latest Western opens tomorrow at the Rafael Theater in San Rafael.

Mill Valley Canyon Park Cleanup Set

The Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission last night planned a combined operation by teen-agers and neighborhood residents to clean up and improve Ernstcliff Canyon, a wilderness park area bounded by Marion and Monte Vista avenues.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Wirt of 150 Monte Vista Avenue told the commission they would recruit neighbors for the project. Greg Anderson, student at Tamalpais High School, volunteered the services of Interact, an international boys' group organized for community service.

The park trails will be cleared, debris removed and bridges built. The commission tentatively set the project for 9 a.m. Oct. 21.

The commission again discussed location of a major play area and rest rooms for Boyle Park, but continued the discussion to the Nov. 13 meeting.

New commissioner Frank Collins, a park planner with the National Park Service, was seated for his first meeting.

Mill Valley Planners Ask Commute Protest

The commission asked the city council to act in opposition to the proposed increases, but left it up to the council what sort of action should be taken. Revival of the commuter club was mentioned as a possibility.

Increased fares, the commission felt, will encourage more use of cars and add to highway congestion.

The commission approved a master sign plan and landscaping and parking plans for the Shapiro Building at Miller and La Goma avenues, allowing 300 square feet of sign area to be apportioned among tenants in the building.

The commission then apa sign plan for one tenant, Norge Laundry Village, and rejected one for another tenant, Chicken Delight. Chicken Delight sought variance to allow two signs totaling 60 square feet. The commission ordered the two signs held to 36 square feet, consistent with the master plan.

The Mill Valley Planning Commission also:

701 — Asked the Army Corps of Engineers to attend the Oct. 23 meeting to discuss its proposal for development of Arroyo Corte Madera under the 701 plan. The commission deferred discussion of the 701 plan because other business took the meeting past 11 p.m.

GARAGE — Approved a use permit and plan review to allow Swedish Motors, Inc., to run a car sales and service business at 489 Miller Avenue, with the condition no cars be stored outside or parked outside in a state of disrepair.

REZONING — Recommended the city council rezone the Sunnycrest annexation in one-family residential and open area districts. The annexation, which will become final Nov. 1, includes an area bounded by Sunnycrest and Lonetree avenues, Mono and King's ways, Edgewood Avenue and Sequoia Valley Road.

ZONING — Recommended the council retain professional-administrative zoning for the area northwest of East Blithedale Avenue and Camino Alto, instead of rezoning to commercial or multi-family residential.

Novatan Listed As Runaway

Brian James Cunningham, 15, was listed today by Novato police as a runaway from his home at 8 Carmen Court.

His father, Ralph Francis Cunningham, 49, reported the boy missing when he failed to come home after school yesterday.

Brian was described as five feet, 11 inches tall, weighing 150 pounds with brown hair and blue eyes. He was wearing green pants, navy blue shirt, pale blue sweater and desert boots.

Still missing is Valarie Lynn Carnejo, 15, of 1126 Farris Drive, Novato, who has been gone since Saturday, according to police.

Strawberry Channel Bids Due For Action Tomorrow

The Strawberry Recreation District board will act tomorrow night at an adjourned meeting on two bids for dredging of Strawberry Channel.

The meeting at 8 p.m. at Strawberry Point School follows failure of the board to act on the bids at last Wednesday's meeting, Jean Heick, board clerk, reported yesterday.

In the meeting Wednesday, board members obligated the entire district for $3,000 for dredging of the channel, which will actually affect a special assessment zone of 19 homes involved in the $23,000 bond election last spring.

Mrs. Heick said that a change order was received from Shellmaker, San Francisco, which eliminated some of the jobs originally scheduled under the bid of $31,008, reducing it by $11,608 to $19,400. This brought the formerly higher bid below one from Podesta of San Francisco, for $26,630.

Since the change order had not been properly signed, the board delayed action, Mrs. Heick said.

She reported the board gave no explanation for the anticipated extra costs above the bonded indebtedness, when it decided that up to $3,000 would be paid by the entire district.

She said one reason for the board's decision was that one point of land in the special zone is public and that any resident of the district could use it to launch a small boat.

In an election Wednesday Arthur R. Senter was named chairman; James L. Andrews, vice chairman; new member James Garner, secretary. George Lopes remains the property manager.

Senter succeeds Clarence Bush, whose resignation was accepted Wednesday. A recommendation to the board of supervisors for another director to replace Bush, who has moved away, was also continued to the meeting tomorrow, Mrs. Heick said, as the board reached no agreement.

Guitar Concert Set

Glen Carlson of San Rafael will give a guitar concert at 8 p.m. Oct. 19 at the Mill Valley Public Library gallery. Admission is free.

New Hampshire established a fish and game department in 1865, first of its kind in New England.

Battery Charge Is Dismissed

Motion of dismissal of a charge of felony battery on a police officer was granted in Marin Superior Court yesterday in the case of David Barrows, 22, of Marin City.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson said there was insufficient evidence against Barrows to try him. A co-defendant, Frederick Washington, 21, was denied the same motion, however, and plea entry scheduled for Oct. 23.

Washington, of 409 Drake Avenue, is accused of assaulting Sheriff's Deputy L. T. Thrall on Aug. 17 after the officer cited him for a traffic violation. Barrows, of 915 Drake Avenue, was accused of striking Deputy Angelo Mecchi in an argument after Washington's arrest.

Pupils' Columbus Essays Rewarded

Michael Haas of 2039 Leese Lane, Novato, a seventh grade pupil at Our Lady of Loretto School in Novato, Friday won a $25 savings bond as first place in the annual Columbus Day essay contest sponsored by the Novato Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Michlene Wojciesak of 1125 First Street, Novato, an eighth grade pupil at the school, won $10 as second place.

"Compare the achievements of Columbus to modern day explorers," was the subject of the contest which drew 38 entries from the seventh and eighth grades at the school.

Movie Will Benefit Interfaith Group

The opening night showing of the award-winning movie "A Man for All Seasons" at the Northgate Theater Nov. 1 will be for the benefit of the Interfaith Fellowship, newly formed auxiliary to the Newman Center at the College of Marin.

Proceeds from the benefit, scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m., will go toward establishing a library at the center. Tickets are obtainable from Mrs. Henry D. Eddy of Lagunitas Road, Ross.

Art Display

Recent works of Mill Valley artist Betty Klopf are currently on display through Oct. 26 at Gallery III, 69 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera. Exhibition hours are from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday.

701 — Asked the Army Corps of Engineers to attend the Oct. 23 meeting to discuss its proposal for development of Arroyo Corte Madera under the 701 plan. The commission deferred discussion of the 701 plan because other business took the meeting past 11 p.m.

GARAGE — Approved a use permit and plan review to allow Swedish Motors, Inc., to run a car sales and service business at 489 Miller Avenue, with the condition no cars be stored outside or parked outside in a state of disrepair.

REZONING — Recommended the city council rezone the Sunnycrest annexation in one-family residential and open area districts. The annexation, which will become final Nov. 1, includes an area bounded by Sunnycrest and Lonetree avenues, Mono and King's ways, Edgewood Avenue and Sequoia Valley Road.

ZONING — Recommended the council retain professional-administrative zoning for the area northwest of East Blithedale Avenue and Camino Alto, instead of rezoning to commercial or multi-family residential.

Novatan Listed As Runaway

Brian James Cunningham, 15, was listed today by Novato police as a runaway from his home at 8 Carmen Court.

His father, Ralph Francis Cunningham, 49, reported the boy missing when he failed to come home after school yesterday.

Brian was described as five feet, 11 inches tall, weighing 150 pounds with brown hair and blue eyes. He was wearing green pants, navy blue shirt, pale blue sweater and desert boots.

Still missing is Valarie Lynn Carnejo, 15, of 1126 Farris Drive, Novato, who has been gone since Saturday, according to police.

Strawberry Channel Bids Due For Action Tomorrow

The Strawberry Recreation District board will act tomorrow night at an adjourned meeting on two bids for dredging of Strawberry Channel.

The meeting at 8 p.m. at Strawberry Point School follows failure of the board to act on the bids at last Wednesday's meeting, Jean Heick, board clerk, reported yesterday.

In the meeting Wednesday, board members obligated the entire district for $3,000 for dredging of the channel, which will actually affect a special assessment zone of 19 homes involved in the $23,000 bond election last spring.

Mrs. Heick said that a change order was received from Shellmaker, San Francisco, which eliminated some of the jobs originally scheduled under the bid of $31,008, reducing it by $11,608 to $19,400. This brought the formerly higher bid below one from Podesta of San Francisco, for $26,630.

Since the change order had not been properly signed, the board delayed action, Mrs. Heick said.

She reported the board gave no explanation for the anticipated extra costs above the bonded indebtedness, when it decided that up to $3,000 would be paid by the entire district.

She said one reason for the board's decision was that one point of land in the special zone is public and that any resident of the district could use it to launch a small boat.

In an election Wednesday Arthur R. Senter was named chairman; James L. Andrews, vice chairman; new member James Garner, secretary. George Lopes remains the property manager.

Senter succeeds Clarence Bush, whose resignation was accepted Wednesday. A recommendation to the board of supervisors for another director to replace Bush, who has moved away, was also continued to the meeting tomorrow, Mrs. Heick said, as the board reached no agreement.

Guitar Concert Set

Glen Carlson of San Rafael will give a guitar concert at 8 p.m. Oct. 19 at the Mill Valley Public Library gallery. Admission is free.

New Hampshire established a fish and game department in 1865, first of its kind in New England.

Battery Charge Is Dismissed

Motion of dismissal of a charge of felony battery on a police officer was granted in Marin Superior Court yesterday in the case of David Barrows, 22, of Marin City.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson said there was insufficient evidence against Barrows to try him. A co-defendant, Frederick Washington, 21, was denied the same motion, however, and plea entry scheduled for Oct. 23.

Washington, of 409 Drake Avenue, is accused of assaulting Sheriff's Deputy L. T. Thrall on Aug. 17 after the officer cited him for a traffic violation. Barrows, of 915 Drake Avenue, was accused of striking Deputy Angelo Mecchi in an argument after Washington's arrest.

Pupils' Columbus Essays Rewarded

Michael Haas of 2039 Leese Lane, Novato, a seventh grade pupil at Our Lady of Loretto School in Novato, Friday won a $25 savings bond as first place in the annual Columbus Day essay contest sponsored by the Novato Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Michlene Wojciesak of 1125 First Street, Novato, an eighth grade pupil at the school, won $10 as second place.

"Compare the achievements of Columbus to modern day explorers," was the subject of the contest which drew 38 entries from the seventh and eighth grades at the school.

Movie Will Benefit Interfaith Group

The opening night showing of the award-winning movie "A Man for All Seasons" at the Northgate Theater Nov. 1 will be for the benefit of the Interfaith Fellowship, newly formed auxiliary to the Newman Center at the College of Marin.

Proceeds from the benefit, scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m., will go toward establishing a library at the center. Tickets are obtainable from Mrs. Henry D. Eddy of Lagunitas Road, Ross.

Art Display

Recent works of Mill Valley artist Betty Klopf are currently on display through Oct. 26 at Gallery III, 69 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera. Exhibition hours are from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday.

Air Base Finds Few Refusals By Landlords

Only 5 Per Cent Of Marin Housing Bars Minorities

About 5 per cent of Marin landlords are refusing to rent their property to minority race servicemen from Hamilton Air Force Base, surveys show.

The base commander, Col. Charles Praul, said it's a good record, compared to other areas.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara ordered housing discrimination surveys at areas near military bases in California and Illinois on Sept. 6, after sanctions were ordered against discriminating landlords in the area of Andrew Air Force Base, Maryland.

RENTALS BARRED

Military personnel are not allowed to rent from landlords against whom sanctions are applied. Their properties may not be listed on base bulletin boards

Colonel Praul said high rents in Marin County, more often than racial discrimination, make it difficult for servicemen to rent.

He said that of 300 housing units checked from Mill Valley north in Marin County, about five per cent were found to be practicing discrimination.

The Sixth Army at the Presidio of San Francisco checked rental housing in Southern Marin. The percentages were about the same. The Sixth Army also checked 1,066 housing units in Western San Francisco, found that 94 per cent had no discrimination.

BAY AREA SURVEY

The Twelfth Naval District at Treasure Island is in charge of the housing discrimination survey for the entire Bay Area and has checked 213,756 units. It found that 148,638, about 70 per cent, were open to all races. The remaining 30 per cent, said the Twelfth Naval District, were divided into landlords who might change their minds, would not change their minds, or would not discuss their rental housing with the military.

Hamilton Air Force Base has 2,000 personnel living off base, 4,700 living on base, at Raphael Village.

PRICES HIGH

"Many of our people must find housing in Vallejo, Sonoma, Petaluma and Santa Rosa, because they cannot afford the rents in Marin County," said Colonel Praul.

He said Hamilton Air Force base has had a discrimination check on landlords for many years. It is kept by Family Service volunteers, who refuse to list a landlord's property if he will not rent to minority people.

The Air Force says it does not keep records of how many of its people are members of minority groups.

Praul said one of the problems of servicemen not finding rentals they can afford near Hamilton, is the distance they must commute. The military are not allowed to live more than 45 minutes commuting time from the base, said Colonel Praul.

Fairfax Teen-Ager Enjoys Europe Tour On Crutches

By JOHN F. KEARNEY

Dorothy Starr, 19, has been handicapped since birth but she is far from thinking the world is about to come to an end.

On the contrary, Dorothy is back at her Fairfax home this week after touring a large slice of that world on crutches and in a wheelchair.

Paris, Rome, London, Lourdes — she took in all the sights and sounds of Europe accompanied only by a similarly handicapped friend, and a relative of the friend, who acted as a guide.

'GO ANYWHERE'

"People who are handicapped should realize they can go anywhere in the world they want to," she said at her home at 68 Park Road, surrounded by colored slides and other souvenirs.

A cerebral palsy victim, Dorothy can get about only by the use of crutches. "Frankly, I found my handicap no problem," she said, her face lighting into a smile. "There were times I even forgot I had crutches with me."

QUIT HER JOB

She had been so determined to see Europe she even quit her job as an office secretary to go on the month-long vacation.

"I talked it over with my friend and I was thrilled at this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity," she said. Her friend is Mrs. Mary Ward of Burlingame, who has had both legs amputated and is confined to a wheelchair.

Alone, they left San Francisco Sept. 1 for Kansas City, Mo., where they were joined by Mrs. Ward's cousin, Mrs. Joseph Engel, before leaving for Paris.

'ALL THESE STEPS'

In the French capital, the cousin drove them around in a rented car before they went on to Lourdes and then to Rome by air.

"I fell in love with Rome," said Dorothy," . . . but all those steps."

"Ordinary people ran to help us all the time," she said. "We'd stop for a moment at the bottom of a flight of steps and suddenly people would appear out of nowhere to carry us to the top." Dorothy, like her companion, used a wheelchair to get around the Roman streets.

Outside St. Peter's, five young men helped the two women negotiate the steps. Each man spoke a differenct language and none could understand English.

"They were just terrific," said Dorothy. "I just can't get over it. If people in government were as wonderful as the people we ment, there would be no wars."

Mrs. Engel showed them not only the tourist spots but also nooks off the beaten track. Often, they would buy their own food and have impromptu picnics in the sun.

At Lourdes, they were able to enter the pool and attend the many ceremonies. "It's very hard to explain it," she said, "but I think people who go there come back different persons."

Sifting through her many colored slides, she said: " I wouldn't have missed this trip for anything and I'm ready to do it all over again.

"I hope it goes to show many handicapped people that there is no need to sit around, thinking the world has come to an end. They can do anything or go anywhere," she said.

Airport Plans Revised To Ease Ditch Danger

Changes have been made in the plans for the Marin County Airport at Novato to try to eliminate the danger from steep open ditches on the sides of the main runway, Donald Frost, county public works director, said today.

"The ditch on the east side of the runway has been moved out an additional 30 feet, making it 90 feet from the center of the runway," he said.

"Both it and the ditch between the runway and the taxiway on the south have been flattened out so that a plane could go in and out of them," Frost said.

Fliers at the airport complained that the new airport now under construction had such steep ditches beside the runway that they would be a hazard to flying, especially with a west wind.

The plans for the airport were altered since then and the board of supervisors voted an additional $6,000 for this work, Frost said.

"It meant extending the main drainage pipes from the runway another 30 feet to the east, and changing the slope of the ditches there," Frost said.

"Nobody ever felt that the ditch arrangement was ideal, but we had to work within the funds available," Frost said.

He said that the new plans and cost were worked out between the county and Brown-Ely Co. of San Rafael, the contractors.

He said that the original plans had met the known standards for airports. The Federal Aviation Agency had approved the plans.

"Someday more improvements will be made when funds are available," Frost said. The ditches will probably someday be piped and filled, he said.

The present addition of 30 feet of shoulder on the east side of the runway should be an improvement, he said.

Kentfield-Larkspur Pupil Swap Approved

The Kentfield School District board last night approved an agreement with the Larkspur School District for Kentfield to provide services for four educationally handicapped students from the Larkspur School District.

The board approved hiring five part-time classified employees, custodian Joseph Reade at $237.50 a month, noon supervisors Joseph Adams and Carol De Mattos at $2.25 an hour, noon supervisor Sylvia Thoeleck at $2 an hour and Clark Patterson for afternoon recreation, $2 an hour.

Fairgrounds Group Elects Interim Slate

Harold Stockstad of Marin City, who has been spearheading the organization of FAIR/MARIN, was elected chairman pro-tem at a meeting of delegates from some 90 organizations at the Civic Center last night.

NOMINATING PLAN

With majority consent, Chairman Stockstad named a five-man nominating committee to select directors for FAIR/MARIN Inc., which will operate the county fairgrounds at the Civic Center.

Byron W. Leydecker, former county supervisor and president of the Redwood National Bank, heads the nominating committee. Others are Rev. Charles B. Gompertz of San Rafael, Roy A. Ibach of Mill Valley, Mrs. Roger Kent of Kent Woodlands, and Mrs. Farrel L. Schell, president of the League of Women Voters of Central Marin.

SLATE DUE

The nominating committee will select a slate of prospective directors and present them at the next meeting, set for 8 p.m. Oct. 23 in the Civic Center. Nominations will be received from the floor at that meeting, and 14 persons picked by the delegates.

Marin County Board of Supervisors will then pick seven to serve as directors of FAIR/MARIN Inc.

A five-man committee headed by Fred F. Enemark of San Rafael was named by Chairman Stockstad to study the question of how to finance the Veterans Memorial Auditorium. This committee will also report back on Oct. 23.

Power Struggle Quelled At Prison

A power struggle between two San Quentin inmate factions erupted in violence in the prison's main yard today as 200 Negro prisoners fought each other reportedly for the "ownership" of a convict with a homosexual record.

Three inmates were wounded in the leg by gunshot blasts from the guards and another four were injured in the 20-minute fighting before the yard was cleared by 8 a.m.

"PROMPT ACTION"

"Without the prompt action of the prison officers, it could have developed into an all-out war," said Associate Warden James W. L. Park.

There were between 1,500 and 2,000 men in the main yard as fighting broke out about 7:40 a.m., he said.

On one side were the Black Muslims and on the other side the "Low Riders," or lower-class hoodlum outsiders, said Park.

"From what we learned, the quarrel was over a Negro homosexual who was about to be converted to the Black Muslim group," he said.

LOSS OF FACE

"We have these factions jostling for the leadership of the Negro inmates, and when one man joins in with the others it amounts to a loss of face on the part of the loosing group."

Park said he believed the fighting was spontaneous and grew from talks leaders of the two groups were having in the yard before the men were assigned to their various jobs.

Ten extra guards were rushed to the scene and fired warning shots over the heads of the inmates.

"Apparently, this didn't do the trick so the officers fired at the ground, injuring two inmates in the fleshy part of the lower leg and breaking the leg of another. The fighting broke up almost at once." None of the victims was seriously hurt.

BACK IN CELLS

About 40 of the fighting Negro inmates were put back in their cells "to allow tempers to cool down" before being questioned, said Park.

He said it was known to the authorities there was rivalry between the different Negro groups, which included the Muslims, the Low Riders and the prison's own "Black Power" advocates.

Today's outbreak of fighting, he said, was not a planned action to be compared with the race riot which erupted at the prison last January. No white prisoners were involved today, said Park.

Passenger's Scalp Cut In Accident

Marshall Parker, 22, of 365 Bretano Way, Greenbrae, a passenger in a car driven by Robert F. Parker, 28, of San Francisco, suffered a scalp cut when the car hit another vehicle at the Mission Street-Lincoln Avenue intersection in San Rafael at 11:21 p.m. Sunday.

He was treated at Marin General Hospital. Robert Parker and the driver of the second vehicle, Christian H. Bendtsen, 33, of Stanford, Conn., were uninjured.

Novato Western Weekend Debt Placed At $1,029

Novato's Western Weekend debt was set at $1,029 last night by Charles F. Douglas, treasurer, at the board meeting of Western Weekend Inc.

The debt is slowly being cut down by the payment of small amounts. Two firms had been overpaid by $14 and this was refunded, Douglas said.

The Novato Kiwanis Club last night pledged $150 to the corporation which puts on the annual celebration in Novato each summer, Douglas said.

The board discussed having a golf tournament or holding a pancake breakfast to raise funds towards the debt, Douglas said. No action was taken pending the election of officers which will be held Nov. 13., he reported.

Roger Hillman of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce was named to the board to replace Paul Dock who resigned. Douglas turned in his resignation because he will not be in the city next summer.

Search Halted In Vanishing Skipper Puzzle

An air, sea and land search for a man who Sunday abandoned a seaworthy boat more than a mile off Point Reyes was called off this moringing by the Coast Guard.

Two helicoptors, ships and search parties on shore searched in clear weather all day yesterday and early today for Reuben Whetstone of Gold Beach, Ore., but found nothing.

RAFT STILL ABOARD

Whetstone abandoned the 26-foot fishing boat, "Dee Jay," leaving a note on a hatch saying he was going to swim for shore at 11 a.m. with a raft made of life jackets, a Coast Guard spokesman said. The raft and seven life jackets were still aboard when another boat sighted it at 10:15 a.m. yesterday.

The propellor of the "Dee Jay" could not operate because it was fouled, and the battery was cracked and voltage too low to operate the radio, the Coast Guard reported.

OVERDUE SATURDAY

The boat had been reported overdue Saturday at Fort Bragg on a trip from Bodega Bay, so Whetstone apparently drifted overnight Saturday before he left the boat Sunday.

The boat was towed to Bodega Bay.

Fliers at the airport complained that the new airport now under construction had such steep ditches beside the runway that they would be a hazard to flying, especially with a west wind.

The plans for the airport were altered since then and the board of supervisors voted an additional $6,000 for this work, Frost said.

"It meant extending the main drainage pipes from the runway another 30 feet to the east, and changing the slope of the ditches there," Frost said.

"Nobody ever felt that the ditch arrangement was ideal, but we had to work within the funds available," Frost said.

He said that the new plans and cost were worked out between the county and Brown-Ely Co. of San Rafael, the contractors.

He said that the original plans had met the known standards for airports. The Federal Aviation Agency had approved the plans.

"Someday more improvements will be made when funds are available," Frost said. The ditches will probably someday be piped and filled, he said.

The present addition of 30 feet of shoulder on the east side of the runway should be an improvement, he said.

Kentfield-Larkspur Pupil Swap Approved

The Kentfield School District board last night approved an agreement with the Larkspur School District for Kentfield to provide services for four educationally handicapped students from the Larkspur School District.

The board approved hiring five part-time classified employees, custodian Joseph Reade at $237.50 a month, noon supervisors Joseph Adams and Carol De Mattos at $2.25 an hour, noon supervisor Sylvia Thoeleck at $2 an hour and Clark Patterson for afternoon recreation, $2 an hour.

Fairgrounds Group Elects Interim Slate

Harold Stockstad of Marin City, who has been spearheading the organization of FAIR/MARIN, was elected chairman pro-tem at a meeting of delegates from some 90 organizations at the Civic Center last night.

NOMINATING PLAN

With majority consent, Chairman Stockstad named a five-man nominating committee to select directors for FAIR/MARIN Inc., which will operate the county fairgrounds at the Civic Center.

Byron W. Leydecker, former county supervisor and president of the Redwood National Bank, heads the nominating committee. Others are Rev. Charles B. Gompertz of San Rafael, Roy A. Ibach of Mill Valley, Mrs. Roger Kent of Kent Woodlands, and Mrs. Farrel L. Schell, president of the League of Women Voters of Central Marin.

SLATE DUE

The nominating committee will select a slate of prospective directors and present them at the next meeting, set for 8 p.m. Oct. 23 in the Civic Center. Nominations will be received from the floor at that meeting, and 14 persons picked by the delegates.

Marin County Board of Supervisors will then pick seven to serve as directors of FAIR/MARIN Inc.

A five-man committee headed by Fred F. Enemark of San Rafael was named by Chairman Stockstad to study the question of how to finance the Veterans Memorial Auditorium. This committee will also report back on Oct. 23.

Power Struggle Quelled At Prison

A power struggle between two San Quentin inmate factions erupted in violence in the prison's main yard today as 200 Negro prisoners fought each other reportedly for the "ownership" of a convict with a homosexual record.

Three inmates were wounded in the leg by gunshot blasts from the guards and another four were injured in the 20-minute fighting before the yard was cleared by 8 a.m.

"PROMPT ACTION"

"Without the prompt action of the prison officers, it could have developed into an all-out war," said Associate Warden James W. L. Park.

There were between 1,500 and 2,000 men in the main yard as fighting broke out about 7:40 a.m., he said.

On one side were the Black Muslims and on the other side the "Low Riders," or lower-class hoodlum outsiders, said Park.

"From what we learned, the quarrel was over a Negro homosexual who was about to be converted to the Black Muslim group," he said.

LOSS OF FACE

"We have these factions jostling for the leadership of the Negro inmates, and when one man joins in with the others it amounts to a loss of face on the part of the loosing group."

Park said he believed the fighting was spontaneous and grew from talks leaders of the two groups were having in the yard before the men were assigned to their various jobs.

Ten extra guards were rushed to the scene and fired warning shots over the heads of the inmates.

"Apparently, this didn't do the trick so the officers fired at the ground, injuring two inmates in the fleshy part of the lower leg and breaking the leg of another. The fighting broke up almost at once." None of the victims was seriously hurt.

BACK IN CELLS

About 40 of the fighting Negro inmates were put back in their cells "to allow tempers to cool down" before being questioned, said Park.

He said it was known to the authorities there was rivalry between the different Negro groups, which included the Muslims, the Low Riders and the prison's own "Black Power" advocates.

Today's outbreak of fighting, he said, was not a planned action to be compared with the race riot which erupted at the prison last January. No white prisoners were involved today, said Park.

Passenger's Scalp Cut In Accident

Marshall Parker, 22, of 365 Bretano Way, Greenbrae, a passenger in a car driven by Robert F. Parker, 28, of San Francisco, suffered a scalp cut when the car hit another vehicle at the Mission Street-Lincoln Avenue intersection in San Rafael at 11:21 p.m. Sunday.

He was treated at Marin General Hospital. Robert Parker and the driver of the second vehicle, Christian H. Bendtsen, 33, of Stanford, Conn., were uninjured.

Novato Western Weekend Debt Placed At $1,029

Novato's Western Weekend debt was set at $1,029 last night by Charles F. Douglas, treasurer, at the board meeting of Western Weekend Inc.

The debt is slowly being cut down by the payment of small amounts. Two firms had been overpaid by $14 and this was refunded, Douglas said.

The Novato Kiwanis Club last night pledged $150 to the corporation which puts on the annual celebration in Novato each summer, Douglas said.

The board discussed having a golf tournament or holding a pancake breakfast to raise funds towards the debt, Douglas said. No action was taken pending the election of officers which will be held Nov. 13., he reported.

Roger Hillman of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce was named to the board to replace Paul Dock who resigned. Douglas turned in his resignation because he will not be in the city next summer.

Search Halted In Vanishing Skipper Puzzle

An air, sea and land search for a man who Sunday abandoned a seaworthy boat more than a mile off Point Reyes was called off this moringing by the Coast Guard.

Two helicoptors, ships and search parties on shore searched in clear weather all day yesterday and early today for Reuben Whetstone of Gold Beach, Ore., but found nothing.

RAFT STILL ABOARD

Whetstone abandoned the 26-foot fishing boat, "Dee Jay," leaving a note on a hatch saying he was going to swim for shore at 11 a.m. with a raft made of life jackets, a Coast Guard spokesman said. The raft and seven life jackets were still aboard when another boat sighted it at 10:15 a.m. yesterday.

The propellor of the "Dee Jay" could not operate because it was fouled, and the battery was cracked and voltage too low to operate the radio, the Coast Guard reported.

OVERDUE SATURDAY

The boat had been reported overdue Saturday at Fort Bragg on a trip from Bodega Bay, so Whetstone apparently drifted overnight Saturday before he left the boat Sunday.

The boat was towed to Bodega Bay.

The Role Of The Press In Local Government

This is National Newspaper Week, during which it is customary for the press to take a look at itself and to talk about itself in its own columns.

Perhaps no subject concerns newspapers more vitally than that of their own relationship with government and public. And what needs to be said about this subject has been so well said by another editor that we certainly could present it no better.

We therefore reprint this by Thomas J. Lassiter, editor of the Smithfield (N. C.) Herald:

"WHEN WE DISCUSS the relationship between the press and local government, I think we must keep in mind some fundamental principles.

"In a system of popular government, a public office is a public trust. The office never belongs to the officeholder.

"While newspapers are privately owned, freedom of the press never belongs to the newspapers. It belongs to the people.

"A REPORTER HAS the right to know what goes in democratic government. He has the right to ferret out the facts about public affairs. The citizen has the same right.

"The editor has the right to comment freely on the actions and attitudes of public officals. The citizen has the same right.

"The editor is subject to laws of libel which place upon him the burden of reporting the truth and making fair comment. The citizen is subject to laws of slander — or laws of libel if he expresses himself in public print.

"IF THE PRESS HAS the right to sit in on meetings of governing bodies, such as city or county boards of commissioners — and I hold that the press does have such a right — this right is not primarily the right of the press.

"A newspaper reporter has no right of access to a meeting of a board of commissioners that citizens generally do not have. The basic right is not the right of the newspaper reporter to cover the news of a board meeting, but the right of the citizen to observe and listen while his elected representatives discuss and transact public business.

"USUALLY IT IS NOT convenient for the citizen to attend commissioner meetings. But the citizen's right to know what the commissioners think and do is not nullified by inconvenience when the press fulfills its responsibility. The news reporter who covers a meeting of a governing body is acting as the representative of the citizens. He observes and listens for citizens — and reports. The reporter and his newspaper accept the responsibility to give the people the information they need to guide them in exercise of citizenship.

"When a reporter interviews a public offical about public business or when he goes to a department at city hall or the courthouse to gather facts about public affairs, he acts for citizens who need to be informed about their government if they are to govern themselves intelligently."

We can remember when Americans had no television, and if we think back hard enough, can recall when there weren't many radios. It is quite easy to picture a world without either. But how on earth did so many generations get by with no psychiatrists?

LIMITS ARE PART OF GROWING UP

Youngsters need — and want — limits. That was the conclusion of Dr. John B. Geisel, of the Menninger Foundation, who spent years studying the emotional requirements of children.

His studies and those of other child psychologists have underlined the importance of discipline to the inner security of teenagers, even when they rebel.

One writer expressed it this way:

"What does discipline mean, after all? It comes from the Latin 'disciplina,' or 'instruction which is given.' You've given your children a complicated mechanism called life. Don't deprive them of the instructions."

Giving directions and setting limits are not the most pleasant aspects of parenthood. But when firmness is couched in the context of love, it is secretly appreciated by youth.

Seek God's assistance in the tiring but inescapable task of providing guidelines for young people without snuffing out their initiative.

Expanding Our Markets Abroad

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Expansion of California markets into the European field is the objective of the World Trade Authority in sending a permanent representative to Franfurt, Germany.

This representative is obert B. Parks, a San Franciscan who for several years was in business in London, in the international field. Parks, during a recent visit to Sacramento, outlined some of the things he hopes to accomplish as California's representative in Europe.

The authority also has a representative in Japan, and with the addition of the European representative, it will have two fertile fields for marketable California products covered.

GREATER USAGE of the authority by Californians with goods to sell is one of the first requisites necessary to make the operation a success, Parks says.

The purpose of having foreign representatives is not to make actual sales of California products, but to develop information as to possible markets abroad. In turn, this information is made available to producers in California who are interested in exporting.

The selection of Frankfurt as the central point for California's representative in Europe, said Parks, was based on two factors, first that Germany has reached a state of affluence which makes it a prime area to absorb goods from this state, and second, the city is located within easy distance of most of the European capitals where markets can be developed.

THE FIELD of activity will include not only the development of information, but also the matter of concessions in various fields, and the handling of tariff questions which are bound to come up in international trade.

In short, California producers will have through the World Trade Authority a representative upon whom they can call for almost any type of information relating to the marketing of their goods.

Asked how California producers can expect to compete with those in the same fields in some other countries, in view of the higher wages and standards of living here, Parks said the development of "sophisticated" machinery is one answer.

"This state is noted," he said, "in many fields, for its ability to produce in high volume, and thus compete price-wise with countries which for one reason or another, have not as yet developed modern machinery, or obtained it for their production lines."

Why Reapportion? Just Enlarge House

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your Oct. 7 article announcing federal House of Representatives re-districting was factual but amusing in some respects.

I always get a bang out of reading successive accounts of members of the "established politico-aristocracy" being threatened with what ordinary people call being fired — dumped — canned. . . .

Redistricting has come along quite a way from my high school civics class days, when we had a hard-nosed graduate of the local legislature representing every 287,877 people in the Congress. In order to squeeze 44,000 soulds into one congressional seat today we must build quasi-concentration camps, including bedroom county Marinites in the same feeding pen with semi-suburbanites from Santa Rosa, logging camp-oriented Ukians and Gaerbervilleites, floodp-plagued Eurekans and Crescent Cityans.

Such a concentration of opposed interests may be likened to putting Central America under a single government, or maybe including Israel and Egypt in the same constiituency.

It occurs to me that the allpseeing, all-knowing courts maight concern themselves with something beside forcing the top onto the sardine can. Nobody seems to care about the sardines' personal troubles.

Why must our House of Representatives be limited to 435 members? Great Britain's House of Commons is considerably larger, and reportedly, doing nicely. . . .

If the courts have the power to nullify statewide initiatives,, and to give minority popularions their overdue voice in government, it should be a simple matter to throw the 435-member concept in the waste basket. Particularly when the "one vote" in the southern end of a constituency is traditionally offset by the "one vote" in the northern end.

Enlargement of the House would probaly be greeted with unanimous joy by our political fraternity — with nobody being displaced.

In the current-day enlargement of government, as a whole, I am amazed this facet has been overlooked. A simple majority joint resolution and the President's signature would turn the trick so everybody could get in the act.

Can Junk Mail Tide Be Stemmed?

(Reprinted from Chico Enterprise-Journal)

Attempts to stem the tide of junk mail meet with little or no success. Once a person signs up for anything or orders an item to be delivered by mail, seems that his name shortly becomes common to a host of junk-operating mailing lists.

However, Chico's Mrs. H. W. (Cotton) Halbert recently came across an anti-junk mail idea devised by a Roseville resident. Mrs. Halbert provided us with a clipping explaining the system — and it appears to have promise.

The Roseville man said he was bothered by dozens of junk mail items every week. Since employing his anti-junk mail system, however, he seldom receives "even a single piece within a week's time." Here is the way he handles his system:

When a piece of junk mail is received, he pencils through his name and address and writes beneath it in large letters: "Unsolicited Mail Not Accepted."

Then he gets a plain envelope, addresses it to the junk mail sender and makes certain he does not attach his return address. Then he drops the sealed envelope into the mail box without a stamp.

Under these circumstances, says the Roseville man, "the news gets around and soon you will no longer be bothered with junk mail."

Poverty War Recast Behind Closed Doors

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON —A big anti-poverty surprise is in the making in the closed-door deliberations of the House Education and Labor Committee.

The bill that will finally emerge will be very different from President Johnson's controversial $2.06 billion proposal, and the even more costly authorizing measure voted by the Senate.

In effect, what the House committee is doing is writing entirely new legislation.

What its final form will be is unpredictable at this time. Although the committee has been working on the bill for several weeks, it's still in an early stage. But already it's taking a sharply independent course.

BEHIND THIS highly significant trend are two main objectives:

1. Virtual unanimous agreement among Republican and Democratic committeemen on the necessity to get rid of the conglomeration of expensive sociological and organizational frills concocted under OEO Director Sargent Shriver, and replace them with down-to-earth training and job-making measures that will put money into the pockets of the needy.

2. Elimination of the layers of bureaucrats that have accumulated and flourished under Shriver in the three years of the anti-poverty program — in Washington, the top-heavy regional offices and the numerous local community action agencies.

Committeemen differ on how this should be done. That explains why the committee's deliberations are proceeding so slowly.

UNDERLYING CAUSE of this significant backstage situation is the widespread hostility among congressmen of both parties toward various aspects of the anti-poverty program.

It is no exaggeration that the President's multi-billion dollar bill to continue OEO is second only to his 10 per cent surtax increase in unpopularity.

Lawmakers' files bulge with outraged complaints and scandalous charges against OEO. Hardly a week passes without some new stormy outcry and flurry of indignant condemnation. Foremost among the grass-roots critics are local officials up in arms on a number of scores — involvement of anti-poverty workers in riots, demonstrations and other violence; participation in revolutionary type organizations and political activists; teaching "hate whitey" doctrine to Negro youngsters and carrying on aggressive "black power" agitation.

DEMOCRATIC legislators once staunch supporters of OEO are now openly critical. Rep. Phil Landrum, Ga., who was floor manager for the original anti-poverty measure in 1964, in recent months has expressed sharp disapproval. Rep. James Hanley, D-N.Y., has been scathing in his condemnation, as follows:

"Never in my congressional tenure have I seen a more blundering mishmash of indecision than that served up to me by the Office of Economic Opportunity. I have pleaded, cajoled, begged, demanded and otherwise sought some decision out of that administrative monstrosity, only to have my pleading, cajolery, begging and demands fall on deaf ears. I suggest that Congress order a carload of medals for buck passing struck and then direct that the carload be delivered en masse to OEO."

Strongly indicative of this pronounced antipathy was the action of the Senate in adopting an amendment directing the General Accounting Office to make an exhaustive investigation of OEO and all its operations.

IT WILL BE at least another month before the House Education and Labor Committee completes its work on the anti-poverty legislation.

Insiders say there is little likelihood the measure will be reported to the full House before early November. It must then be considered by the Rules Committee, which may take several weeks. That means this long-pending bill may not be disposed of by the House until Thanksgiving — if then. It could run into December.

Parenthetically, this sheds revealing light on how long this session will last.

It is now virtually certain the session will continue right up to Christmas, when the legislators will finally call it quits and adjourn until early January, when they will resume in what will officially be the second session of the 90th Congress.

The fate of anti-poverty legislation will be determined in the House.

The battle on the House floor will be the most hectic and furious of the session.

War In Vietnam Makes Mess Of Campaign For Presidency

WASHINGTON (AP) — The presidential campaign, reaching a climax exactly one year from now, will be a mess for both parties if nothing changes in the war in Vietnam or in the public attitude toward it at home.

President Johnson, with his Democrats split on the war and public support for it dwindling, may not only have a tough time getting re-elected but even renominated.

Republicans are split on the same subject. Just this week Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican Senate leader who has steadfastly backed Johnson's Vietnam policy, rebuked Republicans he thought were too harsh on Johnson.

Those Republicans being mentioned as their party's likely presidential candidate are divided, too.

LAST MARCH, Johnson and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., widened their differences when the latter called for a bombing halt in Vietnam and Johnson said continuing the air strikes was imperative. Kennedy hasn't said much about it since.

While he denies presidential ambitions in 1968 and has publicly pledged support for Johnson, Kennedy has been gaining, and Johnson declining in public opinion polls on preference about the two men's candidacy.

This week the Gallup Poll showed 51 per cent of those quizzed favored Kennedy to 39 per cent for Johnson. Meanwhile, Johnson has been persistently belabored about the war by Democrats in Congress.

If there is no change in the war by October, 1968, Democrats will have a tormented time reconciling their differences. There will have to be some extraordinary flip-flops if the party hopes to look united.

BUT REPUBLICANS can read the polls. Some of them already have done some flip-flopping, an exercise which could be very convenient if public opinion on the war gets worse.

The No. 1 example is Michigan's Gov. George Romney who for most of 1965 solidly backed Johnson on the war after a trip to Vietnam earlier that year.

But when he reached the point of saying he had been "brainwashed" by government officials on his trip to Vietnam his standing in the polls started down.

New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, denying any intention of being a candidate, had supported Romney but his ratings in the polls steadily went up and last week the Gallup Poll had a new finding.

THIS WAS IT: of those questioned, 55 to 41 per cent favored a Republican ticket led by Rockefeller and California's Gov. Ronald Reagan to a Democratic ticket with Johnson and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Maybe it was only a coincidence, but almost at the very moment this poll was disclosed Rockefeller, who had broadly supported Johnson's Vietnam policy, was reported saying privately he was shifting toward a more moderate position and was no longer wholeheartedly behind Johnson.

Asked about this later, he declined comment by saying he had said nothing about it and wouldn't.

In short, California producers will have through the World Trade Authority a representative upon whom they can call for almost any type of information relating to the marketing of their goods.

Asked how California producers can expect to compete with those in the same fields in some other countries, in view of the higher wages and standards of living here, Parks said the development of "sophisticated" machinery is one answer.

"This state is noted," he said, "in many fields, for its ability to produce in high volume, and thus compete price-wise with countries which for one reason or another, have not as yet developed modern machinery, or obtained it for their production lines."

Why Reapportion? Just Enlarge House

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your Oct. 7 article announcing federal House of Representatives re-districting was factual but amusing in some respects.

I always get a bang out of reading successive accounts of members of the "established politico-aristocracy" being threatened with what ordinary people call being fired — dumped — canned. . . .

Redistricting has come along quite a way from my high school civics class days, when we had a hard-nosed graduate of the local legislature representing every 287,877 people in the Congress. In order to squeeze 44,000 soulds into one congressional seat today we must build quasi-concentration camps, including bedroom county Marinites in the same feeding pen with semi-suburbanites from Santa Rosa, logging camp-oriented Ukians and Gaerbervilleites, floodp-plagued Eurekans and Crescent Cityans.

Such a concentration of opposed interests may be likened to putting Central America under a single government, or maybe including Israel and Egypt in the same constiituency.

It occurs to me that the allpseeing, all-knowing courts maight concern themselves with something beside forcing the top onto the sardine can. Nobody seems to care about the sardines' personal troubles.

Why must our House of Representatives be limited to 435 members? Great Britain's House of Commons is considerably larger, and reportedly, doing nicely. . . .

If the courts have the power to nullify statewide initiatives, and to give minority popularions their overdue voice in government, it should be a simple matter to throw the 435-member concept in the waste basket. Particularly when the "one vote" in the southern end of a constituency is traditionally offset by the "one vote" in the northern end.

Enlargement of the House would probaly be greeted with unanimous joy by our political fraternity — with nobody being displaced.

In the current-day enlargement of government, as a whole, I am amazed this facet has been overlooked. A simple majority joint resolution and the President's signature would turn the trick so everybody could get in the act.

Would Like Full New York Stock List

Editor, Independent-Journal:

You publish an excellent newspaper and my husband and I enjoy it. But I have one important suggestion: I think you would increase your number of readers considerably if you would publish the complete New York stock exchange list, and perhaps that of the American stock exchange also, instead of a few stocks picked at random. The San Mateo Times does it, and I am sure there is room in your paper.

Roger Spear's colujn is always interesting, and of course we like Art Buchwald very much.

Can Junk Mail Tide Be Stemmed?

(Reprinted from Chico Enterprise-Journal)

Attempts to stem the tide of junk mail meet with little or no success. Once a person signs up for anything or orders an item to be delivered by mail, seems that his name shortly becomes common to a host of junk-operating mailing lists.

However, Chico's Mrs. H. W. (Cotton) Halbert recently came across an anti-junk mail idea devised by a Roseville resident. Mrs. Halbert provided us with a clipping explaining the system — and it appears to have promise.

The Roseville man said he was bothered by dozens of junk mail items every week. Since employing his anti-junk mail system, however, he seldom receives "even a single piece within a week's time." Here is the way he handles his system:

When a piece of junk mail is received, he pencils through his name and address and writes beneath it in large letters: "Unsolicited Mail Not Accepted."

Then he gets a plain envelope, addresses it to the junk mail sender and makes certain he does not attach his return address. Then he drops the sealed envelope into the mail box without a stamp.

Under these circumstances, says the Roseville man, "the news gets around and soon you will no longer be bothered with junk mail."

The system makes sense. Junk mail goes to the harried householder at little expense to the sender — but when it comes back to the sender and stings him for "postage due," the sender soon decides to take this householder's costly name off his list.

"Won't that spoil him?" pondered the bride-to-be.

"Perhaps," admitted Mama Wolff, "but you'll be amazed how much loose change you'll find later among the cushions."

INSIDE WASHINGTON

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON —A big anti-poverty surprise is in the making in the closed-door deliberations of the House Education and Labor Committee.

The bill that will finally emerge will be very different from President Johnson's controversial $2.06 billion proposal, and the even more costly authorizing measure voted by the Senate.

In effect, what the House committee is doing is writing entirely new legislation.

What its final form will be is unpredictable at this time. Although the committee has been working on the bill for several weeks, it's still in an early stage. But already it's taking a sharply independent course.

BEHIND THIS highly significant trend are two main objectives:

1. Virtual unanimous agreement among Republican and Democratic committeemen on the necessity to get rid of the conglomeration of expensive sociological and organizational frills concocted under OEO Director Sargent Shriver, and replace them with down-to-earth training and job-making measures that will put money into the pockets of the needy.

2. Elimination of the layers of bureaucrats that have accumulated and flourished under Shriver in the three years of the anti-poverty program — in Washington, the top-heavy regional offices and the numerous local community action agencies.

Committeemen differ on how this should be done. That explains why the committee's deliberations are proceeding so slowly.

UNDERLYING CAUSE of this significant backstage situation is the widespread hostility among congressmen of both parties toward various aspects of the anti-poverty program.

It is no exaggeration that the President's multi-billion dollar bill to continue OEO is second only to his 10 per cent surtax increase in unpopularity.

Lawmakers' files bulge with outraged complaints and scandalous charges against OEO. Hardly a week passes without some new stormy outcry and flurry of indignant condemnation. Foremost among the grass-roots critics are local officials up in arms on a number of scores — involvement of anti-poverty workers in riots, demonstrations and other violence; participation in revolutionary type organizations and political activists; teaching "hate whitey" doctrine to Negro youngsters and carrying on aggressive "black power" agitation.

DEMOCRATIC legislators once staunch supporters of OEO are now openly critical. Rep. Phil Landrum, Ga., who was floor manager for the original anti-poverty measure in 1964, in recent months has expressed sharp disapproval. Rep. James Hanley, D-N.Y., has been scathing in his condemnation, as follows:

"Never in my congressional tenure have I seen a more blundering mishmash of indecision than that served up to me by the Office of Economic Opportunity. I have pleaded, cajoled, begged, demanded and otherwise sought some decision out of that administrative monstrosity, only to have my pleading, cajolery, begging and demands fall on deaf ears. I suggest that Congress order a carload of medals for buck passing struck and then direct that the carload be delivered en masse to OEO."

Strongly indicative of this pronounced antipathy was the action of the Senate in adopting an amendment directing the General Accounting Office to make an exhaustive investigation of OEO and all its operations.

IT WILL BE at least another month before the House Education and Labor Committee completes its work on the anti-poverty legislation.

Insiders say there is little likelihood the measure will be reported to the full House before early November. It must then be considered by the Rules Committee, which may take several weeks. That means this long-pending bill may not be disposed of by the House until Thanksgiving — if then. It could run into December.

Parenthetically, this sheds revealing light on how long this session will last.

It is now virtually certain the session will continue right up to Christmas, when the legislators will finally call it quits and adjourn until early January, when they will resume in what will officially be the second session of the 90th Congress.

The fate of anti-poverty legislation will be determined in the House.

The battle on the House floor will be the most hectic and furious of the session.

War In Vietnam Makes Mess Of Campaign For Presidency

WASHINGTON (AP) — The presidential campaign, reaching a climax exactly one year from now, will be a mess for both parties if nothing changes in the war in Vietnam or in the public attitude toward it at home.

President Johnson, with his Democrats split on the war and public support for it dwindling, may not only have a tough time getting re-elected but even renominated.

Republicans are split on the same subject. Just this week Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican Senate leader who has steadfastly backed Johnson's Vietnam policy, rebuked Republicans he thought were too harsh on Johnson.

Those Republicans being mentioned as their party's likely presidential candidate are divided, too.

LAST MARCH, Johnson and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., widened their differences when the latter called for a bombing halt in Vietnam and Johnson said continuing the air strikes was imperative. Kennedy hasn't said much about it since.

While he denies presidential ambitions in 1968 and has publicly pledged support for Johnson, Kennedy has been gaining, and Johnson declining in public opinion polls on preference about the two men's candidacy.

This week the Gallup Poll showed 51 per cent of those quizzed favored Kennedy to 39 per cent for Johnson. Meanwhile, Johnson has been persistently belabored about the war by Democrats in Congress.

If there is no change in the war by October, 1968, Democrats will have a tormented time reconciling their differences. There will have to be some extraordinary flip-flops if the party hopes to look united.

BUT REPUBLICANS can read the polls. Some of them already have done some flip-flopping, an exercise which could be very convenient if public opinion on the war gets worse.

The No. 1 example is Michigan's Gov. George Romney who for most of 1965 solidly backed Johnson on the war after a trip to Vietnam earlier that year.

But when he reached the point of saying he had been "brainwashed" by government officials on his trip to Vietnam his standing in the polls started down.

New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, denying any intention of being a candidate, had supported Romney but his ratings in the polls steadily went up and last week the Gallup Poll had a new finding.

THIS WAS IT: of those questioned, 55 to 41 per cent favored a Republican ticket led by Rockefeller and California's Gov. Ronald Reagan to a Democratic ticket with Johnson and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Maybe it was only a coincidence, but almost at the very moment this poll was disclosed Rockefeller, who had broadly supported Johnson's Vietnam policy, was reported saying privately he was shifting toward a more moderate position and was no longer wholeheartedly behind Johnson.

Asked about this later, he declined comment by saying he had said nothing about it and wouldn't.

Continuation School Expensive? Kindergarten Costs Much Higher

Only criticism of Novato's continuation high school I have heard since an Independent-Journal story on it last week was from someone who complained of the expense of the school.

I know that two of the higher paid teachers in the district are running it, and only time will eventually tell if the results justify the cost. How much is it worth to society to straighten out one potentially bad boy and get him into a productive life? That is a question which society has not fully answered yet, but it may be forthcoming from such things as the continuation high school and its results.

On the other end of the school ladder, how much is baby sitting service worth? Many people who do not have small children think of kindergarten as a glorified baby sitting service. Those who have children, generally do not.

Look at the cost of operating the kindergartens. It came out at the Novato school board meeting the other night when two additional teachers were hired for kindergarten at Olive School. There are four kindergarten classes at the school — two in the morning and two in the afternoon. It has four teachers for the four classes.

That means that the teachers who have the morning classes have nothing to do in the afternoon. Supt. James G. Bunker told the board that they were not allowed to go home, but were to stay on a standby basis or for team teaching. But for actual time, the teacher has three hours per day for 178 days per year of teaching. For this she receives in excess of $7,000 per year, or $13 per hour.

THE OTHER DAY as I was turning from Railroad Avenue onto Grant Avenue, I watched a small boy approached on his bicycle. He was just learning to ride, and unsteadily made a series of "S" movements as he came down Grant Avenue. He was following a larger boy on a bicycle, but not quite able to keep up with him.

The larger boy cut directly in front of my car and rode off beside Railroad Avenue. I guessed what the small boy would do, so I stopped my car.

Sure enough, he tried to follow the larger boy in his daring feat of cutting across in front of an oncoming car. He could not make the turn and tipped over on his bicycle just in front of my stopped car.

I wondered why parents turn their children loose with bicycles when they do not know how to ride them? Nor do the parents tell them the rules of how to get around the streets. They would not turn their children loose with a car unless they knew how to drive.

DURING THE PUBLIC hearing last week on a downtown study for the City of Novato, the question came up whether the study should go into an urban renewal project.

Larry Heon, a member of the downtown study committee, read from a federal brochure the reasons for urban renewal. One of them brought a smile to me. It was given as "demolish the houses that breed crime."

Had either the author of that statement or Larry Heon checked with Novato Police Chief Bob Di Grazia, it would have been stricken from the definition. In Novato that might have included a few of the most expensive homes an a lot of the better middle class homes.. Police records show that many young hoodlums come from this class of homes.

Marijuana Possession Case Dismissed

Felony complaint of marijuana possession against James Paul VanSanden, 18, was dismissed in Marin Superior Court yesterday on a motion of insufficient evidence.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson declared that although there is little doubt VanSanden had marijuana, Fairfax Police Officer Myron MacNeil did not have reasonable cause to search VanSanden's vehicle after halting him for apparently having no front license plate on the vehicle.

He declared MacNeil was also mistaken in thinking there was an arrest warrant out for VanSaden, and therefore finding of what appeared to be marijuana could not justify the search.

VanSanden, of 600 Northern Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, was halted by MacNeil Aug. 12.

Tough To Keep Up On History When It's Constantly Rewritten

No matter what Lincoln said, there are some people I can't fool even part of the time. However cunningly I try to disguise my lack of book-learning, they spot my weakness every time. It's disheartening.

Some of them go so far as to doubt that a fellow of such abysmal ignorance could ever have got through public school. I did, too — and somewhere I have a diploma from P.S. 186 in Manhattan to prove it. So there!

But geography was never my forte, and a correspondent chides me for a recent admission that I had to look up Kuwait on the map to make sure where it was. But it's even worse than that: I had to look up Chad and Upper Volta, too. After all, none of them was ever mentioned at 186.

SOMETIMES I THINK all these new nations are inventions of Madison Avenue, aimed at getting us to buy a showy, new atlas every year in the mad race to keep up with the Joneses. A fellow who uses a 5-year-old gazetteer is not going to be invited to the best parties. Incidentally, I have an ancient atlas which gives some space to Bosnia and Herzegovina — if anyone is interested in antiques. No reasonable offer refused.

And here's a letter from L. E. C. of Culver City, Calif., listing some of my other scholastic deficiencies: "Your column indicates thet (1; you are politically naive, (2; you possess a limited comprehension of history and (3) you are getting old."

I shall overlook the third of these heinous attempts at character-assassination, especially since there's little use in denying it. But you might have said "older" instead of "old," dear sir or madam, and at least softened the blow.

But my history marks were fair, I insist. If the lessons I learned from it no longer apply, it is because history is now rewritten every day. In fact, it's getting to be like a show in its tryout period — if a scene doesn't fit, it is either deleted entirely or changed so it does.

FOR EXAMPLE, after Stalin purged Trotzky, the latter's name suddenly disappeared from Soviet history books and the Moscow Social Register. And now Stalin is being played down, too, and I won't be surprised if it turns out that it was Kosygin with whom Roosevelt met at Yalta and Teheran. Still, whoever it was, the fact remains that FDR came home from both places without his shirt.

We have similar revisionists here, too. A couple California profs report that they now find that the men of 1776, whom we were taught to revere, were only a collection of guys on the make for a fast buck. And there are current textbooks which omit mention of dubious CIA agents like Nathan Hale, using the space to give full stress to the virtues of W. E. DuBois. It works, too. You never hear of any Nathan Hale clubs on a campus.

And there was the time — revealed by a close associate of President Kennedy in a comparatively recent volume — when JFK was hunting for a quotation from one (any one) of the Founding Fathers to bolster a stand he had taken. At such a time, all politicos know, it doesn't hurt to show what you're after is precisely what the men of the Constitutional Convention had in mind.

But research failed to disclose anything remotely appropriate, so the staff decided to compse some lines tof their own and attribute them to one of the Fathers. At the moment, I recall neither the alleged excerpt nor the statesman to whom it was credited — but I know nobody ever complained about it. It worked — which is the ultimate test in politics.

NOW, I WANT to be fair, and it may well be that the departed hero of the Revolution would have gladly spoken those words if he had thought of them. Still, that new method of writing history wouldn't have set well with the teachers at P.S. 186. Those old fuddy-duddies wouldn't have linked it one bit.

Bridge Traffic Record Is Set

A record total of 503,395 vehicles crossed the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge during July — an increase of 2.39 per cent over the same month last year.

Tolls collected during the month amounted to $406,149 compared with $400,345 in July last year, reported Chief Engineer E. R. Foley of the State Department of Public Works, Division of Bay Toll Crossings.

Average of 16,239 vehicles each day also set a record. Last July, the average of 15,859 per day.

Still, whoever it was, the fact remains that FDR came home from both places without his shirt.

We have similar revisionists here, too. A couple California profs report that they now find that the men of 1776, whom we were taught to revere, were only a collection of guys on the make for a fast buck. And there are current textbooks which omit mention of dubious CIA agents like Nathan Hale, using the space to give full stress to the virtues of W. E. DuBois. It works, too. You never hear of any Nathan Hale clubs on a campus.

And there was the time — revealed by a close associate of President Kennedy in a comparatively recent volume — when JFK was hunting for a quotation from one (any one) of the Founding Fathers to bolster a stand he had taken. At such a time, all politicos know, it doesn't hurt to show what you're after is precisely what the men of the Constitutional Convention had in mind.

But research failed to disclose anything remotely appropriate, so the staff decided to compse some lines tof their own and attribute them to one of the Fathers. At the moment, I recall neither the alleged excerpt nor the statesman to whom it was credited — but I know nobody ever complained about it. It worked — which is the ultimate test in politics.

NOW, I WANT to be fair, and it may well be that the departed hero of the Revolution would have gladly spoken those words if he had thought of them. Still, that new method of writing history wouldn't have set well with the teachers at P.S. 186. Those old fuddy-duddies wouldn't have linked it one bit.

Bridge Traffic Record Is Set

A record total of 503,395 vehicles crossed the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge during July — an increase of 2.39 per cent over the same month last year.

Tolls collected during the month amounted to $406,149 compared with $400,345 in July last year, reported Chief Engineer E. R. Foley of the State Department of Public Works, Division of Bay Toll Crossings.

Average of 16,239 vehicles each day also set a record. Last July, the average of 15,859 per day.

Air Force Men Honored

The Air Force Commendation Medal was awarded to three men at awards and retirement ceremonies Friday at the Western Communications Region Headquarters at Hamilton Air Force Base.

M/Sgt. Rafael D. Romo of 15 Los Cedros Road, Novato, received the medal for work at U-Tapao Airfield, Thailand.

T/Sgt. Priestly J. Hall of 437 Bolling Drive on the base, received his medal for work at Torrejon Air Base, Spain.

M/Sgt. Robert E. Chaney of 44 Palm Lane, Novato, received his medal for work at the region headquarters; he also retired.

M/Sgt. Michael J. Eick of 635 Owens Drive, Novato, retired after 22 years of military service.

EAST'S PLAY

West opened the queen of diamonds, declarer covered with dummy's king, and East won with the ace. East then upset South by returning the ace of trumps and a low trump.

If South led back a diamond the opponent with the last missing trump would win and return that trump to make sure dummy would never get a ruffing trick. Now South's only chance for the contract depended on good breaks in both black suits.

South took East's trump return, led a club to dummy, ruffed a club, got to dummy with a spade to ruff another club and got to dummy with a second spade to ruff dummy's last club.

KEY DISCARD

West saw the plot and discarded a spade on the fourth round of clubs. Now when South led a third spade West ruffed and cashed a diamond to defeat the contract.

It was a very good operation, South claimed, even though the patient died. If nobody had ruffed, South would have reached dummy with the third spade to draw the last trump.

SIMPLER WAY

There was a much simpler way to make the contract: South should play the low diamond from dummy at the first trick. If West found the trump switch at the second trick (much harder for West than for East), South could win the second trump and lead a diamond. If the opponent with the ace of diamonds could not return a trump, South would make his contract by ruffing a diamond in dummy. The odds would have been in South's favor instead of very much against him.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid three notrump. Since you have 11 points in high cards, the combined count is 27 to 29 points, easily enough for game but not enough for a slam. Since you have balanced distribution and strength in three suits there is no need to try for 11 tricks in clubs rather than nine tricks in notrump.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
No. 49344

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Marin.

In the Matter of the Disposition of all of the assets of MARIN COUNCIL OF COMMUNITY SERVICES, a corporation organized for charitable purposes.

Upon reading the verified Petition made and filed in the name of MARIN COUNCIL OF COMMUNITY SERVICES, a California non-profit charitable corporation, requesting an order of the Court decreeing the distribution of the assets of said corporation, and declaring said corporation to be duly wound up and dissolved, good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that any person claiming to be interested in said corporation either as members, creditors or otherwise, appear in this proceeding before this Court to contest said Petition at any time before the expiration of thirty (30) days from the completion of publication of this Order, as hereinafter specified, and to Show Cause, if any they have, why this Court should not make and enter an order declaring said corporation to be duly wound up, its known assets distributed, and for such other order as this Court may deem just and proper in this case.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order be served by publication of a copy thereof in the Independent-Journal, a newspaper of general circulation in Marin County, where the principal office of said corporation is located, once a week for a period of two consecutive months, the first publication to be on the fourth week of September, 1967.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Petition on file herein be and the same is hereby set forth for hearing on December 29, 1967, at the hour of 10:00 A.M. in Department 1, Marin County Courthouse located at 4th and A Streets, San Rafael, California.

Dated this 25th day of September, 1967.

Anti-Delinquency Group Organizes

Police and school officials concerned with problems of juvenile delinquency have formed a new organization, the Allied Juvenile Agencies of Marin, to seek solutions to problems affecting juveniles.

Sgt. Albert G. Howenstein, juvenile officer for the San Anselmo Police Department, is president of the new organization and Florence W. Abraham, dean of girls at San Rafael High School, is secretary.

Howenstein said police juvenile officers began meeting informally in December 1966 and the meetings broadened to include school, juvenile probation and social service representatives.

Essentially the same group formally organized as AJAM in September, and the group will meet at the Co-op of Marin, Corte Madera, on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at 10 a.m.

One of the purposes of the organization is for its members to become acquainted personally and professionally with the differences in policy, responsibility and authority of the various agencies they represent, Howenstein said.

"The ideal goal is a cooperative approach by all agencies and organizations that deal with juveniles, delinquent, predelinquent and non-delinquent," he said.

A second goal is to share information between agencies when several may be involved with a particular juvenile or his family. Experts will be invited to speak to the group on subjects of general interest such as narcotics, policies of juvenile court judges, runaways, vocational training, the roles of the Juvenile Justice Commission and the Commission for Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency, continuation school, and so on.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Road Accidents Are Cause Of Most Severe Brain Injuries

VAN DELLEN

Head injury is common in traffic accidents and falls. Eight out of 10 can be classified as harmless even though 40 per cent sustain a concussion as a result of trauma. In concussion, consciousness is lost for moments, hours, days. Respirations may cease, blood pressure may rise, and there may be loss of certain reflexes. Following recovery of consciousness, the victim may complain of headache and perhaps of dizziness, confusion, loss of memory or nausea.

Scalp lacerations and a skull fracture may exist. These however, are not so important as the effect of injury on the brain. More than 20 per cent of fatal head injuries occur in persons with no skull fracture.

RAPID JOSTLING OF the soft brain within a moving skull causes more damage than a less severe blow to the head when it is fixed and the skull is fractured. Road accidents produce some of our most severe closed brain injuries because the head is moving forward or sideways at the time of impact.

Following convalescence, approximately 14 per cent have residual symptoms. It is difficult to determine whether these manifestations are related to the accident or are of nervous or emotional origin. Residual brain damage may induce a throbbing headache that is present when awake and aggravted by bending, coughing, or sneezing. Disorders of memory or concentration ensue. Transient dizziness may occur, especially when the individual changes es position. Occasionaly head-injuries are followed by epileptic attacks. As a rule, most of these symptoms are resolved by the end of two years.

AFTER MINOR head injuries some persons complain of blackouts or terrific headaches that are likened to a tight band or sensation of pressure. Others develop fears related to the place where the accident occurred. Many of these people are nervous and depressed. Symptoms often disappear after settlement of compensation claims.

SEASONAL ULCER

R. K. writes: I've just gotten over a bad ulcer attack. Why is it I'm bothered only in the spring and fall?

REPLY

Peptic ulcer causes seasonal attacks of discomfort, but no one knows why. Many ulcer patients routinely go on a diet and take antacids every spring and fall to give the stomach a rest and avoid recurrences.

THE PEOPLE'S SCHOOLS

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Teachers In State May Strike For Pay Hike, Smaller Classes

California school boards have been served notice that, wherever the American Federation of Teachers has sufficient strength, they may expect teacher strikes like that which closed New York City's public schools for three weeks.

"Striking teachers elsewhere have won their demands for better education while the pleadings of California teachers are ignored.

"The lesson is clear. To be successful, teacher demands must be reinforced by militant teacher union action."

What the union teachers might see fit to strike over is indicated by some of the 36 points in the program adopted by the CFT executive council. Amond them:

Maximum of 25 pupils per class, with average of 20. (Average class size in California was 29.4 pupils in elementary and 28.3 in high schools in 1965-66, latest year for which complete figures are available.)

Salary schedule of $8,500 to $17,000 in five yearly steps. (Average salary of California public school teachers last year was $8,107 in elementary and $8,962 in high schools, with the state minimum for beginning teachers $5,000.)

Fully paid health insurance — including dental and psychiatric care, life and disability insurance, plus cost-of-living escalation for retirement pensions.

In the elementary schools, four teachers for every three classes.

The 36 points also include several calling for the teachers to run the schools, without interference from board or administrators. One of these would put administrators on a probationary status, to be evaluated by teachers.

The demands, even in salary, go far beyond what the New York teachers won by their strike. They got salary increases of about 20 per cent over the next two years, to bring the scale to $6,759 minimum and $13,900 maximum.

Albert Shanker, president of New York's United Federation of Teachers (the AFT unit which struck), called the deal "Fantastically good." Apparently, it doesn't look that way to the leaders of California's state AFT organization.

If anyone doubts that the CFT stands ready to to make good on the strike threat in Axelrod's statement, he should think back to last year, when this same organization went on strike for five days against the schools in Richmond. That strike was pulled despite the fact that the CFT had only about a fifth of the Richmond teachers as members.

So far, California has been largely free from such strikes because the vast majority of its teachers belong to the California Teachers Association and not the CFT. The CTA and its parent National Education Association oppose teacher strikes, preferring to boycott recalcitrant school districts (and even whole states — a boycott against Florida schools being now in effect).

However, the success of AFT strikes has brought pressure within the ranks for the NEA to also use the strike weapon. NEA locals went on strike in Michigan last year. They were not punished for it by their organization.

But something that happened in New York indicates legislation may prove a deterrent.

The United Federation of Teachers strike there provided the first test of a new state law, the Taylor Act, which applies Taft-Hartley Act compulsory arbitration requirements on a state basis. The Taylor Act's penalties include fines against union treasuries for strikes by public employees.

Judge Emilio Nunez of New York State Supreme Court (which, despite its name, is the court of first jurisdiction corresponding to California's superior courts) invoked this new act in fining the United Federation of Teachers $150,000. He also sentenced Shanker, the union president, to pay $250 fine and serve 15 days in jail for contempt of court.

There are laws against strikes by public employees in most states. Generally they call for dismissing the strikers from their jobs. They have been defied repeatedly and with impunity — the Michigan teacher strike being a case in point.

It is patently impossible to reopen the schools without re-employing the strikers where nearly all the teachers have gone on strike. So a law calling for dismissal is usually violated without punishment. New York's Taylor Act imposes a more enforceable penalty.

Anti-Delinquency Group Organizes

Police and school officials concerned with problems of juvenile delinquency have formed a new organization, the Allied Juvenile Agencies of Marin, to seek solutions to problems affecting juveniles.

Sgt. Albert G. Howenstein, juvenile officer for the San Anselmo Police Department, is president of the new organization and Florence W. Abraham, dean of girls at San Rafael High School, is secretary.

Howenstein said police juvenile officers began meeting informally in December 1966 and the meetings broadened to include school, juvenile probation and social service representatives.

Essentially the same group formally organized as AJAM in September, and the group will meet at the Co-op of Marin, Corte Madera, on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at 10 a.m.

One of the purposes of the organization is for its members to become acquainted personally and professionally with the differences in policy, responsibility and authority of the various agencies they represent, Howenstein said.

"The ideal goal is a cooperative approach by all agencies and organizations that deal with juveniles, delinquent, predelinquent and non-delinquent," he said.

A second goal is to share information between agencies when several may be involved with a particular juvenile or his family. Experts will be invited to speak to the group on subjects of general interest such as narcotics, policies of juvenile court judges, runaways, vocational training, the roles of the Juvenile Justice Commission and the Commission for Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency, continuation school, and so on.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Road Accidents Are Cause Of Most Severe Brain Injuries

VAN DELLEN

Head injury is common in traffic accidents and falls. Eight out of 10 can be classified as harmless even though 40 per cent sustain a concussion as a result of trauma. In concussion, consciousness is lost for moments, hours, days. Respirations may cease, blood pressure may rise, and there may be loss of certain reflexes. Following recovery of consciousness, the victim may complain of headache and perhaps of dizziness, confusion, loss of memory or nausea.

Scalp lacerations and a skull fracture may exist. These however, are not so important as the effect of injury on the brain. More than 20 per cent of fatal head injuries occur in persons with no skull fracture.

RAPID JOSTLING OF the soft brain within a moving skull causes more damage than a less severe blow to the head when it is fixed and the skull is fractured. Road accidents produce some of our most severe closed brain injuries because the head is moving forward or sideways at the time of impact.

Following convalescence, approximately 14 per cent have residual symptoms. It is difficult to determine whether these manifestations are related to the accident or are of nervous or emotional origin. Residual brain damage may induce a throbbing headache that is present when awake and aggravted by bending, coughing, or sneezing. Disorders of memory or concentration ensue. Transient dizziness may occur, especially when the individual changes es position. Occasionaly head-injuries are followed by epileptic attacks. As a rule, most of these symptoms are resolved by the end of two years.

AFTER MINOR head injuries some persons complain of blackouts or terrific headaches that are likened to a tight band or sensation of pressure. Others develop fears related to the place where the accident occurred. Many of these people are nervous and depressed. Symptoms often disappear after settlement of compensation claims.

SEASONAL ULCER

R. K. writes: I've just gotten over a bad ulcer attack. Why is it I'm bothered only in the spring and fall?

REPLY

Peptic ulcer causes seasonal attacks of discomfort, but no one knows why. Many ulcer patients routinely go on a diet and take antacids every spring and fall to give the stomach a rest and avoid recurrences.

THE PEOPLE'S SCHOOLS

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Teachers In State May Strike For Pay Hike, Smaller Classes

California school boards have been served notice that, wherever the American Federation of Teachers has sufficient strength, they may expect teacher strikes like that which closed New York City's public schools for three weeks.

"Striking teachers elsewhere have won their demands for better education while the pleadings of California teachers are ignored.

"The lesson is clear. To be successful, teacher demands must be reinforced by militant teacher union action."

What the union teachers might see fit to strike over is indicated by some of the 36 points in the program adopted by the CFT executive council. Amond them:

Maximum of 25 pupils per class, with average of 20. (Average class size in California was 29.4 pupils in elementary and 28.3 in high schools in 1965-66, latest year for which complete figures are available.)

Salary schedule of $8,500 to $17,000 in five yearly steps. (Average salary of California public school teachers last year was $8,107 in elementary and $8,962 in high schools, with the state minimum for beginning teachers $5,000.)

Fully paid health insurance — including dental and psychiatric care, life and disability insurance, plus cost-of-living escalation for retirement pensions.

In the elementary schools, four teachers for every three classes.

The 36 points also include several calling for the teachers to run the schools, without interference from board or administrators. One of these would put administrators on a probationary status, to be evaluated by teachers.

The demands, even in salary, go far beyond what the New York teachers won by their strike. They got salary increases of about 20 per cent over the next two years, to bring the scale to $6,759 minimum and $13,900 maximum.

Albert Shanker, president of New York's United Federation of Teachers (the AFT unit which struck), called the deal "Fantastically good." Apparently, it doesn't look that way to the leaders of California's state AFT organization.

If anyone doubts that the CFT stands ready to to make good on the strike threat in Axelrod's statement, he should think back to last year, when this same organization went on strike for five days against the schools in Richmond. That strike was pulled despite the fact that the CFT had only about a fifth of the Richmond teachers as members.

So far, California has been largely free from such strikes because the vast majority of its teachers belong to the California Teachers Association and not the CFT. The CTA and its parent National Education Association oppose teacher strikes, preferring to boycott recalcitrant school districts (and even whole states — a boycott against Florida schools being now in effect).

However, the success of AFT strikes has brought pressure within the ranks for the NEA to also use the strike weapon. NEA locals went on strike in Michigan last year. They were not punished for it by their organization.

But something that happened in New York indicates legislation may prove a deterrent.

The United Federation of Teachers strike there provided the first test of a new state law, the Taylor Act, which applies Taft-Hartley Act compulsory arbitration requirements on a state basis. The Taylor Act's penalties include fines against union treasuries for strikes by public employees.

Judge Emilio Nunez of New York State Supreme Court (which, despite its name, is the court of first jurisdiction corresponding to California's superior courts) invoked this new act in fining the United Federation of Teachers $150,000. He also sentenced Shanker, the union president, to pay $250 fine and serve 15 days in jail for contempt of court.

There are laws against strikes by public employees in most states. Generally they call for dismissing the strikers from their jobs. They have been defied repeatedly and with impunity — the Michigan teacher strike being a case in point.

It is patently impossible to reopen the schools without re-employing the strikers where nearly all the teachers have gone on strike. So a law calling for dismissal is usually violated without punishment. New York's Taylor Act imposes a more enforceable penalty.

High School Rated Fifth In French Test

Tamalpais High School has placed fifth among 89 Northern California high schools in the latest national contest of the American Association of Teachers of French.

Steve Petrakis placed 15th among 1,069 third-year French students, Ellen Rosenthal placed seventh among 1,568 second-year students and Renold Narita placed 23rd among 1,780 first-year students.

Peace Plea Sent To Vietnam Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiation Now!—a group seeking peace in Vietnam— says it has cabled the Viet Cong and the Hanoi regime to respond favorably to what it hopes will be an American peace initiative.

Representatives of the group are in Washington to present to President Johnson and Congress a petition it says is signed by 500,000 Americans who want a quick end to the fighting.

The group asks the United States to make the first peace move: an unconditional halt to the bombing of North Vietnam and an agreement to include the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong, as an official party to negotiations.

A review of a study on the projected membership of Marin Council of the Boy Scouts of America will be made at a meeting of the council's Organization and Manpower Study Committee tomorrow at 7 a.m. at The Griddle Restaurant, 801 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

Also on the agenda is the preparation of the final presentation of the committee and the Camp and Office Facilities Committee.

San Franciscan Suing Playboy Club On Charges

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A businessman filed suit in U.S. Dist. Court yesterday seeking more than $10,000 in damages from Playboy Clubs International for alleged fraud, breach of contract and violation of U.S. securities statutes.

The suit was filed by attorney Ernest M. Thayer on behalf of Philip L. Thomas, 32, a member of the San Francisco Playboy Club.

Thomas' suit contends that he and all other members of Playboy clubs were faced in 1966 with a $5 a year "account maintenance charge" for credit privileges which promotional literature had said would be free in 1960.

As an added wrinkle, the suit, in legal terms, is a "class suit." It seeks to recover the alleged damages for each of the 600,000 members of Playboy Clubs International.

Women To Hear Of Drug Abuse

Drug abuse will be the topic of a panel discussion before the Novato Federation of Republican Women at 11 a.m. Oct. 17 at Nero's Restaurant on Highway 101 in Ignacio.

Clifford Lund, foreman of the Marin County Grand Jury, will speak on the community concern of drug abuse. Undersheriff Sidney Stinson will talk on the legal aspects of drug abuse. Lawrence Lindbert, director of instruction for Marin County schools, will speak on what the schools are doing about drugs.

Dr. Sanford Feinglass, doctor of philosophy in pharmacology and former instructor at the University of California Medical School in San Francisco, will discuss the pharmacological aspects of marijuana and drugs.

Revolver Reported Stolen From Home

A .38 caliber revolver was reported stolen Sunday from the home of Gerald H. Hayes of 231 Laurel Place, San Rafael.

Although the home was ransacked, apparently nothing else was taken, said police. A witness said two men were seen running down the stairs of the apartment house and asked to be directed to the way out.

Unusual Auction Set To Help Foster Home

The sponsors of a pleasant and sunny house in Tamalpais Valley where children find surcease from some of life's cruelties are planning an unusual auction to help pay for another year's operation of the foster home, which is called the Children's Garden.

The free use of Ted Shafer's Dixieland band for a party, an interest in a wildcat oil well, a luncheon for 10 aboard an Italian liner and a Mustang sedan will be among the things auctioned by the Children's Garden Auxiliary on Nov. 4 at the Hilton Hotel in San Francisco.

Mrs. Osborn Howes of Kentfield, chairman of the auction, said the women hope to raise $10,000 for operation of the cheerful, gray clapboard house at 359 Jean Street which is at present the home of five youngsters and "Dixie," an amiable, half grown German shepherd dog named by the children.

The house, an average four-bedroom house, on an average street, in a neighborhood full of children and dogs, is a kind of garden for its inhabitants.

None of them had homes before they were sent there for the Youth Guidance Center in San Francisco, a "locked door" facility where many of the youngsters are delinquents. The children at the Children's Garden, all of them 10 years or younger, were not delinquents, but lacked stable homes.

The children quickly fall into the habit of calling Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich "Mommy" and "Daddy," but the Dietrichs do not try to sell them on any fantasy that the Children's Garden is their home forever.

"We tell them that we don't know how long they will be here, that they will eventually be going to foster homes or back to their own homes. When the time comes for them to leave, we tell them ourselves.

"We take no particular notice of it when they call us 'Mommy' or 'Daddy.' But of course when we are angry and discipline them, we want them to call us Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich, because we want them to have respect."

Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich are a calm and loving couple with a low-panic quotient. The wounds of children heal quickly and the residents of the Children's Garden have, on the whole, rather happy and secure days.

The foster home is partly supported by state funds, and with financial help — from such functions as the auction on Nov. 4 — the Bay Area women who started the project hope eventually to open another Children's Garden

Highway Deaths Down From '66

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A total of 80 fewer deaths was recorded on California's highways during the first nine months of 1967 than during the same period last year, the Highway Patrol reported Monday.

The patrol said 3,416 persons died in traffic accidents from January through September this year, compared with 3,496 for the first nine months in 1966.

However, two more fatalities occurred in September than in the same month last year. That ended five consecutive months that traffic deaths were below the same months last year. A total of 443 persons died in traffic accidents last month.

Peace Plea Sent To Vietnam Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiation Now!—a group seeking peace in Vietnam— says it has cabled the Viet Cong and the Hanoi regime to respond favorably to what it hopes will be an American peace initiative.

Representatives of the group are in Washington to present to President Johnson and Congress a petition it says is signed by 500,000 Americans who want a quick end to the fighting.

The group asks the United States to make the first peace move: an unconditional halt to the bombing of North Vietnam and an agreement to include the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong, as an official party to negotiations.

Shots Ring Out At Tamalpais High

Four high-caliber shots were fired — possibly at two youths eating their lunch—by a carload of teen-agers near a Tamalpais High School parking lot yesterday afternoon, sheriff's officers said today.

No one was injured.

Sheriff's Inspector Guido Battaglia said today an all-points bulletin has been issued in a search for the vehicle and its occupants, and two investigators were trying to contact the apparently intended victims for statements.

WITNESSES

According to witnesses, whom officers declined to identify, the shooting occurred at 12:20 p.m. at a teacher's parking lot off Miller Avenue.

One witness told deputies he saw a car with four Negro youths and a young Negro girl in an orange-colored dress park on Miller Avenue. He thought they might be Marin City residents, he said, and walked over.

According to the witness, separated from the car by a tall chain-link fence, he said nothing but heard one of the youths say, "Hit him. Hit him. Hit him." He said he moved away and heard two shots in rapid succession.

MOVED AWAY

The youth said the car then moved slowly away, and two more shots were fired. Girls playing tennis on nearby courts began screaming, he said, but he thought the shots were at two other youths eating their lunch in or near an old white Cadillac car.

The pair, identified as a Joseph (Junnie Boy) Fusilier and James Huff, both believed to reside in Marin City, then drove off in the Cadillac, Smith said. He said he believed one of the assailants was from Hunters Point in San Francisco.

Deputy James L. Current said investigation disclosed one of the bullets struck a plywood panel attached to the tennis court fence. He said the caliber was slightly smaller than that of a .38, and probably was .32 caliber. The slug struck about 100 feet from the street curb, he added.

NOT AT CLASSES

Officers said Huff is a student but apparently didn't attend classes yesterday morning. Fusilier and yet another youth identified as Albert Gibson, had been "hanging around" the school but had been asked to leave, officers added.

Henry A. Marshall, dean of boys, reported the shooting. He described the assailant's car as a white 1965 model Pontiac.

Theft Revealed In Investigation

Investigation of last weekend's vandalism at Manzanita School in Marin City brought to light a theft of three weeks ago, sheriff's deputies reported today.

While deputies were following up on the break-in and vandalism—in which nothing was stolen—the school secretary reported the earlier theft of a school AM-FM radio. No value was given.

The school vandalism was discovered early Monday by a patrolling deputy. Windows had been broken and debris scattered in the hall.

Woman Held Insane For Shooting Spree

A red-haired secretary who began shooting at random on a downtown street two weeks ago has been ordered confined to the medical facility at the Corona Penal Institution for Women.

Twenty-six year old Noel Gansz, who wounded one man seriously and narrowly missed another in the shooting spree, was judged insane by two psychiatrists. The men she shot were strangers.

Jakarta-Peking Split Revealed

JAKARTA (UPI) — Foreign Minister Adam Malik said today Indonesia suspended diplomatic relations with Red China more than a month ago but did not publicly announce it until yesterday.

Malik's statement came at a time when anti-Communist students and at least two Jakarta newspapers demanded the break be made permanent.

Sausalito Drydocks' Fate Now Up To Judge

Decision on whether to order that four large dry docks mired off Sausalito shores be moved was taken under submission by Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. yesterday following a non-jury hearing on the matter in Marin Municipal Court.

The civil complaint for forcing Delmar D. Wise of Sausalito to move the docks was filed by County of Marin, which contends they are on underwater street rights-of-way held by the county and therefore are illegal encroachments of public land.

Wise, who heads Diesel Engineering and Maintenance Co. in Sausalito, testified yesterday that he is owner of the docks, and that his project was to move them to yards he owns in Sausalito.

However, the docks — bought last summer in a sale for disposal of properties of the defunct Moore Drydock Co. in Oakland — became mired offshore in late summer of 1966, and have been there since.

Wise told the court yesterday that he was digging a channel so that the docks could be moved on to his yards, but the dredging machine sank in high winds about three weeks ago.

Wise plans to repair the docks, worth a reputed $3.5 million each if put into shape, then sell them. He estimated in court it would take at least three months to move the docks out, or would take six months to salvage the dredge and move the barges into his yards.

Joseph A. Forest, deputy county counsel, said the suit was initiated by complaints against the barges by Sausalito area residents.

Wise contends the state, not the county, is the proper body to bring the civil suit against him, and also that the suit should be in Superior Court since Richardson Bay, where the docks are located, is worth over the $5,000 maximum for municipal court cases. He is defended by Frank C. S. Pedersen of San Francisco.

Pike Condemns U.S. In Vietnam

MARQUETTE, Wis. (UPI) — Former Episcopal Bishop James Pike of California last night blasted the United States as "invaders" in Vietnam.

Speaking before about 2,000 students at Northern Michigan University, Pike attacked the U.S. effort in Southeast Asia and demanded that the country turn its attention to fighting domestic problems.

"I'm for the Vietnamese and not the invaders or the quislings we have in there," Pike said. "If we had a little humility we might not be blinded into slaughtering ourselves as well as others."

Grid Coaches Begin Week With Mixed Emotions

By GARY TISCHLER

Monday morning is a limbo time for coaches.

They either feel good and proud, or bad and disgusted, and even if they feel good they have to worry about the coming weekend.

For the record, here's the dispositions for this week: Al Scott, Novato, and Bob Troppmann, Redwood: feeling darn good; Don Lucas, Terra Linda: good but looking ahead; Bob Muster, San Rafael: not so good; Bob Franceschini, Drake: disappointed in losing but somewhat proud; Willie Hector, Tamalpais: disgusted.

Scott, who was feeling a little bit like Hector a week earlier, was understandably elated over his Hornets' 20-7 upset of Tamalpais.

"We just caught them," Scott said. "I guess we wanted to hit a little more."

The whole game felt like skating on thin ice to Scott.

"Boy, we were really thin in spots," he said. "We didn't have a backup quarterback and only one fullback. We used three halfbacks in the last quarter after John Duran gutted it out for three periods. He had sore hips and ankles.

"I just hope we can stay up like that," Scott said of his Hornets who face Redwood Friday night in the tight Marin County Athletic League race.

Hector, who had high hopes for the MCAL title that his Indians narrowly missed last year, put it simply.

"Eecchh!" was his first comment.

"We just looked dead. The kids didn't want to hit."

"You can prepare or put in any play you want," Hector said, "But if the job isn't done, then it won't work."

At least the Indians came out of the game without any injuries.

Franceschini, whose Pirates lost a hard-hitting tug-of-war with St. Ignatius of the Catholic League last Saturday, did not see any adverse effects from the disappointing 12-7 loss.

"I can't see any letdown at all," he said. "It only makes us better to play teams like that."

Franceschini wasn't too happy with his offense's output.

"They (S.I.) shot linebackers all night," he said. "Out offense wasn't up to par and they were really penetrating."

The Pirates play San Rafael at San Rafael High Saturday night but Franceschini is also thinking about Terra Linda. Maybe because the Trojans remind him a lot of St. Ignatius.

Lucas is also thinking just a wee bit about Drake. The Trojans haven't beaten the Pirates in five tries.

Lucas was not all that happy about last week's 20-0 win over San Rafael.

"We did a poor job hitting and tackling," he said. "San Rafael stayed right with us."

Lucas will have another problem to contend with Friday night when his Trojans meet highly touted South San Francisco in a non-league game at San Rafael.

"I expect it to be the toughest game we've been in so far," he said. "They're big. They have 240-pound tackles."

Muster, who doesn't have 240-pound tackles, was happy with his 210-pound tackle Chris Klyce.

"Chris did a fine job," Muster said. "Whatever we managed to gain on offense, it was over his tackle spot."

Muster still has to shore up a stumbling offense.

"We've got to break those backs loose sometimes for the big gain," he said. "We can move pretty well so that's not the problem.

The Bulldogs will have to, with Drake coming up and powerful Oakdale after that.

"I didn't particularly like to see 50 points," Troppmann said. "But it was really good for the boys. It lifted their morale."

It was also a good time to heal wounds.

"We'll probably have to tackle Joe Ryall back and fullback Joe Murphy has been working out although I don't know if he'll play," Troppmann said.

Larry Blackwell, the flash halfback who scored four touchdowns against Galileo to set a Redwood school record, also got a big lift.

"It helped him," Troppmann said. "I still think he's one of the two best halfbacks I've had at Redwood."

Series Returns To Boston For Sixth Game

JIM GILMARTIN

49ers' Christiansen May Revive Vaudeville

THE SHOWMAN — Forty-Niner Coach Jack Christiansen is becoming quite a showman. Give him a straw hat, cane and soft shoes and he may revive vaudeville.

"Who was that lady I saw you with last night?"

"That was no lady, that was my quarterback."

Or, "Why did the chicken cross the road?"

"Because the Rams were blitzing."

There are all sorts of openings for men of Christiansen's talent in show business today.

Did you catch Happy Jack's latest performance on television Sunday after his 49ers upset the Rams? He presented a mixture of Milton Berle and Peter Lorre in one brief interview. Slapstick one moment, evil the next. Comedy and tragedy.

Readjustments In Standings

Asked a question by straight man Gordy (The Interlocutor) Soltau, Happy Jack interrupted the show, turned his back to the camera and readjusted the NFL Standings. The stagehands had placed Los Angeles ahead of San Francisco on the ladder though both were tied, so Chris gloatingly transposed their positions on the board. It was hilarious. A real knee-slapper. Soltau even giggled.

Then, just before the post-game show's conclusion, Chris donned his Peter Lorre mask, glared out into the camera and facetiously "thanked" Los Angeles sports writers for inspiring his team to victory through their poison-pen remarks. " . . . Those beautiful L.A. writers," he hissed, like a scene out of the Maltese Falcon.

It was Happy Jack's second emotional outburst of the week against free-speaking reporters. Earlier, he publicly scolded a San Francisco disc jockey for some unflattering remarks after the 49er debacle in Baltimore.

You see, anyone who dares say anything derogatory about Christiansen's 49ers had better be prepared for a tongue-lashing from pro football's newest Song and Dance Man.

Can't Fault 49ers In L.A.

Happy Jack should be in a good frame of mind this week because it would be difficult for anyone to fault the 49er performance in L.A. Their defense made the comeback of the year and actually beat the Rams at their own game; and their offensive line played up to its potential as the very best in pro football.

And, except for three Brodies, 49er quarterback John Interception had one of his better days in a hot and cold career. John-John actually outplayed Ram quarterback Roman Gabriel, who also threw three Brodies.

The 49er victory left them in excellent position. If they get by the dangerous Eagles in Philadelphia Sunday, they will come back to the friendly confines of Kezar with a 4-1 record and more than half of their road games out of the way.

The victory over the Rams didn't clinch any championships, but it certainly revived what a few days earlier had seemed to be a lost cause.

39 Lucky Number At Tomales High

CARBON COPY — Tomales High's football program seems to be in a rut. Last weekend the Tomales junior varsity whipped their San Rafael Military Academy counterparts 39-0. Later, the Tomales varsity defeated SRMA by — 39-0.

FOOD BALL — After his Giants clobbered predominantly Italian Galileo High 50-7 in San Francisco last Friday, Redwood High Coach Bob Troppmann took the team to a victory feast at Fior d'Italia followed by a sight-seeing tour of North Beach. Now that's what I call rubbing it in.

Cards 6-5 To Win Tomorrow's Game

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—The St. Louis Cardinals dropped from 8-1 favorites to capture the World Series to 17-5 today in the odds posted by Las Vegas oddsmaker Jimmy (The Greek) Snyder as a result of their 3-1 loss to Boston yesterday in the fifth game.

Pitching: Hughes Vs. Waslewski

BOSTON (AP)—Dick Hughes is going to keep his pitches "high and tight, low and away" when he starts against the Boston Red Sox tomorrow and Boston Manager Dick Williams is going to keep the St. Louis Cardinals in suspense with a new starting pitcher—Gary Waslewski.

Both managers named the starting pitchers for the sixth game after Jim Lonborg sent the Series back to Boston with a 3-1 victory yesterday in St. Louis. It was the second victory in the Series for the 6-foot-5 right-hander.

10 O'Clock On TV

Tomorrow's sixth World Series game will be televised on NBC (Channel 4), gametime 10 a.m.

The Cardinal dressing room was subdued, but not concerned. Julian Javier, who made another spectacular play at second base to match his gem in the second game, summed up the Cardinals' feelings.

"We're going to beat them there (in Boston)," he predicted. "We still have the hammer and we're still in front." The Cardinals still have a 3-2 lead in the best-of-7 series.

Carl Yastrzemski, the Boston left fielder, said, "They're going to know they've been in a fight." And despite the Cardinal lead he said the pressure is now on the Cardinals.

Lonborg Deserves Honorary Spot In College Of Surgeons

BOSTON (AP) — Jim Lonborg, who once aspired to be a doctor, deserves at least an honorary spot in the college of surgeons because of the way he operates on the pitching mound.

Lonborg, a 24-year-old Stanford University graduate with a degree in biology, gambled on a baseball career in giving up medical plans while in college. Now he's wielding a different type of scalpel for the Boston Red Sox.

The 6-foot-5 right-hander saved the Red Sox once again yesterday as he sent the 64th World Series back to Boston with a brilliant three-hit, 3-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, who failed in a bid to end the fall classic with a three-game sweep at home.

"I never think winning is impossible," Lonborg said—and the Cardinals probably have to admit beating him just about is.

Gentleman Jim, who discards the tag once he takes the mound, stuck to business in the Series' fifth game. In a one-hit masterpiece in the second game, he brushed back a couple of Cardinals. And during the regular season he hit 19 batters, not all intentionally.

"When I'm hitting the corners on the outside, there's no need to go inside," Lonborg said matter-of-factly.

"I went more to the fast ball today," he said. "I was hitting spots, the outside corners. When they started getting a good rip at the pitch away, I went to the breaking ball.

"Even when I got behind, I felt I could challenge them and come right down the middle. This is a big ball park so they can hit it and there's still room for someone to catch it."

Lonborg didn't let his outfielders get too busy, though. The Cardinals managed to lift only five balls past the Boston infield. Three went for fairly routine putouts, one was Roger Maris' line single in the fourth and the last Maris' two-out homer in the ninth.

Lonborg, who lost a no-hit bid on Julian Javier's eighth inning single in Boston last Thursday, wasn't disturbed by Maris' clout, which just cleared the wall in right near the foul line, 330 feet from the plate.

"With a 3-0 lead, I didn't care about the shutout," Lonborg said. "I just wanted to get the game over. He hit a change-up, down and in. I don't know how he hit it."

Lonborg, suffering from a slight cold, watched the television program "Mission Impossible" before hitting the sack Sunday night. Then he cooly went out and did what many St. Louis rooters thought was impossible—stopping the Cards a second straight time.

Chamberlain To Sign $250,000 Contract

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain ended his stubborn holdout today, and agreed to sign with the National Basketball Association's Philadelphia 76ers for what is believed to be the highest salary ever paid an athlete.

Neither the terms of the contract, or its length were immediately known, but the Associated Press learned it may gross Chamberlain upwards of $250,000. Apparently the contract was for one year.

It has been reported that Chamberlain earned more than $200,000 last year in salary with the 76ers. He worked under a one year contract in 1966-67.

General Manager Jack Ramsay of the76ers said Chamberlain has agreed to terms and the contract is sitting in the 76ers office waiting for Wilt to come and sign it.

Ramsay said he did not know where Chamberlain was, but it was believed the player had gone to the West Coast to clear up some personal matters. He said he had expected Chamberlain Monday and hoped he would show up today.

The 76ers play an exhibition game at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., tonight and Ramsay said it was possible Chamberlain would play. The 76ers, as they have been doing during the exhibition season, will take Wilt's bag with his playing equipment to the game.

Reds, Braves In Four-Man Swap Deal

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds announced today they have traded slumping infielder Deron Johnson to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Mack Jones, pitcher Jay Richie and first baseman - outfielder Jim Beauchamp.

Both Ritchie, who was 4-6 last season at Atlanta, and Beauchamp will be assigned to the Reds' farm club at Buffalo.

Johnson, 28, who reached the major leagues with the New York Yankees, came to the Reds in 1964. He had a great season in 1965, batting .278 and driving in 130 runs, but hit only .225 last season with 13 home runs and 53 runs batted in. He spent much of the latter part of the season on the bench.

Jones, 28, had a .253 batting average in 137 games during the 1967 season.

By GARY TISCHLER

They either feel good and proud, or bad and disgusted, and even if they feel good they have to worry about the coming weekend.

For the record, here's the dispositions for this week: Al Scott, Novato, and Bob Troppmann, Redwood: feeling darn good; Don Lucas, Terra Linda: good but looking ahead; Bob Muster, San Rafael: not so good; Bob Franceschini, Drake: disappointed in losing but somewhat proud; Willie Hector, Tamalpais: disgusted.

Scott, who was feeling a little bit like Hector a week earlier, was understandably elated over his Hornets' 20-7 upset of Tamalpais.

"We just caught them," Scott said. "I guess we wanted to hit a little more."

The whole game felt like skating on thin ice to Scott.

"Boy, we were really thin in spots," he said. "We didn't have a backup quarterback and only one fullback. We used three halfbacks in the last quarter after John Duran gutted it out for three periods. He had sore hips and ankles.

"I just hope we can stay up like that," Scott said of his Hornets who face Redwood Friday night in the tight Marin County Athletic League race.

Hector, who had high hopes for the MCAL title that his Indians narrowly missed last year, put it simply.

"Eecchh!" was his first comment.

"We just looked dead. The kids didn't want to hit."

"You can prepare or put in any play you want," Hector said, "But if the job isn't done, then it won't work."

Franceschini, whose Pirates lost a hard-hitting tug-of-war with St. Ignatius of the Catholic League last Saturday, did not see any adverse effects from the disappointing 12-7 loss.

"I can't see any letdown at all," he said. "It only makes us better to play teams like that."

Franceschini wasn't too happy with his offense's output.

"They (S.I.) shot linebackers all night," he said. "Out offense wasn't up to par and they were really penetrating."

The Pirates play San Rafael at San Rafael High Saturday night but Franceschini is also thinking about Terra Linda. Maybe because the Trojans remind him a lot of St. Ignatius.

Lucas is also thinking just a wee bit about Drake. The Trojans haven't beaten the Pirates in five tries.

Lucas was not all that happy about last week's 20-0 win over San Rafael.

"We did a poor job hitting and tackling," he said. "San Rafael stayed right with us."

Lucas will have another problem to contend with Friday night when his Trojans meet highly touted South San Francisco in a non-league game at San Rafael.

"I expect it to be the toughest game we've been in so far," he said. "They're big. They have 240-pound tackles."

Muster, who doesn't have 240-pound tackles, was happy with his 210-pound tackle Chris Klyce.

"Chris did a fine job," Muster said. "Whatever we managed to gain on offense, it was over his tackle spot."

Muster still has to shore up a stumbling offense.

"We've got to break those backs loose sometimes for the big gain," he said. "We can move pretty well so that's not the problem.

The Bulldogs will have to, with Drake coming up and powerful Oakdale after that.

"I didn't particularly like to see 50 points," Troppmann said. "But it was really good for the boys. It lifted their morale."

It was also a good time to heal wounds.

"We'll probably have to tackle Joe Ryall back and fullback Joe Murphy has been working out although I don't know if he'll play," Troppmann said.

Larry Blackwell, the flash halfback who scored four touchdowns against Galileo to set a Redwood school record, also got a big lift.

"It helped him," Troppmann said. "I still think he's one of the two best halfbacks I've had at Redwood."

Series Returns To Boston For Sixth Game

Pitching: Hughes Vs. Waslewski

BOSTON (AP)—Dick Hughes is going to keep his pitches "high and tight, low and away" when he starts against the Boston Red Sox tomorrow and Boston Manager Dick Williams is going to keep the St. Louis Cardinals in suspense with a new starting pitcher—Gary Waslewski.

Both managers named the starting pitchers for the sixth game after Jim Lonborg sent the Series back to Boston with a 3-1 victory yesterday in St. Louis. It was the second victory in the Series for the 6-foot-5 right-hander.

10 O'Clock On TV

Tomorrow's sixth World Series game will be televised on NBC (Channel 4), gametime 10 a.m.

The Cardinal dressing room was subdued, but not concerned. Julian Javier, who made another spectacular play at second base to match his gem in the second game, summed up the Cardinals' feelings.

"We're going to beat them there (in Boston)," he predicted. "We still have the hammer and we're still in front." The Cardinals still have a 3-2 lead in the best-of-7 series.

Carl Yastrzemski, the Boston left fielder, said, "They're going to know they've been in a fight." And despite the Cardinal lead he said the pressure is now on the Cardinals.

"You can bet they're thinking about the last two games in Fenway Park," Yaz com-

49ers' Christiansen May Revive Vaudeville

THE SHOWMAN — Forty-Niner Coach Jack Christiansen is becoming quite a showman. Give him a straw hat, cane and soft shoes and he may revive vaudeville.

"Who was that lady I saw you with last night?"

"That was no lady, that was my quarterback."

Or, "Why did the chicken cross the road?"

"Because the Rams were blitzing."

There are all sorts of openings for men of Christiansen's talent in show business today.

Did you catch Happy Jack's latest performance on television Sunday after his 49ers upset the Rams? He presented a mixture of Milton Berle and Peter Lorre in one brief interview. Slapstick one moment, evil the next. Comedy and tragedy.

Readjustments In Standings

Asked a question by straight man Gordy (The Interlocutor) Soltau, Happy Jack interrupted the show, turned his back to the camera and readjusted the NFL Standings. The stagehands had placed Los Angeles ahead of San Francisco on the ladder though both were tied, so Chris gloatingly transposed their positions on the board. It was hilarious. A real knee-slapper. Soltau even giggled.

Then, just before the post-game show's conclusion, Chris donned his Peter Lorre mask, glared out into the camera and facetiously "thanked" Los Angeles sports writers for inspiring his team to victory through their poison-pen remarks. " . . . Those beautiful L.A. writers," he hissed, like a scene out of the Maltese Falcon.

It was Happy Jack's second emotional outburst of the week against free-speaking reporters. Earlier, he publicly scolded a San Francisco disc jockey for some unflattering remarks after the 49er debacle in Baltimore.

You see, anyone who dares say anything derogatory about Christiansen's 49ers had better be prepared for a tongue-lashing from pro football's newest Song and Dance Man.

Can't Fault 49ers In L.A.

Happy Jack should be in a good frame of mind this week because it would be difficult for anyone to fault the 49er performance in L.A. Their defense made the comeback of the year and actually beat the Rams at their own game; and their offensive line played up to its potential as the very best in pro football.

And, except for three Brodies, 49er quarterback John Interception had one of his better days in a hot and cold career. John-John actually outplayed Ram quarterback Roman Gabriel, who also threw three Brodies.

The 49er victory left them in excellent position. If they get by the dangerous Eagles in Philadelphia Sunday, they will come back to the friendly confines of Kezar with a 4-1 record and more than half of their road games out of the way.

The victory over the Rams didn't clinch any championships, but it certainly revived what a few days earlier had seemed to be a lost cause.

39 Lucky Number At Tomales High

CARBON COPY — Tomales High's football program seems to be in a rut. Last weekend the Tomales junior varsity whipped their San Rafael Military Academy counterparts 39-0. Later, the Tomales varsity defeated SRMA by — 39-0.

FOOD BALL — After his Giants clobbered predominantly Italian Galileo High 50-7 in San Francisco last Friday, Redwood High Coach Bob Troppmann took the team to a victory feast at Fior d'Italia followed by a sight-seeing tour of North Beach. Now that's what I call rubbing it in.

Cards 6-5 To Win Tomorrow's Game

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—The St. Louis Cardinals dropped from 8-1 favorites to capture the World Series to 17-5 today in the odds posted by Las Vegas oddsmaker Jimmy (The Greek) Snyder as a result of their 3-1 loss to Boston yesterday in the fifth game.

Lonborg Deserves Honorary Spot In College Of Surgeons

BOSTON (AP) — Jim Lonborg, who once aspired to be a doctor, deserves at least an honorary spot in the college of surgeons because of the way he operates on the pitching mound.

Lonborg, a 24-year-old Stanford University graduate with a degree in biology, gambled on a baseball career in giving up medical plans while in college. Now he's wielding a different type of scalpel for the Boston Red Sox.

The 6-foot-5 right-hander saved the Red Sox once again yesterday as he sent the 64th World Series back to Boston with a brilliant three-hit, 3-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, who failed in a bid to end the fall classic with a three-game sweep at home.

"I never think winning is impossible," Lonborg said—and the Cardinals probably have to admit beating him just about is.

Gentleman Jim, who discards the tag once he takes the mound, stuck to business in the Series' fifth game. In a one-hit masterpiece in the second game, he brushed back a couple of Cardinals. And during the regular season he hit 19 batters, not all intentionally.

"When I'm hitting the corners on the outside, there's no need to go inside," Lonborg said matter-of-factly.

"I went more to the fast ball today," he said. "I was hitting spots, the outside corners. When they started getting a good rip at the pitch away, I went to the breaking ball.

"Even when I got behind, I felt I could challenge them and come right down the middle. This is a big ball park so they can hit it and there's still room for someone to catch it."

Lonborg didn't let his outfielders get too busy, though. The Cardinals managed to lift only five balls past the Boston infield. Three went for fairly routine putouts, one was Roger Maris' line single in the fourth and the last Maris' two-out homer in the ninth.

Lonborg, who lost a no-hit bid on Julian Javier's eighth inning single in Boston last Thursday, wasn't disturbed by Maris' clout, which just cleared the wall in right near the foul line, 330 feet from the plate.

"With a 3-0 lead, I didn't care about the shutout," Lonborg said. "I just wanted to get the game over. He hit a change-up, down and in. I don't know how he hit it."

Lonborg, suffering from a slight cold, watched the television program "Mission Impossible" before hitting the sack Sunday night. Then he cooly went out and did what many St. Louis rooters thought was impossible—stopping the Cards a second straight time.

Marin Fans Brave Glaring Ram Crowd

By RALPH CHATOIAN

It was like a dream. San Francisco 49ers beating the Los Angeles Rams 20-0 after the first half.

But then you start that slow waking up process. You don't want that dream to end but here you are, wide awake and back in reality, the Niners down, 21-20. Then 24-20.

There you are, foreigners in a hostile crowd of 60,424, cheering on the red-shirted 49ers and bravely taking the glares of all those Rams fans.

The Los Angeles Coliseum crowd, sweltering in the heat, boos the Rams in the first half as they fumble the ball to the 49ers three times and give up the ball twice on interceptions.

Boos turn to cheers the second half when the Rams score three touchdowns in 10 minutes. The dream's over. But wait a minute. There's Sonny Randle streaking behind a Ram defender. Brodie puts one in the air. Randle leaps and comes down with the ball for a touchdown and the 49ers have founght back to lead 27-24.

That guy in front of you, the one who had kept turning around to say that the Rams were going to beat the 49ers by 13 points, is sullen. By now the 49ers again have the ball and are ripping holes in the Fearsome Foursome, eating up the clock. Then the gun. It's over, the 49ers have upset the Rams, Los Angeles losing its first game of the year after winning six in exhibition and three in the regular season.

"But Mary, to the 49ers?" grumbles a man to his wife. "Those Rams stunk!" says another.

But there were four grinning faces in the crowd. Jack Cooper, Ray Reed, Bill Manning and yours truly, a Marin County fearsome foursome which drove to Los Angeles to cheer on two of our Northern California football teams.

Saturday night in the L.A. Coliseum it was the Stanford Indians who were manhandled by the University of Southern California Trojans, 30-0. (Everything they say about O.J. Simpson is true. He's really a good one.)

But the Stanford cheer leader came up with a good one of his own. When the public address announcer was listing the yardage Simpson had gained rushing and catching passes, the Stanford cheer leader barked in the microphone, "Yeh, but can he read?"

Before the 49ers-Ram game yesterday morning, we all got a boot out of reading a story in the Los Angeles Times which said the 49ers' main problem was lack of being mean. They weren't exactly pussy-footing it around on the field yesterday.

And did you TV interviewers see who made the tackle on Los Angeles' Clarence Williams after he intercepted a John Brodie pass in the third quarter? It was Brodie (I'd rather do it myself).

USC Remains On Top Of AP Grid Ratings

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern California, with a strengthened grip on the top spot in The Associated Press football poll, faces perhaps the toughest opponent on its schedule Saturday, playing Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind.

The Trojans, who received 36 of the 50 first-place votes from a panel of sportswriters and broadcasters, held a safe margin over second-place Purdue, which received 10 first-place votes while North Carolina State got four.

Southern Cal had 462 votes to Purdue's 385. Notre Dame rose from seventh last week to fifth with a 56-6 pounding of Iowa, setting up the big battle this Saturday.

Purdue, rising from fourth to second with its victory over Northwestern, faces Ohio State, 1-1, this week. Georgia, moving up from fifth to third by beating South Carolina, meets Mississippi, 1-2.

UCLA, scared by Penn State before winning 17-15, fell from third to fourth in the balloting.

Seals Undecided On Goalie For Tomorrow's Opener

The long and short of it for California Seals is the question of who will be in the goal for them in their National Hockey League opener at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow against Philadelphia in the Oakland Arena.

The Seals' choice is between 6-4 Gary Smith and 5-6 Charlie Hodge, first draft choice of the Seals who arrived 18 days late to training camp and still may be out of shape.

The visiting Flyers are in the same predicament. They have a young hotshot net-minder from the minors, Doug Favell, while top draft choice Bernie Parent from Boston was a late arrival but has been rounding into shape.

Bears Start New Season Saturday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"We start a new season Saturday. I doubt if anyone else has as tough a schedule as this in the next four weeks: UCLA, Syracuse, Washington and Southern California."

That was California Coach Ray Willsey's not too optimistic outlook as he spoke to Northern California sports writers and broadcasters yesterday.

USC is ranked No. 1 nationally, UCLA No. 4, and both Syracuse and Washington are in the top 20. California is 3-1, its only loss to Notre Dame.

"UCLA has great speed, an excellent quarterback, Gary Beban, and can do a lot of little things that are necessary to keep Bruins are one of the better teams in the country.

"We look forward to playing UCLA; we like to shoot for the big ones."

Willsey said he expects both Mike Meers and Jerome Champion, tackles injured in the Bears' 14-12 victory over the Air Force, and halfback Paul Williams, hurt earlier, to be ready for the UCLA game at Los Angeles Saturday night.

He praised quarterback Barry Bronk for "his best game." Bronk was the writers Back of the Week; Stanford's Marty Brill, Lineman of the Week.

Willsey might consult Stanford Coach John Ralston about USC, which stopped Stanford, 30 - 0. Ralston told the writers:

"USC is truly outstanding. As long as O.J. stays healthy, USC can play anyone. Their linebacking is the best in the Paci-

Ralston noted that Stanford hasn't beaten Washington State, its Saturday foe at Stanford, since a 40-26 triumph at Spokane in 1957. The Cougars have won all eight of their games since.

Comment from others:

Doug Scovil, University of the Pacific, which lost 7-21 to Montana "We didn't take advantage of the breaks. We told the team, 'The only way to win is to stop making mistakes.'"

Pat Malley, Santa Clara, which plays San Fernando Valley at home Saturday—"Their quarterback Bruce Lemmerman is an outstanding passer, runner, and team leader. He's the equal of Gary Beban, one of the best quarterbacks on the coast."

Vic Rowen, San Francisco — "The kids were down 0-6 on a 79-yard runback but that didn't stop them. We're running like cross-country this week training for Chico State. There quarterback Joe Stetser throws 75 and 80 times a game."

Irish 12-Point Choice Over Top-Ranked Troy

NEW YORK (UPI)—Southern California may be top-ranked with the nation's coaches, but as far as the oddsmakers are concerned the Trojans are second-rate to Notre Dame.

The Fighting Irish, bounding back from a loss to Purdue with an Iowa massacre, were made 12-point favorites to jolt USC Saturday. The No. 5 ranked Notre Dame defense, the oddsmakers figure, is strong enough to contain O.J. Simpson.

Second ranked Purdue escaped from a tenacious Northwestern team and now runs into conditioned Ohio State. The Boilermakers are six-point choices over their Big Ten rivals. Leroy Keyes, however, could break the game open for Purdue.

UCLA, a top candidate for Rose Bowl honors, is an overwhelming 20-point favorite over California and many consider this spread generous because of Gary Beban's generalship.

No. 5 Georgia, shooting for an undisputed Southeastern conference title this year, rates a five-point pick over league rival Mississippi, while No. 6 Alabama is a huge 20-point favorite over Vanderbilt.

Colorado, No. 7 is considered seven points better than No. 8 Missouri in a battle of unbeaten and untied teams. Nebraska rates 12 points higher than Kansas in a Big Eight conference game, and Louisiana State is a touchdown favorite over tough Miami of Florida.

In key Eastern games, Penn State is rated by 9 over Boston College, Holy Cross by 7 over Colgate, Harvard by 15 over Columbia, Cornell by 3 over Princeton, Dartmouth by 15 over Pennsylvania, Yale by 13 over Brown, and Syracuse-Navy is rated a pick 'em contest.

Midwest — Michigan State 10 over Michigan, Wisconsin 7 over Pittsburgh, Indiana 10 over Iowa and Kansas State 5 over Iowa State.

South—Florida 6 over Tulane Virginia Tech 7 over Kentucky, Duke 7 over Virginia, Auburn 4 over Clemson, Florida State 8 over South Carolina, North Carolina State 13 over Maryland and Tennessee 4 over Georgia

Southwest —SMU 2 over Army, Rice 7 over Northwestern, Texas Tech 4 over Texas A&M and Arkansas 7 over Baylor.

West—Air Force 6 over North Carolina, Washington 12 over Oregon and Stanford 10 over Washington State.

Bins Miss Wins At Bay Meadows

SAN MATEO (AP) — Bins Miss took the lead going out of the gate and held on handily to win the $7,500 Half Moon Bay Purse at Bay Meadows by three - and -a-quarter lengths yesterday.

Lucky Spot came from fourth in the stretch to take second place one-half length against Silk 'n' Set.

Bins Miss returned $8.80, $5.00 and $2.60. Lucky Spot paid $7.20 and $3.00 and Silkn 'n' Set $2.20.

And Boston second baseman Mike Andrews found a parallel between the Series and Boston's fairy tale finish in the American League. Boston beat the favored Minnesota Twins in the last two games of the regular season to win the pennant.

"It's the same situation as against Minnesota, when we had to win two for the pennant," he said.

"Now we'll have our home fans rooting for us. We've had our backs to the wall all season and I guess you might say that this is the way it should be. Things don't come easy for us."

PITCHED SATURDAY

Manager Dick Williams said rookie right-hander Waslewski would be Boston's starter. During the regular season Waslewski started only eight games and had a 2-2 record. The Cardinals saw Waslewski for three innings in Saturday's game. He didn't give up a hit and struck out three.

"He has the stuff, the equipment—which he showed with those three fine innings of relief," Williams said. "All I want to do is concentrate on every pitch."

Red Schoendienst said Hughes would pitch tomorrow and Bob Gibson Thursday, if necessary. Hughes was beaten by Lonborg with a one-hitter last Thursday.

"He (Lonborg) certainly did a good job," Schoendienst said. "He pitched better here than in Boston. We only hit a couple of balls good off him. Maris had two (including his ninth-inning homer that ended Lonborg's series shutout string at 17 2-3 innings) and Brock and Cepeda each hit one good."

Seattle Group Gives Finley Assurance Of New Stadium

COMBINED AP & UPI

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A private development firm yesterday offered Charles Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, a positive assurance that a stadium will be built in Seattle.

K. A. Sanwick Jr., a trustee of the company, said that his firm is willing to build the stadium at nearby Kent now or in the event that a proposed bond issue fails to receive voter approval next year.

The State Stadium Commission, which will decide on where to build and how to finance a stadium, would have the option of going to the voters in February for a bond issue to finance the stadium. In the event the bond issue fails, the firm's offer would still stand, Sanwick said.

FOOTBALL

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football League will be without the services of veteran split end and flanker Billy Gambrell for at least two weeks. X-rays taken yesterlay revealed that Gambrell suffered a slight separation of his right shoulder during the Cardinals' 34-24 triumph over Minnesota Sunday.

ANN ARBOR, Mich—University of Michigan halfback Ron Johnson has been named Associated Press College Back of the Week. Michigan lost to Navy 26-21 last Saturday, but Johnson piled up a total of 270 yards from scrimmage in 26 carries, including touchdown runs of 62 and 72 yards. He also caught three passes for 19 yards, thus accounting for all but 97 of Michigan's 386 yards total offense.

ABA Is Really Big League

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Rick Barry, the National Basketball Association's leading scorer last season and now affiliated with the new American Basketball Association, said yesterday "it's been unfair to the players to have only one pro league."

"People misunderstand about the NBA," said the former San Francisco Warrior now under contract to the Oakland Oaks. "Only a few young players make the NBA each year. There are few opportunities, and it's just tough to make a team or even improve."

Barry said players coming out of college now have better chances for making a name and money in the new league.

While Barry was in Indianapolis, the Indiana Pacers announced they would be hosts for the first ABA All-Star Game in January. The tentative date is Jan. 9, either in the State Fairgrounds Coliseum (10,000 capacity where the Pacers play their home games or Butler University's Hinkle Fieldhouse (14,000).

Barry, who won the NBA scoring title only two years after graduating from the University of Miami, said, "They talk about NBA caliber. A lot of players in the NBA couldn't make it in the ABA.

"This baloney about the NBA being the prestige league and having a high level of competition doesn't mean that much."

Barry, 23, said there are players who fail to make the NBA because their positions are filled and not because of their play.

The handsome star said he doesn't feel competition will be less in the new league.

"Guys who guarded me in the NBA mainly were not the Oscar Robertsons but good-defense players who didn't have a big name," he said. "I'll still be pressed and still have to play my best."

As far as the ABA having a Wilt Chamberlain, Bill Russell or Nate Thurmond, Barry said, "there's only one of each, and I had to play against only two (he played with Thurmond)."

After Barry switched to the Oaks, San Francisco owner Franklin Mieuli gained a court injunction barring the superstar from playing in the ABA this season. Barry is sitting out the season rather than play with the Warriors.

Explaining his move, Barry said, "I love the game, but it's business to me. The basic reason I changed was financial — that and my father-in-law (former Miami Coach Bruce Hale, who now is directing the Oaks)."

Marin Fans Brave Glaring Ram Crowd

By RALPH CHATOIAN

It was like a dream. San Francisco 49ers beating the Los Angeles Rams 20-0 after the first half.

But then you start that slow waking up process. You don't want that dream to end but here you are, wide awake and back in reality, the Niners down, 21-20. Then 24-20.

There you are, foreigners in a hostile crowd of 60,424, cheering on the red-shirted 49ers and bravely taking the glares of all those Rams fans.

The Los Angeles Coliseum crowd, sweltering in the heat, boos the Rams in the first half as they fumble the ball to the 49ers three times and give up the ball twice on interceptions.

Boos turn to cheers the second half when the Rams score three touchdowns in 10 minutes. The dream's over. But wait a minute. There's Sonny Randle streaking behind a Ram defender. Brodie puts one in the air. Randle leaps and comes down with the ball for a touchdown and the 49ers have founght back to lead 27-24.

That guy in front of you, the one who had kept turning around to say that the Rams were going to beat the 49ers by 13 points, is sullen. By now the 49ers again have the ball and are ripping holes in the Fearsome Foursome, eating up the clock. Then the gun. It's over, the 49ers have upset the Rams, Los Angeles losing its first game of the year after winning six in exhibition and three in the regular season.

"But Mary, to the 49ers?" grumbles a man to his wife. "Those Rams stunk!" says another.

But there were four grinning faces in the crowd. Jack Cooper, Ray Reed, Bill Manning and yours truly, a Marin County fearsome foursome which drove to Los Angeles to cheer on two of our Northern California football teams.

Saturday night in the L.A. Coliseum it was the Stanford Indians who were manhandled by the University of Southern California Trojans, 30-0. (Everything they say about O.J. Simpson is true. He's really a good one.)

But the Stanford cheer leader came up with a good one of his own. When the public address announcer was listing the yardage Simpson had gained rushing and catching passes, the Stanford cheer leader barked in the microphone, "Yeh, but can he read?"

Before the 49ers-Ram game yesterday morning, we all got a boot out of reading a story in the Los Angeles Times which said the 49ers' main problem was lack of being mean. They weren't exactly pussy-footing it around on the field yesterday.

And did you TV interviewers see who made the tackle on Los Angeles' Clarence Williams after he intercepted a John Brodie pass in the third quarter? It was Brodie (I'd rather do it myself).

Bears Start New Season Saturday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"We start a new season Saturday. I doubt if anyone else has as tough a schedule as this in the next four weeks: UCLA, Syracuse, Washington and Southern California."

That was California Coach Ray Willsey's not too optimistic outlook as he spoke to Northern California sports writers and broadcasters yesterday.

USC is ranked No. 1 nationally, UCLA No. 4, and both Syracuse and Washington are in the top 20. California is 3-1, its only loss to Notre Dame.

"UCLA has great speed, an excellent quarterback, Gary Beban, and can do a lot of little things that are necessary to keep Bruins are one of the better teams in the country.

"We look forward to playing UCLA; we like to shoot for the big ones."

Willsey said he expects both Mike Meers and Jerome Champion, tackles injured in the Bears' 14-12 victory over the Air Force, and halfback Paul Williams, hurt earlier, to be ready for the UCLA game at Los Angeles Saturday night.

He praised quarterback Barry Bronk for "his best game." Bronk was the writers Back of the Week; Stanford's Marty Brill, Lineman of the Week.

Willsey might consult Stanford Coach John Ralston about USC, which stopped Stanford, 30 - 0. Ralston told the writers:

"USC is truly outstanding. As long as O.J. stays healthy, USC can play anyone. Their linebacking is the best in the Paci-

Ralston noted that Stanford hasn't beaten Washington State, its Saturday foe at Stanford, since a 40-26 triumph at Spokane in 1957. The Cougars have won all eight of their games since.

Comment from others:

Doug Scovil, University of the Pacific, which lost 7-21 to Montana "We didn't take advantage of the breaks. We told the team, 'The only way to win is to stop making mistakes.'"

Pat Malley, Santa Clara, which plays San Fernando Valley at home Saturday—"Their quarterback Bruce Lemmerman is an outstanding passer, runner, and team leader. He's the equal of Gary Beban, one of the best quarterbacks on the coast."

Vic Rowen, San Francisco — "The kids were down 0-6 on a 79-yard runback but that didn't stop them. We're running like cross-country this week training for Chico State. There quarterback Joe Stetser throws 75 and 80 times a game."

USC Remains On Top Of AP Grid Ratings

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern California, with a strengthened grip on the top spot in The Associated Press football poll, faces perhaps the toughest opponent on its schedule Saturday, playing Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind.

The Trojans, who received 36 of the 50 first-place votes from a panel of sportswriters and broadcasters, held a safe margin over second-place Purdue, which received 10 first-place votes while North Carolina State got four.

Southern Cal had 462 votes to Purdue's 385. Notre Dame rose from seventh last week to fifth with a 56-6 pounding of Iowa, setting up the big battle this Saturday.

Purdue, rising from fourth to second with its victory over Northwestern, faces Ohio State, 1-1, this week. Georgia, moving up from fifth to third by beating South Carolina, meets Mississippi, 1-2.

UCLA, scared by Penn State before winning 17-15, fell from third to fourth in the balloting.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses, season records and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Southern California (36)	4-0	462
2. Purdue (10)	3-0	385
3. Georgia	3-0	354
4. UCLA	4-0	338
5. Notre Dame	2-1	256
6. Colorado	3-0	179
7. Alabama	2-0-1	150
8. Nebraska	3-0	120
9. North Carolina State (4)	4-0	114
10. Houston	3-1	69

UPI RATINGS

NEW YORK (UPI) — The United Press International major college football ratings with first place votes and won-lost-tied record in parentheses:

3. UCLA 3 4-0	264
4. Georgia 3-0	232
5. Notre Dame 2-1	173
6. Alabama 2-0-1	109
7. Colorado 3-0	97
8. Missouri 3-0	95
9. (tie) Nebraska 3-0	71
10. (tie) Louisiana St. 3-0	71

Second 10-11, North Carolina State (57); 12, Houston (34); 13, Wyoming (32); 14, Georgia Tech (24); Tennessee (14); 16, tie, Oklahoma and Syracuse (10); 18, Indiana, (3); 19, Washington (2); 20, Tulsa (1).

Irish 12-Point Choice Over Top-Ranked Troy

NEW YORK (UPI)—Southern California may be top-ranked with the nation's coaches, but as far as the oddsmakers are concerned the Trojans are second-rate to Notre Dame.

The Fighting Irish, bounding back from a loss to Purdue with an Iowa massacre, were made 12-point favorites to jolt USC Saturday. The No. 5 ranked Notre Dame defense, the oddsmakers figure, is strong enough to contain O.J. Simpson.

Second ranked Purdue escaped from a tenacious Northwestern team and now runs into conditioned Ohio State. The Boilermakers are six - point choices over their Big Ten rivals. Leroy Keyes, however, could break the game open for Purdue.

UCLA, a top candidate for Rose Bowl honors, is an overwhelming 20-point favorite over California and many consider this spread generous because of Gary Beban's generalship.

No. 5 Georgia, shooting for an undisputed Southeastern conference title this year, rates a five-point pick over league rival Mississippi, while No. 6 Alabama is a huge 20-point favorite over Vanderbilt.

Colorado, No. 7 is considered seven points better than No. 8 Missouri in a battle of unbeaten and untied teams. Nebraska rates 12 points higher than Kansas in a Big Eight conference game, and Louisiana State is a touchdown favorite over tough Miami of Florida.

In key Eastern games, Penn State is rated by 9 over Boston College, Holy Cross by 7 over Colgate, Harvard by 15 over Columbia, Cornell by 3 over Princeton, Dartmouth by 15 over Pennsylvania, Yale by 13 over Brown, and Syracuse-Navy is rated a pick 'em contest.

Midwest — Michigan State 10 over Michigan, Wisconsin 7 over Pittsburgh, Indiana 10 over Iowa and Kansas State 5 over Iowa State.

South—Florida 6 over Tulane Virginia Tech 7 over Kentucky, Duke 7 over Virginia, Auburn 4 over Clemson, Florida State 8 over South Carolina, North Carolina State 13 over Maryland and Tennessee 4 over Georgia

Southwest —SMU 2 over Army, Rice 7 over Northwestern, Texas Tech 4 over Texas A&M and Arkansas 7 over Baylor.

West—Air Force 6 over North Carolina, Washington 12 over Oregon and Stanford 10 over Washington State.

Seals Undecided On Goalie For Tomorrow's Opener

The long and short of it for California Seals is the question of who will be in the goal for them in their National Hockey League opener at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow against Philadelphia in the Oakland Arena.

The Seals' choice is between 6-4 Gary Smith and 5-6 Charlie Hodge, first draft choice of the Seals who arrived 18 days late to training camp and still may be out of shape.

The visiting Flyers are in the same predicament. They have a young hotshot net-minder from the minors, Doug Favell, while top draft choice Bernie Parent from Boston was a late arrival but has been rounding into shape.

A Pole With Polish Is Carl Gesundheit

ST. LOUIS—His name reads like a page out of the Warsaw phone book. You don't pronounce it, you sneeze it. If they wrote it on his uniform, it would go around twice or say "To be continued."

In New England, if you ask, "Who discovered the Pole?" they will tell you it was baseball scout named Bots Nikola. Because, Carl Michael Yastrzemski is a far more famous Pole, from Maine to the North Shore of Long Island Sound, than the one in Antarctica.

IN THE past, when he would reach out over the plate searching for a dipping curve ball that eluded him, he would be called the "fishing Pole." On pop-ups to the backstop, he would be called the "foul Pole." But, make no mistake about it, this year he is the "pennant Pole." When he ran up that flag for Boston, someone dubbed him the "Pole flag sitter."

THERE HAVE been famous Polish ball players of the past. But they usually cut their names off as soon as it reached a vowel and tried to keep it smaller than the alphabet. "Tony Piet" was only part of his name. "Alphonse Szyzmanski" became "Al Simmons." "Pete Jabonowksi" changed his name to "Appleton" in honor of his hometown. With Yastrzemski, he would have had to become "Carl Michael Southhampton Long Island." He decided to become a good enough ball player they would be glad to carry his name around for him in the back of a Cadillac.

HE WENT to Notre Dame because guys whose names started with "Y's" and ended with "Z's" were right at home there. He never played a game of baseball there because 14 other athletic institutions offered him scholarships — the Philadelphia Phillies, the Cincinnati Reds, among others. He came to the Boston Red Sox for an unusual and un-Polish reason. "I looked at what Mr. Yawkey was paying the intermediate ball player—the .280 hitter, the Dom DiMaggios." Carl was not aiming for the executive suite — and, at first, his play reflected it.

A BEAUTIFUL natural swinger with the bat-high, coiled explosion of a Stan Musial, he began to half-hit the ball with a contrived inside-out swing like a golfer afraid of a hook. He aimed for the short, wrong-field fence.

The money was in the other field. Batters who aim end up in "So What?" instead of "Who's Who." Yastrzemski was like a Gatling gun shooting leaflets. Jack Dempsey trying to out-box you. His idea was to go for 2-for-4 not for the roof of Prudential Building. Ted Williams, who would try to pull a balloon out of a national park, couldn't cover his eyes fast enough. "Hit the damn ball, don't look like you're trying to mail it to the fans," he instructed.

YASTRZEMSKI HAD other hang-ups, not to say pop-ups. The Red Sox at the time were not a team, they were a variety show. They acted as if they didn't know you kept score — or cared. Each guy came out and did his bag of tricks. There were some guys on the club who couldn't tell you the score of the game to the nearest four digits.

The Red Sox team decided to hold a meeting, presumably to introduce themselves to each other. Yastrzemski was elected captain by a vote of 20-5. The five guys in the minority voted for no captain rather than Yastrzemski. It was like five guys in a lifeboat voting to drown rather than turn over the helm to a sixth.

"A CAPTAIN can only be a captain if it's unanimous," Yastrzemski conceded Friday, waving a 33-ounce bat. He won the batting championship in 1963. "Yaz Wins Batting Championship, Hose Finish 7th," read the Boston headlines. In short, HIS operations were successful, but the patient was dying.

They hired Dick Williams to manage the club this year and the first thing he did was to tell Yaz that one captain was enough for the Red Sox. Yaz, surprisingly, didn't care. He was fed up with getting rave reviews in a flop show.

Yastrzemski not only began to pull the ball, he began to pull the Red Sox. "He came in," said Dick Williams, "and said 'I'll do anything in the world you want me to.' I have never seen a player, offensively and defensively dominate a team, a league, a season the way Carl Yastrzemski has."

ONCE A LONER who preferred to brood on his own troubles, Carl Yastrzemski became not only the Triple Crown winner but the team cheerleader and smiler. He accepted responsibilities off the field that the team that Ted William led would never have thought of. At the World Series, the most glamorous star in it is the most approachable in it. Reporters from newspapers that have a circulation only slightly larger than the Red Sox roster have no trouble asking Carl Yastrzemski what he had for dinner. He has talked into more microphones than Bob Hope.

A LOT of players give 100 per cent on the field, Carl Yastrzemski give 100 per cent off it. As so often happens when a man goes from being selfish to selfless, it has not only helped others, it has helped him. He is the greatest player in his league today, and, if Boston gets a new baseball park, as they now think possible, they should call it "Yastrzemski Field." And never mind the spelling. People will be able to spell that name who can't spell "Smith."

Ernie Nevers Is Honored By Magazine

Ernie Nevers of Tiburon, all-time pro football great, has been named winner of the Sport Magazine Service Award for November, according to an article in the current issue of the magazine.

The award, presented for outstanding contributions to the advancement of community sports programs and activities, goes to the former Chicago Bear star and Standford All-American for his work with San Francisco Bay Area youth groups.

Nevers, currently president of the Northern California National Football Foundation and Collegiate Hall of Fame scholarship committee, helps to arrange for college scholarships for deserving boys each year. He is also active with the Columbia Park Boys Club in San Francisco and the Marin County Boys Club.

BOWLING TIPS

By MARION LADEWIG

Some bowlers insist on doing things the hard way. Among them are the people who stand on the right-hand side of the lane when they are shooting for the 10-pin. Obviously they must somehow get the ball to roll the length of the lane while teetering on the edge. The amazing thing to me is that they often get away with it! Even the most adept at this style frequently fail, however. Why not shoot from the opposite corner? It certainly leaves much more room for error. Try it in practice, of you happen to be one of the thrill-seekers.

Teen Ace Leads Bowlers

He had games of 204, 225 and 190 for a 619 series in the 905 Travel League and a 253 line while bowling in the 840 Scratch.

Carol Tyler of San Rafael, bowling in the Alley Kats League, led the women with a 574 series and 233 game. Fran Clementino of Novato hit six consecutive strikes and wound up with a 230 in the Classie Lassies.

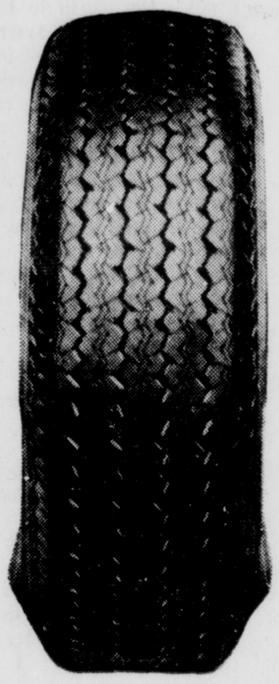
MICHELIN X
STEEL CORD RADIAL TIRES



ARE GUARANTEED
40,000 MILES OF TREAD WEAR
(and that's a minimum effort for this tire)

The Tire with a Difference

The difference in "footprint"

Michelin "X" Radial tires give you an extra large "footprint" that rolls without distortion. The ultra flexible sidewalls let more tread touch pavement. This means more grip . . . surer handling. The tread acts quite like a tank track. In fact, when you're driving in snow, Michelin "X" tires actually plow their own road through it so cleats and chains aren't needed.

The difference in "curve-grip"

When you go around a curve, strong side forces are applied to the tires. If sidewalls are inherently stiff, as is the case with criss-crossed construction, side forces can not be properly absorbed. This causes the tread to "heel-up" off the ground. At this point you start to lose a good part of the grip at the contact area. The Michelin "X" Radial, with its very flexible sidewalls, responds to cornering forces as indicated on the lower figurs. Side forces are absorbed entirely by the ground. This action eliminates tire "squeal," provides full grip and assures you of a high safety level.

What do these Qualities Mean for You?

- EXTRA LONG TREAD MILEAGE. It's definitely a proven fact: Under the same driving conditions (same car, same driver), the Michelin "X" Radial tire lasts at least twice as long . . . in many cases much longer . . . than ordinary tires. That's why we can guarantee it for 40,000 miles of tread wear.
- FULL GRIP . . . FULL TRACTION IN ALL WEATHER. In tests it proved unmatched for retaining traction on wet roads . . . and resisted sliding on rain-slick curves. It also proved to give as much snow-grip as a snow tire . . . plus, more ice-grip. You may never need snow tires or chains again!
- ACCURATE BRAKING ACTION. The extra large "footprint" and the presence of steel cords do not allow the braking force to distort and pinch the tread pattern. Your braking action keeps its full force where you need it most.
- MORE CAR CONTROL. You can steer with less effort and your car won't wander on straightaways. "It's like riding on rails."
- FAR FEWER PUNCTURES. Steel plies beneath the tread shield against road hazards. You get fewer punctures and a higher degree of safety.
- VIRTUAL ELIMINATION OF HEAT BLOWOUT RISKS. Because of their radial design, Michelin "X" Radials run cooler. Your chances of casing failures or heat blowouts are virtually eliminated.
- UNSURPASSED DRIVING COMFORT. Michelin "X" Radial tires absorb bumps and jolts like no other tire on the road because radial cords flex in the same direction. It's like having an extra set of shock absorbers.
- MEASUREABLE FUEL SAVINGS. Because Michelin "X" Radial tires provide less rolling resistance, your car uses less energy and goes further on a gallon of gas.

PRICE?

Not as much as you would expect. Cain's discounts these great tires to a price ranging from $30.00 to $55.00 depending on your size (plus Fed. Tax to $3.41), really very little more than most good tires and less than your major brand premium tires that deliver little more than a fancy sidewall!

USED TIRES AND CHANGE-OVERS

We have been selling so darn many Michelins that we have the best assortment of used and nearly new tires ever. Prices on these range from $5.00 to $15.00 and NO EXCISE TAX. These are real fine tires . . . NO CAPS . . . and I've got so many I can't get them in the racks any more.

CAIN'S SERVICE DEPT. is sometimes slighted when you think of auto repairs. BUT we have one of the best Service Departments in Marin County AND we will give you a lower cost on the work done. We won't align your car for $5.55 as the new Goodyear store advertises, but we will do it for $9.95 complete and not pressure you into buying a new front end. Your NO NONSENSE TIRE DEALER.

Wall Street In Sharp Drop At Day's End

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed with a sharp loss in active trading today.

Prices were at their lowest levels of the day at the final bell.

Losses of many key issues ranged to 2 points and more.

Jones & Laughlin and General Motors dropped more than a point.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange.

Mayfair Drops S&H Stamps

SAN FRANCISCO — S&H Green Stamps will be removed from Mayfair food markets in the Fresno area this week, John M. Phillips, vice president of the Sperry and Hutchinson Co., said.

It is contemplated that S&H Stamps will be removed from other Mayfair markets in California on a city-by-city basis in coming weeks. These outlets account for one per cent of S&H total volume.

S&H Green Stamps, accounting for about 40 per cent of total trading stamp volume in the United States, are distributed nationally through approximately 70,000 retail outlets.

Sears, Roebuck Sales In September Record

CHICAGO (BW) — Sears, Roebuck and Co. sales in September were 10.1 per cent higher than last year.

Gross sales for the month were a record $672,566,233, an increase of $61,636,362 over sales in September 1966.

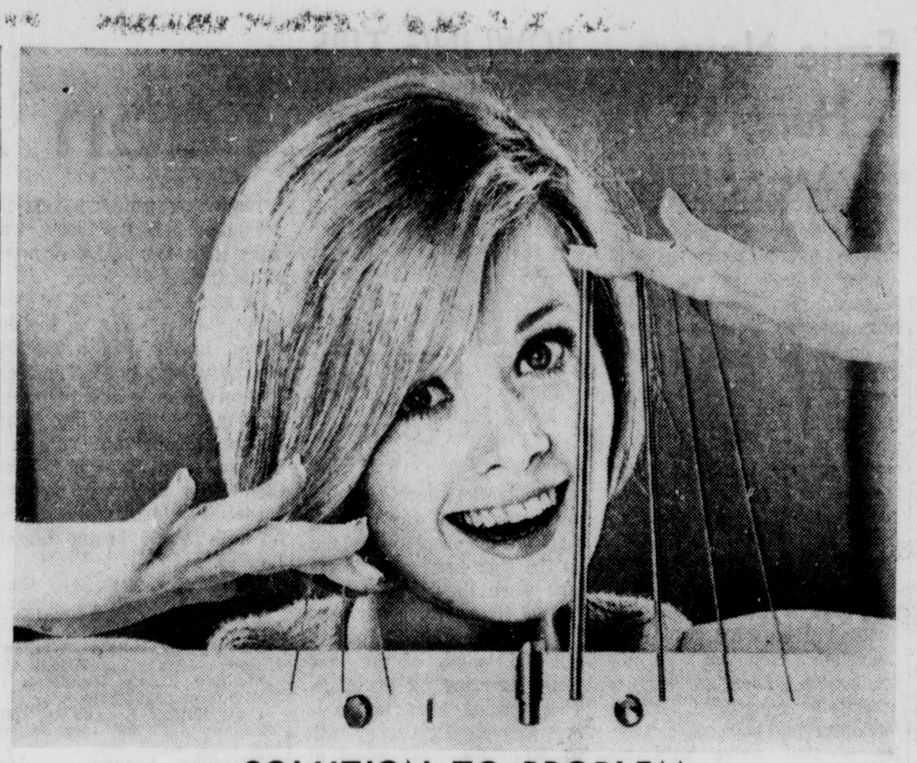
Until the atomic era, uranium was merely a byproduct of radium and vanadium mines, useful for coloring glass and pottery, says the National Geographic.



SOLUTION TO PROBLEM

Kathy Phillips has her fingers on one proposed solution to a problem: How to weld metals such as titanium, used for fuselage and wings of supersonic aircraft. She's framed by a variety of tungsten electrodes produced by the chemical and metallurgical division of Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., Towanda, Pa. The firm claims titanium can be welded by the inert gas (argon) method using tungsten (non-consumable) electrodes such as the ones shown. (UPI Telephoto)

Oil Need Ahead Soon To Require New Finds

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—The oil needs of the United States are expected to rise 50 per cent to 17 million barrels per day by 1980, according to the American Petroleum Institute.

The institute said oil firms will have to find 79 billion barrels of new reserves to meet this increase in demand.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

How To Split Funds To Purchase Stocks

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I have a young friend who has saved $2,000 to help him some day to get a college education. Was I wrong to tell him to split it four ways? I suggested that he put one-fourth in an oil stock — which? One-fourth in merchandising—Sears or Consolidated Foods? One-fourth in health fields—Walgreen or American Hospital Supply? One-fourth in Holiday Inns, or should he buy Gulf Oil which might merge with it?—E. P.

A. It is very good of you to help your young friend, and your advice to him seems generally sound. I should like to say first, though, that he should not buy stocks at all unless his need for funds is far enough away so that he can give the shares ample time to work out.

He should certainly diversify, and in the petroleum group I like Union Oil, which has come down in price and seems relatively attractive at present. I believe the growth outlook for Consolidated Foods is now a little stronger than for a broader merchandiser like Sears.

Q. Please explain the difference between a stock split and a large stock dividend. —

A. Gladly. As far as the stockholder is concerned, there is no essential difference. In each one he gets additional shares without in any way increasing the proportionate amount of his investment. The main distinction is in accounting procedure, which is of little concern to the ordinary investor.

In 1899, automobiles were prohibited from Boston's public streets between 10:30 a.m. and 9 p.m., says the Automobile Legal Association.

Wall Street In Sharp Drop At Day's End

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed with a sharp loss in active trading today.

Declines outnumbered advances among individual stocks by more than 2 to 1.

Prices were at their lowest levels of the day at the final bell.

The market showed a small gain in early trading after three straight sessions of advance. Prices began fading around mid-day and the decline accelerated in late trading.

Losses of many key issues ranged to 2 points and more.

Electronics, nonferrous metals and rails were particularly weak.

Jones & Laughlin and General Motors dropped more than a point.

Amphenol gained about half a point after announcement that its merger plans with Sangamo Electric had been dropped.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange.

Mayfair Drops S&H Stamps

SAN FRANCISCO — S&H Green Stamps will be removed from Mayfair food markets in the Fresno area this week, John M. Phillips, vice president of the Sperry and Hutchinson Co., said.

It is contemplated that S&H Stamps will be removed from other Mayfair markets in California on a city-by-city basis in coming weeks. These outlets account for one per cent of S&H total volume.

S&H Green Stamps, accounting for about 40 per cent of total trading stamp volume in the United States, are distributed nationally through approximately 70,000 retail outlets.

Sears, Roebuck Sales In September Record

CHICAGO (BW) — Sears, Roebuck and Co. sales in September were 10.1 per cent higher than last year.

Gross sales for the month were a record $672,566,233, an increase of $61,636,362 over sales in September 1966.

Until the atomic era, uranium was merely a byproduct of radium and vanadium mines, useful for coloring glass and pottery, says the National Geographic.

SOLUTION TO PROBLEM

Kathy Phillips has her fingers on one proposed solution to a problem: How to weld metals such as titanium, used for fuselage and wings of supersonic aircraft. She's framed by a variety of tungsten electrodes produced by the chemical and metallurgical division of Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., Towanda, Pa. The firm claims titanium can be welded by the inert gas (argon) method using tungsten (non-consumable) electrodes such as the ones shown. (UPI Telephoto)

Oil Need Ahead Soon To Require New Finds

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—The oil needs of the United States are expected to rise 50 per cent to 17 million barrels per day by 1980, according to the American Petroleum Institute.

The institute said oil firms will have to find 79 billion barrels of new reserves to meet this increase in demand.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I have a young friend who has saved $2,000 to help him some day to get a college education. Was I wrong to tell him to split it four ways? I suggested that he put one-fourth in an oil stock — which? One-fourth in merchandising—Sears or Consolidated Foods? One-fourth in health fields—Walgreen or American Hospital Supply? One-fourth in Holiday Inns, or should he buy Gulf Oil which might merge with it?—E. P.

A. It is very good of you to help your young friend, and your advice to him seems generally sound. I should like to say first, though, that he should not buy stocks at all unless his need for funds is far enough away so that he can give the shares ample time to work out.

He should certainly diversify, and in the petroleum group I like Union Oil, which has come down in price and seems relatively attractive at present. I believe the growth outlook for Consolidated Foods is now a little stronger than for a broader merchandiser like Sears.

Q. Please explain the difference between a stock split and a large stock dividend. —

A. Gladly. As far as the stockholder is concerned, there is no essential difference. In each one he gets additional shares without in any way increasing the proportionate amount of his investment. The main distinction is in accounting procedure, which is of little concern to the ordinary investor.

In 1899, automobiles were prohibited from Boston's public streets between 10:30 a.m. and 9 p.m., says the Automobile Legal Association.
